Lakes Region Planning Commission
Church Landing at Mill Falls
Meredith, NH 03253

Dear Friends,

I write to celebrate the Lakes Region Planning Commission's Annual Meeting. I first would like to thank all the organizers and volunteers who made tonight's celebration possible. As we honor award recipients and connect with community leaders from across New Hampshire, let us also take a moment to reflect on the immense effect LRPC's service has had across our region.

The Lakes Region Planning Commission has established itself as an invaluable tool for community enrichment. It has sustained a unique relationship among our local governments and supported community efforts since its inception. Today, the Commission continues to provide effective planning services to the Lakes Region community through education and responsive representation. LRPC's ability to quickly deliver services to communities in need deserves special recognition, and I congratulate the Commission for its service to New Hampshire.

LRPC has many exciting prospects on the horizon. I would like to thank tonight's keynote speaker, Laconia Mayor Andrew Hosmer, for his commitment to our local community and for taking the time to offer his perspective on the development of State School property. Projects like this highlight the importance of workforce housing across New Hampshire, and I commend its acknowledgement during this annual meeting.

Tonight is an opportunity to celebrate the LRPC's strong record of success and prepare for the next big projects. Thank you to everyone involved in organizing tonight's festivities. If my office can ever be of any assistance, please do not hesitate to reach out. Best wishes for your continued success!

Best,
