Mountains to the Sea writing group on Zoom: Wednesday, March 13, 10:30-11:45 AM to explore this year's theme Kithship. Join in at bit.ly/mtns-sea23-24.

"The Care and Feeding of Your Shaggy Dog," Wednesday, March 20, 6:30 PM at the library. Storyteller Andy Davis pilots a new storytelling workshop. A "shaggy dog story" is a meandering, digressive account of a series of events that leads inexorably, gloriously, beautifully to a disappointing anti-climax. It's narrative for the joy of narrative, and Mark Twain called it a "high and delicate art." Andy will perform a classic example and then give a brief glimpse at its history. Finally, you'll experiment with what you've learned that can also have broader practical applications in life.

Poetry Hour will meet at the library on Monday, March 25 at 5:00 PM. Come read or listen.

CML Adult Book Group's March book is Sirens of Mars: Searching for Life on Another World by Sarah Stewart Johnson. A discussion will be held on Tuesday, March 26 at 6:30 PM on Zoom. Sign up for the Zoom link at bit.ly/cmlbookgroup2024.

Elder and Probate Accounting, Friday, March 29th from 11:00 AM to 12:00 PM. Nancy Cavaliere, CFE Forensic Accountant, will discuss Elder and Probate Accounting. Learn about things most people don't think about, until it is too late. Nancy is a member of Financial Abuse Specialty Team (FAST) of NH, an organization that serves to increase public awareness of financial exploitation, with the goal of helping to protect the state's elderly and other vulnerable populations from such exploitation.

Friends of CML Book Sale and Treasures, Saturday, March 30, 10:00 AM to 1:00 PM in the library's meeting room. Books for sale at bargain prices! In addition, the Friends will offer a selection of "treasures" by donation. To donate books (we're not accepting donations of "treasures"), see guidelines at <https://tamworthlibrary.org/Pages/Index/228555/friends-book-sales>.

Save the date: "Saturday Morning Cartoons: Bugs Bunny, Bullwinkle, and Big Business in the 1960s" on Wednesday, April 3 at 7:00 PM in person at the library. This program, presented by Margo Burns, is made possible through a grant from New Hampshire Humanities.

Are you ready for the solar eclipse on April 8? We are!

Get ready for the eclipse day: Come to the library on Saturday, April 6 between 11 and 1 for eclipse-related activities. Make a pin-hole viewer, draw some eclipse chalk art, trace your shadow on our sidewalk, and more.

Eclipse glasses: Beginning on Monday, April 1, we'll have eclipse glasses to give away (limit 2 per family), thanks to STARNet's SEAL (Solar Eclipse Activities for Libraries) program.

Community eclipse observing: On Monday, April 8 between 2:15 and 4:30 PM, we'll gather on the Tamworth History

Center's village green to view the eclipse as a community.
