I am not a member at the moment basically because of COVID burnout. I’m tired of Zoom and don’t enjoy online meetings, it’s just not the same; but I’m limiting my exposure and not yet attending in person events. This basically means I’m not participating in the wider community as much, which I miss. And since I’m not currently attending any conferences, events, or workshops, it’s been easy to let membership lapse.

  I used to be pretty involved in it. I don't know. Don't have a car, or the time, or the energy.

What are the top three issues facing New Hampshire Librarians and Library Staff today?

Low pay. Too many PT jobs with no benefits. Lack of diversity.

What does NHLA do well?

Reads-to-go kits are helpful, or at least have been in the past.
What does NHLA do poorly?

aren't some of your websites broken?

Is there anything NHLA should stop doing?

All conferences should be virtual. We can't all get time off and travel expenses (or a ride)

Is there anything NHLA should start doing?

Advocating for the protection of library workers during a pandemic and all the time. Assistance in convincing library boards and cities and directors and whoever that we all need to be paid better. Maybe some help navigating the Public student loan forgiveness program.

Any additional comments?

Maybe communicate more of what you're doing to nhais-l. Do you have a FB or Twitter account I should be following?

What are the top three issues facing New Hampshire Librarians and Library Staff today?

Hiring and retaining personnel, budget limitations due to revenue stream

What does NHLA do well?

Provide support and information for NH librarians. The Flume, Great Stone Face, Ladybug and Isinglass awards and lists are very helpful.
What does NHLA do poorly?

Is there anything NHLA should stop doing?
NHLA needs to be NH focused - NH is a different populace from other states and NHLA needs to recognize that and work with what NH provides.

Is there anything NHLA should start doing?
Addressing concerns about the ability of NH communities to continue to fund their libraries since the pandemic caused so much disruption.

What are the top three issues facing New Hampshire Librarians and Library Staff today?

1. Public not knowing some benefits of the library (example, not realizing that movies can be checked out from a library or not knowing about ILL).
2. Understanding of what local patrons are interested in for new items.
3. Understanding which library functions need improvement within the library.
