Wadleigh Memorial Library Meeting Room Policy and Use Agreement

The public meeting rooms of the Wadleigh Memorial Library are available to the educational, cultural and civic groups based in Milford or substantially serving Milford. Rooms may be made available for the use of individual patrons or small groups on an "as available," non-reservation basis for quiet study, free tutoring, or conference purposes, subject to the approval of the Library Director or their designee.

The rooms are available on a no-fee basis during normal library business hours. Rooms should be reserved in advance. Reservations must be approved by the Director or their designee. Rooms will be assigned as requested as long as space is available. The individual who completes this form must be in attendance at the meeting and will be responsible for picking up the room key and attendance sheet at the Reference Desk.

In order to permit fair access the Director may limit the number or frequency of reservations. Due to the high demand for meeting room space, room reservations are limited to once a week during weekday daytime hours, or once a month during evening or weekend hours.

Groups wishing to book regular evening or weekend meetings at the same day and time each month (e.g. every 3rd Monday at 7PM, or every 1st Tuesday at 6:30pm) may only book their group three months ahead of the requested date. This is to give opportunity to other groups who may wish to meet on that day and time and to accommodate as many groups as possible. Groups who use library meeting rooms on an occasional or irregular (non-monthly) basis may book as far as six months in advance.

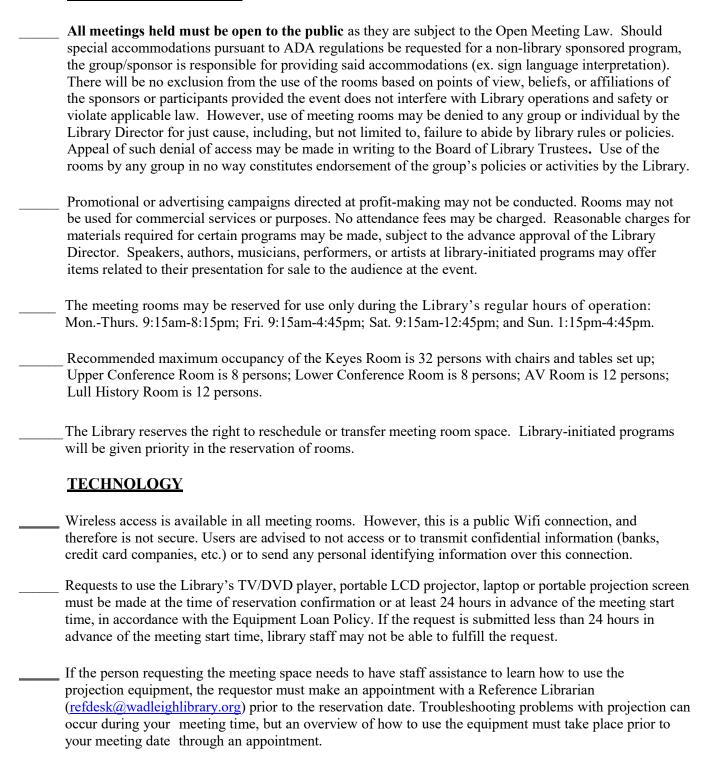

Individual patrons or small groups who request a room without a reservation for quiet study, free tutoring, or conference purposes will be allowed to do so for a 2-hour limit. Subject to availability, they may extend use of the room for 1 hour at a time. Those who request a room without a reservation do not have to be Milford residents or Wadleigh card holders.

A non-profit group is defined as a group that is either a verifiable 501(c)(3) entity through the Internal Revenue Service, or is an informal group that does not charge a fee for meeting or event attendance. Reservations are accepted on a first-come, first-served basis, and groups must include at least one Milford resident or non-resident Wadleigh Memorial Library card holder in good standing, age 18 years of age or older.
