

What's New at Your Library?

- Programs will be held in-person, online, or have both in-person and virtual attendance options available.
- We've added more fiber-optic internet bandwidth for speedy wireless and public access computers.
- We have Brainfuse HelpNow Tutoring and Brainfuse JobNow job-seeking support! All you need to use these resources is a computer, library card number, and pin.
- Caregivers of little ones - Make any time learning time with TALK! Sign up at texttolearn.com to get text messages with fun activities you can do at home to prepare for school success.
- The Michigan Activity Pass allows you to check out FREE or discounted admission passes to hundreds of Michigan state parks, museums, and more with your library card. Access to Metroparks, including Indian Springs, was recently added to the pass.

We're keeping a few safeguards in place through the fall. Our current services include:

- Inside browsing, hold pickup, and public computers available.
- In-person, phone, and online reference and advisory services.
- Improved 24/7 Wi-Fi access in our parking lot.
- Study rooms are available for one-person use.
- We will use the meeting rooms for most library programs to allow for comfortable physical distancing.
- Please “mask up” if you aren't fully vaccinated or have a health exemption. The CDC currently recommends that everyone mask up when inside public spaces.
- Curbside delivery continues for all customers, including those who cannot or prefer not to wear masks.
- Audiobooks, e-books, movies, magazines, and reference materials available 24/7 @ whitelakelibrary.org
