The Village Board Completes Year's Business and Adjourns Sine Die.

The Chatsworth village board met Monday evening in special session to close up the business of the old municipal year, allowed a few bills and adjourned sine die.

There was only one change in the personnel of the board. H. C. McMahon succeeded L. W. Shols as one of the village trustees. Mr. Shols was not a candidate for re-election at the late election.

President Sneyd made his committee appointments as follows for the year:

Streets and Alleys—Snyder, Gerbrach and Feely.

Public Buildings and Grounds—Boeman, Gerbracht and Shafer.

Fire and Water—Feely, Snyder and McMahon.

Light—Shafer, Boeman and McMahon.

Law and Order—McMahon, Snyder and Boeman.

Finance—Gerbracht, Feely and Shafer.

Board of Health—Drs. Ellingwood and Wilestad.

Fire Marshall—R. T. Haberkorn.

The board employed John Boehle as day police and street commissioner and D. Martin as night police. Adst, Thompson & Herr were appointed attorneys and Robert Rosenboom village plumber.

MRS. MILTON STROUSE DIES.
Lincoln, April 26.—Herwig Traub, 48 years old, wife of Milton R. Strouse of Tomah Wis., passed away Wednesday night at her home following an illness of two months, the direct cause being a trouble which started some two years ago.

A cancerous ailment of the breast developed two years ago and it was removed by Mayo Brothers at Rochester, Minn. For some time after recovery her health was of the best. Her old ailment recurred two months ago, and after a thorough examination by Mayo Brothers six weeks ago, she was sent home with the word that her condition could not be relieved.

She is survived by her husband and one daughter Julia, about 12 years of age; three brothers in this country, Henry Traub, of Lincoln, Simeon Traub, of Chicago and Will Traub, of Rensselaer, Ind. Two brothers and two sisters still reside in Germany.

It is expected she remains will be brought to Delavan for interment in the family lot. It is probable that the funeral services will be held Sunday in Delavan.—Pantagraph Friday, April 27th.

Mrs. Strouse was a sister of William Traub of Rensselaer, Ind., a former Chatsworth clothing merchant, and made many friends here during her visits at the Traub home here, who will be grieved to hear of her death.

BODY FOUND IN RIVER.
The body of John Enderly a well known farmer residing east and north of Loda, who disappeared from home on April 3rd last, was found floating on the surface of the Vermillion river southeast of McDowell by George Balbach of Chenoa, late Sunday afternoon.

The last seen of Enderly was on the afternoon of April 3rd when he left his home about five o'clock in the evening. The fact that he was missing from home was not generally known until the finding of his body, according to statements. He had been acting queerly previous to the time of his disappearance, and had had some discussions with members of his family over financial matters. It is presumed that he became dependent over business affairs and took his own life.

Mr. Enderly is survived by his wife and three children.

TOURIST DELUGE DUE
Automobile tourists are beginning their annual pilgrimage across the continent at this early date. A District of Columbia automobile passed in Chatsworth on its way. With a few more weeks of favorable weather the tourist travel will be in full swing.

WALTER W. HOLLOWAY, WHO SUCCESSFULLY MANAGED THE WING BASEBALL TEAM LAST YEAR IS AGAIN AT THE HELM AND IS LISTING GAMES FOR THIS SEASON. Wing won a large percentage of its games last year and came out the winner of the big Sibley tournament. They will make most of the clubs in this section of the state step right along to win from them. Games may be arranged by writing to W. W. Holloway, manager, Wing.

William Lowen, of Decatur has signed a contract to pitch for Joe McGinnity's 3-I league with headquarters at Des Moines, Iowa. William is well known to Chatsworth people having visited here a number of times at the home of his grandmother Mrs. Sarah Harry.

PLOWING UP CARDIFF STREETS
They're plowing up the streets of Cardiff and in a short time there will be corn growing where once there were residents and busy business houses. The town, like hundreds of others, had a mushroom existence and its population grew to 2,000 in a very short time. A large coal mine caused the place to come into existence, but the mine gave out and the population scattered. Only a few houses are left.—Dwight Star and Herald.

AUTO CAUSES ACCIDENT

John Herr and Two Sons Pinned Under Car in Water.

John Herr and sons, Cyril and Paul were the victims of an automobile accident Saturday evening north of Crescent City which came near costing the lives of Cyril and Paul. Mr. Herr and son, Paul, had motored to Chatsworth during the day and in the evening were being accompanied to their home, about six miles north of Crescent City, by Cyril, who is employed in the Citizens bank here. In some manner the body of the car came loose from the frame and caught in the front wheels throwing the car upside down in a fifteen-foot ditch at the roadside. All were pinned under the car in about three feet of water. Mr. Herr managed to crawl out and hauled some men nearby who helped extricate the boys from their perilous positions. Paul received deep cuts on one hand, Cyril's back was injured and all three were more or less bruised. Had not help been near at hand the boys would soon have drowned. Their clothing was torn and ruined but they consider themselves fortunate that they escaped more serious injury.

MAY COURT CONVENE

Judge S. R. Baker opened the May term of the Livingston county court Tuesday.

The forenoon was consumed in the hearing of witnesses in support of petitions for naturalization. In but two instances were petitions refused, they being the case of Joseph Paternoster of Fairbury, who failed in presenting sufficient proof and S. P. Bradley, of this city, in whose case a petition was refused because he claimed exemption from the draft during the war. Those persons receiving naturalizations were: John Gurbal, Reading; Anna Brigitta Brolesen, Pontiac; Mary Agnes Loretta Bradley, Pontiac; John Sandiforth, Saunemin; Johanna Grefges, Pontiac; Anna Kohne, also known as Sister Mary Philomena, Pontiac; Steve Zappa, Dwight; Nicholas Constantino Vourazoo, Champaign; Steve Wais Pontiac; John Hasko, Reading.

Tuesday afternoon members of the grand jury reported and were sworn and were instructed by the court. A. M. Tabling of Round Grove township, was appointed foreman of the jury.—Leader.

DOPE FOR THE FANS

The opening game at Chatsworth will be Strawn vs. Chatsworth, May 13th. Tobie Lamson will be on the firing line for Strawn and says he is going to give his old team mates a real battle.

Harvey Brown, Kempton's baseball ace, will play with the newly organized Kankakee Legion team this summer, according to the Kankakee Republican of Tuesday. They will open the season May 13th at Electric Park against Champaign. Harvey is without doubt the best catcher in this neck of the woods. He does the receiving well, has a wonderful throwing arm and can hit the ball when necessary. He played with a Champaign team last year.

Walter W. Holloway, who successfully managed the Wing baseball team last year is again at the helm and is listing games for this season. Wing won a large percentage of its games last year and came out the winner of the big Sibley tournament. They will make most of the clubs in this section of the state step right along to win from them. Games may be arranged by writing to W. W. Holloway, manager, Wing.

NEWS OF THE NEIGHBORHOOD

Short News Items Gleaned From Exchanges and Other Sources, Told Briefly.

William Piercy, of Emington, has leased the Switzer building in Piper City and will conduct a grocery and meat market.

An assessment roll for a water system in the village of Gridley which is estimated to cost the village the sum of $41,721 has been filed in the McLean county court. Four hundred and fifty subscriptions are included in the assessment roll, which takes in almost every lot in the village.

Prof. C. C. Merrill has been retained to head the school faculty of Forrest for another school year. Prof. Merrill has put the Forrest schools on the map in many respects and he possesses the happy faculty of being a companion with the pupils with out losing discipline.

A mass meeting of Saunemin citizens was held a few evenings ago to try to make some arrangements with the Northern Utilities Company to string wires over from Pontiac and furnish the Saunemin people electric lights. The company has agreed to do so if the Saunemin folks will assume some of the expense and enough people agree to use the lights.

The contractor who has the job of constructing the five miles of cement road along the Corn Belt trail thru Fairbury, started pouring cement this week. The road has been blocked at the terminal of the five mile stretch, about two miles east of Fairbury and it is necessary to detour south a mile to get into Fairbury.

WINS BIG HONOR

Miss Leora Leggate, a Chatsworth girl and a senior at the University of Illinois was elected president recently of the Omicron Nu sorority at the university.

The honor will be more readily understood when it is stated that the sorority one must have made grade A in all their studies and that only three women students of the University of Illinois, of the vast number of students, were eligible this year to membership.

Miss Leggate is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Leggate and all Chatsworth people are proud that she has ranked so well in her studies.

SURPRISED.

Last Friday night Simon Elbert was roused out of bed by someone knocking on the door. Simon thought at first they were some Ku Klux Klan. He got up and took his flashlight and went to the door and opened it. There stood his two daughters and grandson, Francis, Mrs. Albee and son, of Chatsworth, and Mrs. Frank Elbert of near Forrest. Simon insisted upon them coming in and the next morning they took charge of Mrs. Elbert's kitchen—cleaned all the wood work and papered the whole kitchen in fine shape. Mrs. Frank Elbert made some fine fruit salad for supper. Simon said it was delicious. After supper they left on the milk train for their homes.—Saunemin Headlight.

PONTIAC I. O. O. F. HAS BAND

Pontiac lodge No. 262, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, now has a band made up entirely of its own members. It is believed that this is the only lodge in the state which has a band made up exclusively of members within itself. The band is getting organized and expects to furnish music for lodge gatherings as well as district meetings of the order. Some of the best band musicians in the city are members of the new organization.

APRIL WEATHER.

With a total precipitation of less than one inch, April, 1923, failed to produce her usual quota of showers and finished her temperature record with a high mark of 81 degrees. Rain is needed badly for all growing vegetation.

DEATH CLAIMS MRS. SULLIVAN

Long Time Resident of Chatsworth Passes Away Tuesday Morning at 3 O'clock.

Mrs. Mary Sullivan died at her home in the south part of Chatsworth Tuesday morning at 3 o'clock after a ten days' illness.

Funeral services were held in St. Peter & Paul's church this forenoon at 10 o'clock conducted by Rev. Father Hearn. The burial was in St. Patrick's cemetery.

Deceased was born in Ireland, October 18, 1839, and came to the United States many years ago. She was twice married. The first time to James McSpirit at Macomb, Illinois, August 17, 1858. He died January 14, 1859. On October 8, 1873 she was married to John Sullivan and they moved to the vicinity of Chatsworth about 30 years ago. Mr. Sullivan died June 3 1912. For some time Mrs. Sullivan's daughter, Mrs. M. P. Kerrins and family have resided in the same house with her.

The surviving children are: John F. Sullivan, of Seattle, Wash., Mrs. Julia Krep, of New York City, Neil Sullivan, of Sullivan; Mrs. Sarah Kerrins and Mrs. Anna Haberkorn, of Chatsworth. She also leaves four sisters and one brother and thirteen grandchildren.

Mrs. Sullivan was a woman of strong personality and one of the pioneers who suffered many hardships and privations during the early settlement of the country as she came to Macomb, Illinois in 1856 when she was 17 years old.

COMMUNITY BUILDERS ASSN.

ENDED LIFE WITH POISON

Mrs. Earl Meisenhelder Dead From Drinking Carbollic Acid.

Mrs. Earl Meisenhelder ended her life shortly after midnight Tuesday morning at her home about eight miles northeast of Chatsworth by drinking carbollic acid.

Mrs. Meisenhelder, according to report, arose from her bed and dressed, but only partially aroused her husband, who was sleeping in the same bed, in doing so. She stepped into another room and returned shortly and handed her husband an empty bottle and collapsed on the floor.

Mrs. Meisenhelder had done the family washing on Monday and showed no signs of the approaching deed and it was a terrible shock to her husband and family, although it appears that she had tried to end her life once before with carbollic acid but drank only a small quantity and another time attempted to drown herself in a dredge ditch. She was an excellent woman and a good wife but was subject to spells of melancholy at which times she threatened to end her life. It is presumed that in one of these temporary insane moments she succeeded in her rash act.

Daisy O'Neil was born in Greeley, Colorado, November 12, 1891. She came to Illinois in 1915, making her home with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Pearson at Piper City. She was married to the M. E. Pearson in Chatsworth, August 28, 1918 to Earl Meisenhelder. Two children were born to the couple—Eileen Phyllis, now aged three years, and Helen Ethel, now aged one year. She was a daughter of David O'Neil deceased. Her mother resides at Denver, Colorado. There are also five sisters and one brother.

Funeral services will be held in the Chatsworth Methodist church Friday morning at 10 o'clock, conducted by Rev. H. F. Schreiner, of Forrest. The burial will be in the Chatsworth cemetery.

GRAND JURY AT WORK
Returns Twelve Indictments at Pontiac This Week.

The May grand jury completed its work of investigation of the various cases presented before it Wednesday afternoon and returned twelve indictments, three of which were suppressed for service and then were excused from further service at the present time with the thanks of Judge S. R. Baker.

The indictments as returned and made public were as follows:

Clyde E. Shilts, commonly known as Richard Shilts larceny. In the indictment Shilts is accused of the theft of a motorometer, the property of Harry Miller in Dwight on April 7.

Louis Birus and Ranson Roadriguez alias Ransinon Roadriguez larceny. The two are charged in the indictment with the theft of six pairs of trousers from the store of Miller Brothers in Dwight on March 27.

Arturo Garza alias Arthur Garza larceny. The indictment charges them with the theft of three pairs of trousers from the store of Miller Brothers in Dwight on March 22d.

Henry Calkins, commonly known as Hank Calkins, larceny. In the indictment Calkins is charged with the theft of several pieces of tools and some dishes, the property of Ed Crouch, in this city on Jan. 21th.

Harry Davis, violation of the prohibition act. The offense with which the indictment charges Davis was committed in Fairbury, April 19.

Pearl Davis, violation of the prohibition act. This offense also occurred in Fairbury on April 19th, the indictment charges.

Dominico Sineno, violation of the prohibition act. This offense occurred in this city on January 29th, according to the indictment.

George Hazel, violation of the prohibition act.

Minnie Hazel, violation of the prohibition act. Both of these instances occurred in this city April 15, according to the indictments.—Pontiac Leader.

DOINGS AT THE COUNTY SEAT

Interesting News Items Taken From the Pontiac Daily Leader the Past Week.

Fourteen Pontiac citizens, representing the Chamber of Commerce journeyed to Springfield Tuesday to confer with the state highway department relative to routing the Illinois road south of the business section of Pontiac instead of on the west side of the city as planned by the highway department. This would necessitate crossing the Chicago & Alton railroad tracks twice and to this the state highway department looks on with disfavor.

Two automobiles collided on the hard road south of Pontiac Sunday night and two men were injured. Oscar Wagner, occupant of one of the cars was badly cut about the head, six surgical stitches being required to close the wound. He also complained of an injured hip but it was found that there were no bones broken. Omar, a brother, was badly shaken up. Edson Murry driver of the other car escaped uninjured although both cars were partially demolished.

Word was received in Pontiac Saturday of the death at Joplin, Mo., of R. F. Norris, which occurred last week. Mr. Norris who was forty-seven years old at the time of his death, was for a number of years engineer at the state reformatory. The family left Pontiac about ten years ago. Mr. Norris had been in ill health for some time and it is presumed that he became despondent, taking his own life with a 32 calibre revolver.

A PRETTY WEDDING
Rev. Fred Harris Weds Miss Nellie Hawkins of Michigan.

Fred P. Harris and Miss Nellie B. Hawkins were united in holy matrimony Saturday evening at 8 o'clock April 21st at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert D. Hawkins, Grand Rapids, Mich.

Both contracting parties have been students of the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago for two years or more. Mr. Harris having finished his course and graduated April 19th in a class of 53. They were married by Rev. Howard C. Fulton, of the Berean Baptist church of Grand Rapids.

The Hawkins home was beautifully decorated for the occasion. An arch of lattice work covered with evergreen and Myrtle banked with ferns formed the setting for the center of attraction. The couple stood just in front of the arch to be united. A single ring ceremony was used the ring being borne in the folds of a caudily by Emily Jane Filton.

The bride's gown was made of white satin canton crepe trimmed with pearls. The veil was a silk embroidered net with a wreath of lilies of the valley. The bridal bouquet was of white roses.

The bridesmaid, sister of the bride, Sylvia Hawkins was dressed in green canton crepe trimmed in gold. She carried a large bouquet of pink sweet peas.

The groom and best man both wore suits of blue serge. The best man was Donald Hawkins, of Pentwater, Mich., a cousin of the bride.

The couple will remain in Chicago for three months while Mrs. Harris finishes her course of training at Moody in the bible music course. Rev. Harris has been pastor of a Chicago church for over a year but of late has been preaching at Sublette Ill., in the Union church there.

TOLD IN A PARAGRAPH.

And what has become of the old-fashioned fellow who used to tell us he "could drink or leave it alone?"

A New York woman had her new hat buried with her. The husband will probably have the bill buried with him.

They say snakes will not bite in the water, and to some fishermen it appears that a lot of fish are the same way.

Gridley Relay Meet
 Last Friday afternoon C. T. H. S. was represented at the Gridley track meet by seven boys of the school who were selected on strength of their ability shown thus far in practice. The seven boys entered in the following events: L. Kewley and Pearson in the shot put, W. Bennett and Pearson in the 80 yard dash, E. Hemphink and R. Bennett in the high jump, R. Bennett and C. Bennett in the pole vault, and L. Kewley, V. Stoutenmyer, E. Hemphink and Pearson ran in the half mile relay.

Although all the boys did good in their events R. Bennett was the only one to pull off a place for C. T. H. S. He won first in the pole vault, vaulting 10 ft. 3 inches.

The boys had keen competition because many strong teams of this section of Illinois were represented. Bloomington, Normal High, Donevon, Saunemin, Chenoa, Minook, Carlock, and Gridley all have good track teams.

Bloomington won the two mile and medley relays, Chenoa the mile relay and Gridley the half mile relay. The meet was run off in good time although part of it was run off in a drizzling rain.

The C. T. H. S. boys left Chatsworth at 11:00 o'clock and stopped at Chenoa for dinner.

Pearson says the reason why he didn't win anything was because they had toast and soft boiled eggs for dinner.

Landscape Gardening at the High School Building
 An effort is being made to improve the appearances of the school building and grounds. Earlier in the season the lawn was seeded and should look well during the first year. Lately trees and shrubbery have been set out.

The plan is to fringe the drives with the taller shade trees like the American Vase Elm, the Norway Maple and Ash. About thirty of these have been set out. Many of these are protected against accidents by frames. These are rather large and will be well grown in a few years. Some of these are nursery stock and some are from nearby groves. The latter include other species of wood. The center of the lawn has been left open according to the best practice.

Between the south drive and the track, there is an open space which is to be made into several tennis courts. It is smooth and level and should be excellent for that purpose.

One of the most important improvements is the foundation planting about the building. This consists of Japanese Barberry, several varieties of Spirea and other shrubs. The idea is to have those which are in bloom at different times of the year.

One of the ideas which is being carried out is to have native trees and shrubs as much as possible. For this reason much is being taken from nearby groves. The amount of trees and shrubbery which could be used in the next few years is very large. For this reason, anyone who has any extra shrubbery and small trees nearby, is asked to contribute them. A little planting now and a few years time are all that is required to make the school grounds compare favorably with the most beautiful parks.

Graduation Nearing
 The seniors have already made preparations for graduation. They have ordered the invitations, and made the following selections: class colors, rose and silver; class flowers, white rose; class motto, "Our aim, success; our hope, to win." Caps and gowns have been ordered, arrangements have been made for a commencement speaker and plans are being made for class day exercises.

There are fifteen candidates for graduation. However, everyone should realize that a four year high school course does not always signify graduation. There are approximately four weeks of school remaining, just a short time in which to redeem yourselves, and if your records do not look very clear, you'd better change your customs, and do some real work while you still have opportunity. However, if you know that you will graduate, wouldn't it be nice to have a high average, one which you may always be proud of owning? Four weeks of diligent work will change low grades, and thereby influence your position later on, so you'd better reconsider.

Recently a copy of a little booklet written by the president of an eastern school of accounting and finance was placed in the hands of each high school boy.

The title of the booklet is "Career Planning" and the contents give a comprehensive survey of the various professions, skilled and unskilled trades.

A number of points made by the author are of general interest and while not new will bear repeating. First "There is no vocation overcrowded with the successful, but every vocation is overcrowded with the unsuccessful."

 Second, "Failure to complete one's high school training is invariably a source of regret and disappointment in future years, and it makes the task of succeeding in any vocation more difficult."
 Third, "The call today is for specialists—men and women who are trained to do some one thing particularly well."
 Fourth, "Almost everyone has a natural bent which will manifest itself if one devotes some thought and study to the various vocations."
 To those of our school who are about to graduate the importance of the above needs no emphasis but to the underclassmen a little careful study of the four points will be worth while.

To put the matter in different way diligence in your study and other school activities may disclose your natural bent and at the same time give you a foundation upon which to specialize. The completion of your high school course will show that you have the perseverance, mental capacity and ambition which are necessary to success in any line of work.

Senior Class Party
 Among one of the last social events of the school year was the senior class party. The party was held in the high school auditorium Friday evening April 20th. They entertained the five sophomore girls who helped in the senior play and several others who were invited by different members of the class.

One feature of the evening was a boys sextette composed of Vernon S. Thomas W. Anton W. Clarence B. Arthur A. and Robert B. The evening was spent in playing various games in the gym. The refreshments consisted of angel salad and wafers which was served in the dining room, this being decorated in the senior class colors, rose and silver.

Good News
 Lo and behold! the Seniors have finally framed their school picture "October" by Dunning. We all fairly stood in amazement one day last week when its presence greeted our sight. It certainly is very pretty, and it too, found a prominent place in our assembly room.

After wandering all about the school building, looking for "Avenue of Trees" and "Statue of Lincoln" we have come to the conclusion that they are not yet in public view. Just a gentle hint to the Junior and Sophomore classes, "are you planning to have those pictures framed within the next few weeks?" We all hope so.

Botany Field Trip
 The Botany Classes A and B went on field trips on April 25 and 26, respectively to observe the flowers on some of the trees and to study birds. About twelve kinds of birds were noticed. The songs of the meadow lark, the brown thrash, the song sparrow, and the field sparrow were especially noticed.

Two Students Enter
 Although it is rather late in the year for such things two new students have entered C. T. H. S. Old Timer and Scampaway have, in company with certain other C. T. H. S.

Seniors, been asleep the past winter and can scarcely be blamed for their lack of zeal.
 Last Monday morning the Sophomores went on a botany hike. All was going merrily when he who was later christened Old Timer slipped out of the grass. The usual feminine cries greeted his appearance, but Miss LaFollette soon convinced everyone that his aims were friendly when she picked him up. One of the boys bravely offered to pick up the next one that was found, but when his words were greeted by the appearance of a second footless traveler he delegated his duty to another.

In all four "sleek alky snakes" were captured but only two were brought back to the laboratory. These two have been one of the chief attractions during the past week as they lie quietly curled in their cage or affectionately twine about the arm of Miss LaFollette or one of her brave and enterprising students.

Captivity does not appeal to them in spite of running water baths, fresh air, and fresh veal. They steadfastly refuse to take nourishment and it is feared that they will have to be released.
 We can only hope that they will not share the fate of the box tortoise, who entered last fall, and met his unfortunate end when he was inadvertently thrown from a second story window.

Personals
 The following people followed the track team to Gridley: Arthur Adams, Everet Harms, Ray Cunningham, Loyd Hollywood, Clement Monahan and Burke Monahan.
 Alma Hollywood and Maybelle Marr attended the play entitled "Am I Intruding?" which was given by the Senior class of Piper City High School.

Rosina and Martha Ashman were visitors in Melvin, Sunday morning. Verna Perkins was a visitor in Pontiac Sunday afternoon.
 Lucille Palmer was absent from school one day last week, having taught her sister's school north of town. I think we would like to have Lucille for our teacher, don't you?
 Verna Perkins was absent from school Monday.

Ethel Flessner was a Cullom visitor on April 23rd.
 Alma Hollywood was ill Monday. We were glad to see her back in school on Tuesday morning.
 Mabel and Alma Williams were Fairbury visitors Friday afternoon.
 Margaret Nimbler and Gertrude Albee were Fairbury shoppers last Friday afternoon.
 Florence Hitch was a caller in Pontiac a week ago last Saturday. We are all glad to see Mabel Harris back in school again. She was about several days, while visiting in Cedar Rapids, Michigan.

 It's a wonder that Elvin Pearson could get to school in time Monday morning after his wild time of Sunday night.

Freddie—"Pa, what is the board of education?"
 Pa—"When I went to school it was a pine shingle."
 A tonic for those who are behind in their studies—Ketchup.
 Freddie—"Did you see that pretty girl smile at me?"
 Sophie—"That's nothing the first time I saw you I laughed out loud."

Would You Like to Know?
 Mr. Kibler—"What made the tower of Pisa lean?"
 Elvin—"Wish I knew so I could try it."
 Mr. Apple—"I was a fool when I married you."
 The Mrs.—"I knew that, dear, but I thought you would improve."

 It would be just twice as sweet
 If it were not for the word repeat.

Her Object
 Mrs. A—"I hear you are going to take a course in a business college."
 Mrs. B—"Yes, I want to learn how to get money out of my husband."
A Perfect Terror
 "Willie" said the mother sorrowfully, "everytime you are naughty I get another gray hair."
 "Gee!" said Willie, "you must have been a terror. Look at Grand pa."

Only One Result

The Chiropractor most assuredly locates the CAUSE of disease and eliminates it. Without cause there can be no effect. There can be only one result of such elimination. Health will follow just as naturally as water will flow when the thing that holds it back is removed. The majority of so-called disease is caused by subluxation (displacement) of the vertebrae (small bones of the spine). In every instance these vertebrae have to be placed in adjustment to allow the proper flow of the vital force. This is the first duty of the Chiropractor.

GYPSIES APPEARING AGAIN

With the coming of spring and good roads the gypsy pest is again showing up again in Illinois. These roving nomads now travel in automobiles instead of horse drawn vehicles as formerly but are just as much of a nuisance as of old and perhaps more so as they can make their getaway easier and faster.

KEEP THIS IN MIND

Travel conditions are growing much better now and within a short time tourists will be motoring across the country in every direction and in greater numbers than ever before. Many of them are coming through Chatsworth before the chill of winter comes again, and we sincerely hope there will be more of them than at any time in our history.

SOME NEW FIGURES

Every now and then some enterprising journal figures out the value of the great American hon to the nation. A gain we learn how much we owe the Iowa hog or the Michigan potato or the York state apple. We have been stuffed full of figures regarding their value to America, and it runs into millions of dollars annually.

the Volstead law in the interest of the members of the local Funnel Club—$6.77.

Referring to a deceased merchant who never advertised and who was too stingy to contribute toward needed public improvement as a leading and a progressive resident—$349.99.

OUR NEIGHBORS

Spring means moving time, and moving time means new neighbors for many families around Chatsworth. Maybe even before this is in type a new family has moved in next door to you.

Don't let first impressions be lasting; don't size up your neighbor by his furniture or the pranks of the children or make up your mind on the spot that you are not going to like them.

THE HOBO SEASON

Return to normal conditions, or near-normal, just as you choose to view it, appears to have restored at least one "institution" we had sincerely hoped the war had wiped out forever—the American hobo, commonly known as the tramp.

Never ask a Chatsworth girl what she is thinking about. There are enough lies in the world already.

War would lose most of its attraction if the army officers had to wear overalls and slouch hats.

There's always hope for the Chatsworth girl who spends as much time going to the grocery for baking powder as she spends going to the drug store for face powder.

MELVIN

Mrs. Slocum, of Champaign, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. McLaughlin here this week.

Mr. N. P. Kenward and Mrs. Geo. Lehl were Roberts callers the first of last week.

SYNOPSIS

CHAPTER I.—Arriving at the lonely little railroad station of El Cajon, New Mexico, Madeline Hammond, New York girl, finds no one to meet her.

As she heard her last words he showed no evidence of it. A noise outside had attracted his attention.

Madeline listened. Low voices of men, the softer liquid tones of a woman, drifted in through the open door.

She spoke in Spanish, and the voices grew louder. Then the woman's voice, hurried and broken, rising higher, was eloquent of vain appeal.

The cowboy's demeanor startled Madeline into anticipation of something dreadful. She was not deceived.

From outside came the sound of a scuffle, a muffled shout, a groan, the thud of a falling body, a woman's low cry, and footsteps padding away in rapid retreat.

Madeline Hammond leaned weakly back in her seat, cold and sick, and for a moment her ears throbbled to the tramp of the dancers across the way and the rhythm of the cheap music.

Then into the open door-pedestal flashed a girl's tragic face, lighted by dark eyes and framed by dusky hair. The girl reached a slim brown hand round the side of the door and held on as if to support herself.

"Senior—Gene!" she exclaimed; and breathless glad recognition made a sudden break in her terror. "Bonita!" The cowboy leaped to her. "Girl! Are you hurt?"

"No, senior." "He took hold of her. 'I heard somebody got shot. Was it Danny?' " "No, senior."

"Did Danny do the shooting? Tell me, girl." "No, senior." "I'm sure glad. I thought Danny was mixed up in that. He had Stillwell's money for the boys—I was afraid."

"Say, Bonita, but you'll get in trouble. Who was with you? What did you do?" "Senior Gene—they Don Carlos vaqueros—they quarrel over me. I only dance a leetle, smile a leetle, and they quarrel. I beg they be good—watch out for Sheriff Howe."

He led her outside. Madeline heard the horse snort and clump his bit. The cowboy spoke low; only a few words were intelligible—"stirrups... wait... out of town... mountain... trail... new ride."

meant no shame to you. Come now, don't think about it again tonight." She took up the lamp and led Madeline into a little room.

"You are very kind, thank you, but I can manage," replied Madeline. "Well, then, good night. The sooner I go the sooner you'll rest. Just forget what happened and think how fine a surprise you're to give your brother tomorrow."

With that she slipped out and softly shut the door. As Madeline laid her watch on the bureau she noticed that the time was just two o'clock.

"Hello, Al's not—" "Al is all right," interrupted the cowboy. Madeline had two sensations then—one of wonder at the note of alarm and love in the woman's voice, and the other of unutterable relief to be safe with a friend of her brother's.

"It's Al's sister—come on tonight's train," the cowboy was saying. "I happened to be at the station, and I've fetched her up to you."

"No, I'm so glad to meet you," replied Florence warmly. "This come in, I'm so surprised. I forget my manners. Why, you are white as a sheet. You must be tired. What a long wait you had at the station! If I had known you were coming! Indeed, you are very pale. Are you ill?"

"No, only I am very tired. Traveling so far by rail is harder than I imagined. I did have rather a long wait after arriving at the station, but I can't say that it was lonely."

Florence Kingsley searched Madeline's face with keen eyes, and then took a long, significant look at the silent Stewart. "With that she deliberately and quietly closed a door leading into another room."

"Miss Hammond, what has happened?" She had lowered her voice. "I do not wish to recall all that has happened," replied Madeline. "I shall tell Alfred, however, that I would rather have met a hostile Apache than a cowboy."

"Please don't tell Al that!" cried Florence. Then she grasped Stewart and pulled him close to the light. "Gene, you're drunk!" "Now, see here, Flo, I only—"

"I don't want to know. I'd tell it, Gene, aren't you ever going to learn decency? Aren't you ever going to stop drinking? You'll lose all your friends. Molly and I have pleaded with you, and now you've gone and done—God knows what!"

"What do women want to wear veils for?" he growled. "I'd have known her but for that veil." "And you wouldn't have insulted her. But you would the next girl who—"

"Gene, Aren't You Ever Going to Learn Decency?" "Come along, Gene, you are hopeless. Now, you get out of here and don't ever come back."

"Flirt!" he entreated. "I mean it." "I reckon then I'll come back tomorrow and take my medicine," he replied. "Don't you dare!" she cried. Stewart went out and closed the door.

"Miss Hammond, you—you don't know how this hurts me," said Florence. "What you must think of us! It's so unkind that you should have had this happen right at first. Now, maybe you won't have the heart to stay. Oh, I've known more than one eastern girl to go home without ever learning what we really are out here. Miss Hammond, Gene Stewart is a fiend when he's drunk. As for him, the same I know, whatever he did, he meant no shame to you."

threw his arms around her, then he left her off and looked searchingly at her. "Well, sister," he began, when Florence turned hurriedly from the door and interrupted him.

"Al, I think you'd better stop the wrangling out there." He stared at her, appeared suddenly to hear the loud voices from the street, and then, releasing Madeline, he said:

"By George! I forgot, Flo. There is a little business to see to. Keep my sister in here, please, and don't be fussed up, now."

He went out on the porch and called to his men: "Shut off your wind, Jack! And you, too, Blaze! I didn't want you fellows to come here. But as you would come, you've got to shut up. This is my business."

Whereupon he turned to Stewart, who was sitting on the fence. "Hello, Stewart!" he said. "It was a greeting; but there was that in the voice which alarmed Madeline."

Stewart leisurely got up and leisurely advanced to the porch. "Hello, Hammond!" he drawled. "Drunk again last night?"

"Well, I'm glad to hear that. You see, Al, I was mighty drunk last night, but not drunk enough to forget the least thing I did. I found Miss Hammond waiting alone at the station. She wore a veil, but I knew she was a lady, of course. I imagine, now that I think of it, that Miss Hammond found my gallantry rather startling."

"At this point Madeline, answering to unconsidered impulse, eluded Florence and walked out upon the porch. "Gentlemen," said Madeline, rather breathlessly; and it did not add to her calmness to feel that her cheeks, "I am very new to western ways, but I think you are laboring under a mistake, which, in justice to Mr. Stewart, I want to correct. Indeed, he was rather—rather abrupt and strange when he came up to me last night; but as I understand him now, I can attribute that to his gallantry. He was somewhat wild and sudden and—sentimental in his deed to protect me—and it was not clear whether he meant his protection for my safety or for my honor; but I am happy to say he offered me no word that was not honorable. And he saw me safely here to Miss Kingsley's home."

"(TO BE CONTINUED.)" Nowadays a cow-catcher is a thing they put on locomotives to catch automobiles.

Every citizen of the Mississippi Valley should be familiar with the natural port of this incomparable territory—the great and rapidly growing port of New Orleans.

The dedication May 5 of the magnificent $30,000,000 Industrial Canal and Inner Harbor recently completed at New Orleans focuses attention upon the advantages enjoyed by this port.

On the basis of Government figures covering ports of the United States for the calendar year 1921, the latest official statistics available, the port of New Orleans is second to that of New York in the total tonnage and the total value of exports and imports and the total net tonnage of shipping engaged in foreign trade.

Table with 3 columns: Exports, Imports, Total. Rows for 1914, 1922, and Total for both years.

The superior advantages of its location, coupled with its excellent facilities, make it certain that the port of New Orleans will continue to grow in keeping with the industrial and agricultural development of the Mississippi Valley.

Ten miles of docks along the waterfront afford ample facilities for handling cargo at shipside. The port is supplied with warehouses, grain elevators, coal tipples and other mechanical freight-handling facilities.

The people of New Orleans have planned with vision and are building with care, to the end that the now rapidly developing north and south movement of commerce may find there the most efficient and adequate facilities for its handling.

The Mississippi Valley, of which New Orleans is the natural port, includes in its watershed twenty-seven states, containing 55 per cent of the country's population and producing 70 per cent of the country's exportable products.

WINTER WHEAT BELOW AVERAGE IN ILLINOIS

Many Pigs Killed by Cold March Weather and Farm Labor is Short.

Springfield.—A condition of winter wheat and rye slightly below the average and a decrease in farm labor supply are the outstanding features of the monthly crop report for March, issued by A. J. Sarratt of the Illinois co-operative crop reporting service. "Freezing and thawing during March have been of some damage to fall-sown grains, particularly in east central and southern counties," the report said. "Reports are variable owing to the difficulty of determining the extent of damage until there is more growing weather. The damage apparently is greater in late-sown wheat, which got off with a poor start last fall. Favorable weather conditions this month can do much to overcome the handicap of an unseasonable March by evening up growth in many fields where the growth is now short and brown spots are showing."

Soils Are Improved. "Rains and snow have improved the soil moisture situation, but more rains are needed for winter grains and grass. Many losses among spring pigs are reported, owing to cold, wet weather in March."

"The condition of winter wheat is estimated to be 82 per cent, compared with 93 per cent last spring, and the ten-year average of 84 per cent. Upon the assumption of average abandonment of acreage and average influences on the crop to harvest, the condition for the United States on April 1 forecasts a production of about 572,317,000 bushels, which compares with the estimated production of 598,204,000 in 1922."

Rye 89 Per Cent Normal. "The April 1 condition of rye for Illinois is placed at 89 per cent, compared with 93 per cent last spring and the ten-year average of 91 per cent. "The farm labor supply is estimated to be 80 per cent, compared with 102 per cent of normal reported a year ago. The demand for this labor is placed at 97 per cent, compared with 92 per cent of normal last year. While the need is still high farmers are arranging their work to get along with less hired labor than formerly."

Farrington Warns Miners. Springfield.—The factional fight in the ranks of the Illinois union miners which centers here is assuming such proportions that disinterested bystanders look for a clash between some of the rivals for control of the miners' union in this state. The latest outbreak of hostilities came when Frank Farrington, in a full-page broadside in morning and afternoon papers here, warned Illinois miners against what he termed an attempt by John J. Watt, secretary-treasurer of the Springfield sub-district, to wreck the union by fostering an "outlaw strike" in Illinois this summer under directions from Moscow.

Dry Advocates Demand Action. Hillsboro.—Officers of State's Attorney Frank Ramey in this city were stormed by an aggregation of 200 men and women, who demanded that he "keep his election promises" and clean up the mining town of Panama, on the Montgomery-Bond county line. They declared that law enforcement there is a farce, that liquor is sold as openly as ever, and that gambling and vice flourish without any show of hindrance.

Northwestern U. Gets Cash. Chicago.—An endowment of $100,000, the income of which is to accrue to the benefit of that professor who, in the estimate of the university, has made the greatest contribution to learning in the humanities, was announced by President Walter Dill Scott of Northwestern university, at a recent dinner of university trustees and faculty members.

Bonus Payments July 1. Springfield.—Payment of Illinois' soldier bonus claims now in the hands of the service recognition board will take approximately nine months from the time payment starts on or before July 1, Adj. Gen. Carlos E. Black announced, following the decision of the Illinois Supreme court upholding the bonus law.

Noted Teacher is Dead. Danville.—Prof. William E. Williams, more than fifty years a prominent teacher, a veteran of the Civil war and of the Indian campaigns, is dead at the National Soldiers' home. He was born in Ohio. He served in Company K of the Seventh Indiana volunteers, enlisting a week after President Lincoln's call for volunteers.

Tree Commission Appointed. Cairo.—The city council has appointed a tree commission of three members to have control over the planting and trimming of all trees. The commission will require permits for all work on trees, similar to the permits issued for repairs to buildings.

Charles Feuchter Dies. Cairo.—Charles Feuchter, former city commissioner and prominent in various local businesses and civic enterprises, died here after an extended illness. He was head of an insurance firm bearing his name.

Plays With Revolver; Dead. Mount Vernon.—Playing with a revolver in the home of his parents, Albert Pate, ten years old, was instantly killed when the weapon was accidentally discharged, the ball penetrating the brain.

Poor Substitute
A gentleman who was once stopped by an old man begging, replied, "Don't you know, my man, that fortune knocks once at every man's door?"

"Yes" said the old man, "he knocked at my door once, but I was out, and ever since then he has sent his daughter." "His daughter?" replied the gentleman. "What do you mean?" "Why, Miss Fortune."

Spoon Versus Switch
In some city schools nowadays breakfast and luncheon are served. The improvement in scholarship is said to be remarkable.

In school days of yore, if a youngster was thick, The treatment prescribed was a hickory stick.

His reason was prompted with many a whack. As if the poor dullard could think with his back. But clubs are no longer permitted today.

The teacher proceeds in a kinder way. She smiles, though the dunce may be as dull as a crow. And quickens his mind with club sandwiches now.

A is the Apple we eat in the class, B is the Discut the monitors pass, C is the Cruller when spelling is bad.

D is the Dish that will aid us to add, E is the East that we have in the school, F is the Food that advances the Fool,

G is the Gusto with which we relate, Helped by the Hand-outs that make us so bright. When father was young, he was whipped with a strap.

For taking an orange to school in his cap; And once, for a bit of a bulge in his cheeks, He sat on a stool for a couple of weeks.

But now, when a youngster is "strapped," why the school Provides him a seat on a dining-room stool, Piles him with milk from a dairy at Dover.

And fills him with soap till he bulges all over. R is for Rations, refreshing and rich, S is the Spoon that succeeded the Switch.

T is for Teacher who tempts us ahead, Underfed Urchins with butter and bread.

Very few dolts in the class you will see. Wonderful Writers and Wreaders are we, Extra smart Youngsters, all bursting with Zeal. After a square, educational meal. —L. H. Robbins.

CULLOM CLIPPINGS

(Mostly from the Chronicle)
It is said that Frank Kopp will erect a dwelling house on the lots west of the Zollinger residence in the southeast part of town.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Killey arrived home the first of last week from their honeymoon and are now at home in their residence in the northwest part of town.

John L. Shearer arrived home recently from Jackson, Minn., where he visited his brother, Samuel, who has been seriously ill for several weeks with heart trouble and not much hopes for his recovery.

Mr. Shearer formerly owned a farm here about 30 years ago.

Mrs. E. S. Shearer and daughter, Bernadine, Mrs. G. W. Boeman and Mrs. W. W. Zollinger motored to Steward Saturday.

Mrs. Shearer and daughter and Mrs. Zollinger returned Sunday while Mrs. Boeman remained to spend a few days with her sister, Mrs. U. S. Shearer.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Throne, daughter, Venetta, and son, Merl, motored to Chicago Sunday and spent Sunday and Monday with Mrs. Throne's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Nass.

Miss Mildred Throne, who teaches dramatic art in the State College at Ames, Ia., also spent the day at the Nass home.

The Senior class of the Cullom high school will present a three-act comedy, "Her Husband's Wife," at the Cullom village hall Friday evening, May 4th, at 8:00 o'clock.

Included in the cast are Clara Hahn, Venetta Throne and Viola Reising, of the senior class; Ervy Hahn and Wesley Haas, of the Junior class, and John Van Alstyne, of the Sophomore class.

The Senior class is composed exclusively of girls hence they had to draw on the rest of the school.

Things could be worse. If you get restless this spring just think of the fellows in jail.

Maybe the reason some of our Chatsworth children are lacking in politeness is because too many woodsheds have been sawed into garages.

We don't care how much luck the average Chatsworth man has, he can lose it mighty quick if he doesn't look both ways at a railroad crossing.

—Now is the time to place your order for Printed Checks. Don't wait until your present supply is gone before ordering more. Do it now and have them when you need them.

We recently heard a Chatsworth woman claiming that her sex is smarter than the men. Maybe. But you never heard of a man ordering a shirt that he had to button up the back.

R. B. Senchenbaugh was a Chicago visitor Sunday.

Miss Elizabeth Roeder was a Peoria visitor over the week-end.

Miss Reba McDowe spent the week-end with relatives in Chicago.

Miss Auregre Hampshire spent Sunday with relatives in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kirk have returned from a couple of weeks' stay at Hot Springs, Ark.

Mrs. C. F. Thompson and children spent Sunday with Mr. Thompson, who is now employed in Chicago.

Miss Dorothy Rudd was in Peoria Saturday to attend a dinner party given by Miss Dorothy Myers.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Parsons, of Chicago spent Sunday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Al Parsons, and family.

Mesdames S. E. McGrath and E. V. Champion, of Peoria, motored here Saturday to visit their parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Eignus, and family.

The fire department was called to the home of Wilfred Widby, Sunday about 6 a. m. to put out a blaze supposed to have caught in the kitchen from a defective flu. Not a great deal of damage was done.

PEP MEETING
 Meeting at the legion on Joda post No. 54, at which many of the state officers were present as well as delegations from Forrest Chatsworth and Strawn. The meeting started with the firing of cannon in the city park. A parade was then formed with the Fire and Drum Corps leading and they marched up and down Main street. Heading the drum corps were: Charles W. Schick, state commander, department of Illinois, American Legion; Wm. Q. Settrife, department adjutant; Rue Kemp, assistant department adjutant; C. H. Hecker, state auditor, department of Illinois; Dr. A. B. Middleton, state medical officer; W. C. Mundt, state historian, Tom Ireland, commander of the Fairbury post. After the parade the legion men retired to the newly decorated legion rooms where a series of addresses were given by the state officers. The talks were interspersed by group singing and the Legion Glee club. "Daddy" Schick, who is an honorary member of Gettysburg post, G. A. R. entertained with special pieces on the drums. The talks were followed by a cafeteria luncheon. The department of Oklahoma was represented by C. B. Fritz of Oklahoma City.

FIRE NEAR THAWVILLE

Fire destroyed the house and barn on Arthur Gourley's farm two miles west of Thawville on Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Gourley was asleep at her home when the children woke her up and told her that there was a big fire on the farm. Neighbors were summoned but owing to the fact that the well was located between the two buildings water could not be obtained on account of the intense heat. A stallion, which was in the barn, was burned to death. Many from Thawville hurried to the scene of the fire and several of the men attempted to pull one of the chemical fire engines behind an automobile to the place. The wheels of the fire engine struck a rut and Jesse Thrasher, of Thawville, was thrown from the automobile. The fire engine ran over him and then turned over in a ditch. It was broken so badly that it could not be taken to the Gourley farm.

MISS LOUISE CORBETT TO WED

The Seattle Daily Times of April 23d contained two-column picture of Miss Louise Corbett and the announcement of her engagement to Stephen R. Pigott, of that city. The marriage is to take place June 6th. Miss Corbett is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Corbett who were former Chatsworth people. Miss Corbett spent a portion of the summer in Chatsworth two years ago and was accompanied home by Miss Zita Corbett. She is a charming woman.

THAWVILLE WOMAN SUICIDES

Mrs. Ernest Repholz, of Thawville, committed suicide on Tuesday at her home in that city by swallowing two ounces of carbolic acid. Besides the husband she leaves two small children. Despondency was given as the reason for the act.

MISS ELIZABETH HILL WEDS

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Hill and Charles Baker occurred at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Hill Wednesday at high noon. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. A. Giese. The couple was attended by Miss Lottie Hill and Lester Ellinger, sister and cousin of the bride. The bride wore a navy blue suit with hat to match and the bridesmaid's dress and hat was of brown taffeta silk. The bride carried a bouquet of carnations. After the ceremony and congratulations a wedding dinner was served to the immediate relatives and friends.

The bride is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Hill and the groom is a son of Rev. R. N. Baker, of Rumbaure, Mo. The happy couple left on the afternoon train for a few days visit in Chicago and after a visit there they will go to Akron, O., to reside, where Mr. Baker is employed in a rubber and tire factory.

The farm house on the Greenwood farm, a mile west of Kempton burned down this morning. The Greenwood family, who occupied the house, saved a portion of the furni-

A splendid turn-out at all services last Sunday. Broke the record for Sunday School attendance. Monday evening there was a reception held at the church; bidding the departing pastor "God Speed" and welcoming the new pastor, Rev. A. Good, to his new field of labor.
 Next Sunday the Sunday School will meet at 9:30, followed at 10:30 by the morning service of worship at which Rev. A. Good will preach his opening sermon on this field. In the evening at 7:30 Christian Endeavor; 8:00 evening worship.
 A cordial welcome is extended to all who will worship with us. And especially does the undersigned wish for his successor the hearty support and participation in the Sunday services which was given to him. Rev. Good has been pastor for the last five years at Graymont, Ill., and you will find him a man well worth becoming acquainted with.
 I thank the members and friends of this church for the many favors and kindness which they have rendered to me. I stand greatly indebted to you all. But while men come and go, the work goes steadily on. Our loyalty is not to men, but to the Master. I pray God's blessing upon you all.

The people are beginning to appreciate what this will do where the surface is properly graded and prepared.

The Ford county board of supervisors at its regular meeting last week unanimously endorsed the $100,000 bond issue. About three-fourths of the counties in the state have officially endorsed this issue. It is introduced at this time to prevent an interruption in the state's road building program. When the present sixty million dollar bond issue is all spent payments of the bonds can be made only from the auto license money. The state cannot levy a general tax to pay the bonds.

CIRCUIT COURT DOCKET

Friday morning in the clerk Judge S. R. Baker heard cases on the criminal side docket.

In the case of the People vs. J. Rodgers, Steve Kasec, Drabek, George Burrows, J. alias Joe Pete, Henry Wiggles, Hoffner, Albert Stasinski, Oravec and Garfield Copeland with conspiracy, each entered a plea of not guilty.

This is a case growing out of an "open shop" fight which was waged between labor organizations and manufacturing concerns for and vicinity for months. Defendants are alleged to have entered an injunction secured by the brick plants located in township, just across the county to the south of Streator.

At the hearing Friday the defendants also entered a motion to have their case continued. October term, which was also agreed was also made court between the attorney defendants and the state's wherein all defendants are together.
 In the case of the People vs. M. Cashner, charged with larceny was fixed at $2,000, which was furnished with Charles P. and Will Jamison as sureties.
