Access Consumer Reports with your Library Card

Consumer Reports

The Southborough Library is offering access to a new online resource! With a valid library card, Consumer Reports can be accessed online from home through the library's website. Users can read reviews, ratings, and recommendations of a huge array of items, services, stores, and systems. News articles on recent developments are available for browsing.

The online magazine also offers buying guides with suggestions and precautions to keep in mind. One key feature is "Build & Buy Car Buying Service" to help narrow down the right new or used car available in the area. Explore additional research databases by clicking here, or access Consumer Reports directly here: bit.ly/sblibCRReports.

Consumer Reports works side by side with consumers for truth, transparency, and fairness in the marketplace.

- Patrons can search product reviews by categories including appliances, babies & kids, cars, electronics, health, home & garden as well as more.
- Sign up for the latest news to get insights and tips from experts on everyday decisions.
- Get information on issues that matter such as car and food safety, data privacy, financial fairness and more.
