

What if I lose a library item?

We understand that accidents happen and occasionally things go missing. If this happens to you, please come to the library and make arrangements to pay for your lost item. The replacement cost will vary based upon the item itself. It is important to resolve these situations as soon as possible because your borrowing privileges (books/audiobooks/dvds/computers/etc.) may be suspended due to outstanding charges.