Forrest Wins County Meet
 Forrest Township High School landed first place in the Livingston County Track Meet held in Fairbury last Friday.

The schools obtaining points were as follows: Forrest, 24; Fairbury, 23; Maunemin, 21; Dwight, 13; Pontiac, 8; Odell, 6; Chatsworth, 4.

Two county records were equalled and one smashed.

Bert Daney of Forrest tied his own 1922 record in the 100 yd dash running it in 10 2/5 seconds.

Anderson of Fairbury ran the mile in 4:59 tying the 1922 record made by Tallman of Pontiac.

W. Groenbelle of Fairbury broke the pole vault record, 9 ft. 11 inches previously held by Gotschall, of Pontiac, by vaulting 10 ft. 3 inches.

Bennett of C. T. H. S. tied Groenbelle for first place but in jumping off the tie Groenbelle landed the place leaving second for R. Bennett.

The only other event that C. T. H. S. scored in was in the high jump. Holbrook, of Dwight, secured first jumping 5 ft. 3 1/2 inches and here again Groenbelle of Fairbury and R. Bennett of C. T. H. S. tied this time for second in which Groenbelle again secured the place, R. Bennett adding a third to C. T. H. S.

In the broad jump R. Bennett jumped 16 ft. 11 inches while the winner of third place jumped 17 ft. Again close to victory but not quite there.

The County Oratorical and Musical Contest

In the morning the class B. Declamation the Extemporaneous speaking and orations were given in the Central Opera House at Fairbury. In the grade declamations the contestants were placed as follows:

1. "The Race for the Silver Cup" Dorothy Beags, of Fairbury.
2. "The Black Horse and It's Rider" Claudine Shepherd.
3. "Jingling Under the Table," Mervyn Abbadueka.

"A little change for Edward" Leola Watts.

The contestants all were very good.

In the next event, the High School Extemporaneous Speaking, the contestants were given 30 minutes preparation, without notes, on a topic chosen from the "Literary Digest."

- The results were as follows:
1. Harry Nelson—"Farm Organizations"
 2. Virginia Parrshall—"Oil and World Politics"
 3. Elizabeth Moran—"Immigration"

Elsie Stoutemyer—"Russia," Odette Ringler—"Taxation," William Allen—"Presidential Prospects."

In the next event the awards were as follows:

1. "Emmet, on being found Guilty of Treason" Francis Gordon.
2. "On his Return to New York" Hildegarde Podd.
3. "Flag Day Address" Alicia Grant.

"Impeachment of Warren Hastings"—Irvin Brown.
 "Abraham Lincoln"—Rollo Haren.

"Lincoln, the man called God"—Ralph Brown.

Rollo Haren represented C. T. H. S. in fine style and had an excellent delivery, altho he did not place. Elvin Brown also deserves a special mention.

This closed the morning program. At 8:15 the evening program was opened by the High School Declamations. The decisions were as follows:

1. "Madam X"—Rachael Langan.
2. "The Cabin was Empty Again"—Grace Walton.
3. "Sister Carrie's Speakin"—Virginia Bell.

"Selection"—Anna Marie Middleton.
 "A Child's Story"—Leora Berry.
 "The Revolt of Mother"—Mildred Orndorff.

Miss Virginia Bell, Chatsworth contestant made an instant "hit" with the audience.

The last contest was the chorus singing. The awards were as follows:

1. "Forge Me Not"—Pontiac.
2. "Honey-Suckle Babe"—Chatsworth.
3. "Birds to the Fields"—Dwight (mixed chorus)

"Carmena"—Forrest.
 Each chorus had twelve singers and an accompanist.

The day was closed with the decision of the judges and the award of gold, silver and bronze medals for the respective places.

Pontiac won the literary meet with nine points.

Many of the decisions were rather surprising and Chatsworth might have carried away more honors. In any event the Chatsworth contestants made a very good showing on the average equal to the best.

The Junior Play
 "The Professor's Mummy" given by the Juniors Friday, May 4th was one grand success. It was funny from beginning to end, and the large crowd who came out to see the play certainly feel amply repaid. The play was coached by Miss Holby and Miss La Pollette, and the result bore witness to the efforts that had been expended by these two members of the faculty and by the members of the cast, each one of whom played his part very well, thereby contributing to the success of the play.

At last the picture bought by the four classes and presented to the High School are in the assembly room.

The Freshmen succeeded in having their picture, "The Home of the Heron" framed first. The Seniors were next in line and had their picture "October" framed. Last week the picture "The Avenue of Trees" which the Juniors presented to the High School was framed and put in the assembly room. On Monday the Sophomores brought up the rear bringing their picture "The Statue of Abraham Lincoln" all ready to be hung on the wall of the Assembly room.

These pictures are a charming addition to the collection of pictures already in the assembly room. On each picture there is a plate on which the name of the class by whom it was presented to the school is engraved.

The Freshman's Party
 Fifth school party this school year. The Freshman class of 1933 have been working very hard this year. After the other classes have all had good social times the Freshies began to feel a bit jealous (though they don't want it told.)

They planned an invitation party to be held on May 12, Saturday night from 7:30 to a late hour.

The other party attendees might have had a good time, but we know the freshman excelled.

Many games were played. Refreshments were served to a large group.

The Freshman and their guests certainly had a "party."

Personals

As We See Them.
 Arthur A.—Life is short. Art long.
 Gertrude A.—To everyone his own.
 Clarence B.—If music be the food of love, play on.

Robert B.—What do you know about war?
 Mary B.—Firm as Gibraltar in her ideas.
 Florence F.—The end crowns the work.

Mabel Harris—All that glitters is not gold; but a diamond is a diamond.

Viola D.—A gentle child.
 Florence H.—She worships art in a dreamy way, but the art is spelled with a capital A.

Violet K.—Time cannot wither; nor custom state her infinite variety.
 Margaret N.—But let your discretion be your tutor.

Elvin P.—'Twas better to have loved and lost than never to have loved at all.

Vernon B.—Every man in his own way.
 Thomas W.—Friends, Romans, country men, lend me your ears!

Anton W.—I am Sir Oracle, and when I open my lips, let no dog bark.
 Harold B.—And still they gazed, and still the wonder grew. That one small head could carry all he knew.

Willis B.—A man who suits people—a popular fellow.
 Miss Holby—Her voice was ever gentle, soft and low. An excellent thing in a woman.

Mr. McCulloch—Nature might stand up and say to all the world, "This is a man."
 Marie C.—Fidelity to duty.

Elva E.—Work Conquers everything.
 Hilda F.—What custom wills in all things should we do it.

Mr. Kibler—A stitch in time saves nine.
 Loren K.—Sometimes I sit and think, and sometimes I just sit.

Elry H.—My thoughts are my companions.
 Rollo H.—If it be man's work, I will do it.

Verna K.—Laugh at your friends, and if your friends are sore, so much the better. You may laugh the more.
 Gertrude N.—As quiet as a nun is she—not.

 Maybe another reason it's still hard to get fellows for jury duty is they won't let 'em sample the evidence in a bootlegging case.

IN THE TOILS

Ashkum Farmer is Arrested for Bootlegging.
 An important arrest for bootlegging was made last Thursday afternoon by Sheriff Stewart and posse when Alfred Chandler, living about nine miles east of Ashkum, was arrested and brought to Watseka and placed in jail. Important, for the reason that Chandler has always borne a good reputation and who is the owner of 80 acres of good land and thought to be a law-abiding citizen.
 State's Attorney Taylor had learned that liquor was extensively peddled on the west side of the county and a few days ago he received definite information that Chandler was making and distributing it.
 A bottle of liquor was sent Mr. Taylor that was said to have been made by Chandler. Thursday afternoon the sheriff and posse went to the Chandler farm. On arriving they learned that Chandler was in Chatsworth and would not be home until evening. On questioning Mrs. Chandler Sheriff Stewart got very little information, in fact the lady tried to impress him that she knew nothing of any liquor being made. One of the officers went inside the house to see that the telephone was not put into use to notify the suspected man, while the sheriff investigated the premises. At the rear of the house was a long, narrow shed. The door was padlocked. The sheriff asked Mrs. Chandler for the key and she said she knew nothing about her husband's business. When the sheriff told her he would pull the staple holding the lock if he did not get the key, she said there was a bunch of keys which she would get for him. She returned with one key and, strange to say, it fitted the lock.
 When Sheriff Stewart entered the shed he found a ten-gallon still which was dripping and a gallon jug under the drip, catching the fluid. He also found three barrels of rye mash. Later in one of the rooms of the house he found twenty gallons of whiskey, some of it white and some of it colored.
 Later, when Chandler drove up in an automobile, he was accompanied by his brother, Charles Chandler who farms an eighty adjoining tract of his brother, and another man who claimed to be an insurance agent. When the sheriff told Chandler he was under arrest, he made no objection, nor did he ask what the charge was. There were three hand bags in the car, two of which contained a small quantity of liquor.
 Friday the prisoner was taken before Judge Gillan. He pleaded guilty and was assessed $500 and costs and given a jail sentence of 60 days. Chandler is a man 53 years of age. He has a wife but no children. In his case there are no mitigating circumstances in his favor and being a man of intelligence and well to do financially, his punishment is thought none too severe.
 The authorities think there is a well organized gang of moonshiners along their route are expected to con-

YE OLDEN TIMES

From Plaindealer of May 13, 1898
 The following young men expect to leave for Springfield, tonight, to join the First Illinois Volunteer Cavalry, R. F. Brown, James Chittum, Frank Moore, Mike Berry, F. H. Bangs, Joe Donahue, Chas. Speer, Ed. Roberts, Ed. Koehler and Con Brohnan.
 The Livingston County Telephone Co. got the local exchange to working on Wednesday and on Thursday connections were completed to Forrest, Fairbury and Pontiac. Miss Alice Entwistle has charge of the central office here and will soon become expert in handling the business of the office on the exchange board. Aquila Entwistle will have charge of the office at night.
 Meents, Smith and Cloke inform us that they will not be able to start their new elevator on Monday next, as they had expected, on account of a delay in receiving part of the machinery, but it is thought that on Wednesday of next week the engine can be started and the machinery be in position in the building ready to handle grain.
 The R. F. Brown Lumber Co. has sold to Louis A. Walter their lumber and coal business, and we understand that Mr. Walter will take active charge of the business. Under the management of R. F. Brown the business attained quite extensive proportions, and Mr. Walter will, undoubtedly, retain the large patronage and add to it.

MOTHER'S DAY.

Very appropriate services were held in the Methodist and Evangelical churches last Sunday. At the morning service at the Methodist church the services were in charge of the mothers. There was special music, talks and readings by mothers and altogether the service was beautiful and impressive. The church was fragrant with the odor of flowers and a large audience enjoyed the service.
 At the Evangelical church similar services in keeping with the day were held. Each mother present was presented with a beautiful white carnation. In the evening the young woman's missionary society gave an excellent program in honor of mother.

Marie C. Bernice K., Anna W., John R.—Go to the ant, thou slug-gard and observe her busy ways. Stewart T.—I am monarch of all I survey. Mr. Kibler—Man may live without poetry, music and books, but the civilized man cannot live without a cook. John F.—By and by is easily said. Miss La Follette—Thou, Nature, art my goddess. Rosina A.—Quiet streams run deep. John B.—If ignorance is bliss, I am supremely happy. Richard B.—Oh, give me back my heart. Charles B.—Oh, why should life all labor be? Gladys B.—But that the slave of life, and life's time's fool. Charles Bergan—Therefore since brevity is the soul of wit, I will be brief. George C.—The affair cries haste; and speed must answer it. Ray C.—We live and learn, but not the wiser grow. Pauline C.—Where is the poet, show him! show him! Sherwood D.—Enthusiasm is the thing that makes the world go around. Bernice M.—There's a twinkle in her eye. Harold G.—Let him rest in peace. Mabel W.—The early bird catches the worm. Lillian D.—Always the same. Florence L.—I can't live with you, or without you. Grace S.—And the best of me is diligence. Dorothy K.—Beware lest some one look at thee. Harold T.—Too much play and too little work. Alma H.—Luck hates the slow and loves the bold. Everett H.—He laughs, and lo! a cavern is disclosed. Francis P.—If I could only get a date. Zsa G.—Small, but mighty. Bernice G.—On with the dance. Let joy be unconfined. Catherine L.—Tho this be mad-ness, yet there's method in it. Edith W.—How beautiful is man-kind. Lottie H.—The plays' the thing. Quinn M.—Your wisdom is consumed in confidence. Clement M.—Swift runs the stream and yet so still. Marie S.—Honor awaits at Labor's gate. Raymond R.—His nature is too noble for this world. Pearlene M.—Steze the opportu-nity. Miss Scribbit, Miss La Follette, Miss Holby and Richard B.—It is so very late that we may call it early by and by. Ethel F.—There's daggers in men's smiles. Elsie S.—Good counselors lack no clients. Marie A.—Just to have my own way is all I ask. Mary R. K.—On the light fantastic toe. Charles C.—He thinks too much—such men are dangerous. Verna H.—Speech is great; but silence is greater. James G.—The good die young—I feel sick myself. Katherine H.—The brilliant dark eyes; May in triumph let fall, All its darts without caring who feels 'em. Mabel Ford—What's in a name? Alma W.—Early to bed, and early to rise; Makes a man healthy, wealthy and wise. Lucille F.—So I have heard and in part believe it. Mabelle M.—'Tis the mind that makes the body rich. Martha A.—And yet a maiden has no tongue but that. Martha H.—What must be, shall be. Lloyd H.—The people are the city. Virginia Bell—What many men desire. Bernice L.—A good heart's worth gold. Margaret M.—It was Greek to me. Nora L.—Hope is a lover's staff. Verna P.—I well believe thou wilt not utter, What thou dost not know. Ethel K.—Life is as tedious as a two fold tale. Charlotte E.—Put not your worthy rage into your tongue. Lucille B.—Do not banish reason from credulity. Ambrose K.—A dear little lamb—'s hid. Raphael R.—Oh, had I but followed the arts. Burnell C.—A thing with two wheels (in his head.)

Blanche B.—One who goes to the center of things. Burke M.—What man dare, I dare. Rita F.—Wit, wisdom, width. Rosie K.—Essay the power you have. Daniel K.—"Homs" is a name common to all men. Myra T. and Flora E.—There was a little girl and she had some little curls, but not in the middle of her forehead. Kathryn K.—You can't undo what's done. Jim B.—As you know me all, a plain, blunt man. Thomas B.—He'll never die of overwork, he doesn't believe in it. Titles for Senior Themes. The Relation of the Butter Bean to the Dairy Business. The Evolution of the Circular Wheel. Cooking Water Without Burning. The Medicinal Properties of Cube Root. The Measuring Worm versus the Calliper. The Fire-fly and Its Place in Modern Illumination. Milk Weeds and the Milk Supply. The Distinction Between Lettuce and Proposals. The Similarity of Growing Grain to the Freshman Class.

Could You Imagine. No Senior themes to write? Vernon S. depositing gum in a waste basket. Robert B. having a date? A report card with four E plus's? A day passing without hearing excuses? Anton W. with uncombed hair? Elvin P. not kidding any body? A quiet study hall? C. T. H. S. winning first place? Rollo H. without the latest marcel? A vacant library in schooltime? George C. reading Cicero? A busy assembly on Friday after-noon's? Our Presidents. George Washington was first president. By Adams was succeeded. Tom Jefferson was next the choice; The people's cause he pleaded. Madison was then called forth To give John Bull a peeling. James Monroe had all the go In the "era of good feeling." T'was J. Q. Adams next came in, And then came Andrew Jackson Who licked John Bull at New Orleans With such great satisfaction. Next Van Buren had the chair, Then Harrison and Tyler— The latter made the Whigs so mad They nearly burst their "biler."

We then elected James K. Polk. The issue that did vex us, Was, shall we fight with Mexico Or take in "Lone Star Texas?" Taylor then got in the chair. Millard Millmore filled it more; Frank Pierce then said, "I'll take it." Old Jim Buchanan then popped in, Abe Lincoln then was chosen; He found the currents of events, Were anything but frozen. Andrew Jackson had a time; The senate would impeach him, But as it took a two-thirds vote they lacked one vote to reach him. And then we came to U. S. Grant, The man who fought at Shiloh. Hayes and Garfield who was shot; They both came from Ohio. Arthur then the chair did hold, To Cleveland turned it over. Ben Harrison sandwiched in, And then again 'twas Grover. Next the chair held Bill McKinley; 'Twas to him the Cubans knelt, But he was shot, so then stepped in Popular Teddy Roosevelt. General Taft gave way to Woody, Who was our "war president." And last but not least is Warren G. With his "normalcy" government. —Pathfinder.

Registration Officer (to spinster) "Your name, please?" Spinster—"Mattilda Brown." Officer—"Age?" Spinster—"Have the Misses Hill, who live next door, given you their ages?"

Officer—"No." Spinster—"Well, then, I'm the same age as they." Officer—"That will do." (Pro-ceeding to fill in particulars, he mur-murs: "Miss Brown as old as the hills.")

The arch bishop had preached a splendid sermon on the beauties of married life and the following con-versation took place between two old Irish women on the way home. "That was a foine sermon his riv-erance gave us on marriage." "It was, indade, and I only wish I knew as little about the subject as he does."

Reversible. Teacher—"What is a geyser?" Pupil—"A water fall going up."

Pressing Thought. Prof.—"You should think of the future." Youth—"I can't. It's my girl's birthday and I have to think of the present."

Saving Ammunition. He (with great dignity)—"Then this is absolutely final?" Coed—"Absolutely. Shall I return your letters?" He—"Yes, please. I think they're good enough to use again."

No Slang in Mine. The American language sure is punk, In a great grand fix I mean; In every spiel the slang is fierce, It's enough to bust your bean. 'Tis used by Arabs of the street And slung by men of note; It polutes the tongue of woman fair; It really gets my goat.

I went to hear a sufferlist— She had her speech down pat; Said she, "I'll give you guys some dope That's hot, right off the bat." A sweet thing sitting by my side, Said, "Sir, she raised some smoke." A lady said, "She has the goods," Another, "Now you crook!"

I tried to hug a skirt one night— I got an electric shock; Said she, "I'll sniff your blue lights out, And knock away your block." I might have been a little off, Our bug house, fresh, a cad, But when she slung her slang at me It sure made me see red.

How Did She Mean It? The small boy was being reproved by his mother. "Why can't you be good?" she asked. "I'll be good for a nickel," he said. "Ah!" responded the mother, "you want to be bribed. You should copy your father and be good for nothing."

TOMMY'S COURTESY Tommy's father had been giving him lessons in politeness, but hardly dared hope that the seed of his teach-ing had taken root. One day, hearing a noise coming from the nursery, he investigated, and found Tommy pouncing his little brother. "I'm surprised, Tommy," said his father sternly, "that you should hurt your little brother. Don't you know that it is very cowardly to strike one who is smaller than yourself." "Yes," replied the culprit meekly, "but when you spanked me yesterday I was too polite to mention it."

TOLD IN A PARAGRAPH. Here's hoping we don't get into another war in Europe until the fish have quit biting and the base ball season is over. —The Chicago Tribune and The Chatsworth Plaindealer, both for one year, for $6.50. Our idea of a kill-joy is the fellow who has already started to predict hard times for 1924 because it's a presidential year.

CULLOM CLIPPINGS

(Mostly from the Chronicle)

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Carson Landis on Saturday, May 5th. Dan Koerner opened up his flivver a little too wide in South Willing-ton Sunday, and as a result was as-sessed a fine of $7.50 for speeding. Gns Koehler, of Chatsworth, re-turned home on Wednesday morning of last week after visiting a couple of days at the home of his son, George, east of town. Fishing at the Vermillion river is the poohest in years. The extremely dry spring kept the water at a very low level and the big fellows could not get over the dam at Pontiac.

A. J. Brown went to Kankakee last week and returned home accompan-ied by his wife who has been ill for some time past. She has been doc-toring in Kankakee and Chicago without much relief. Mr. and Mrs. George Cart and Mrs. George Gordon motored to Pontiac a few days ago. Mrs. Sarah Hatfield returned home with them from the hospital, where she had been the pre-vious week, having had an operation performed on one of her eyes. She will return later and have a similar operation performed on the other eye.

The hard road west of Ashkum is being extended a mile or two this way, and work was started on it last week. At the rate this road is creep-ing toward Cullom it would seem that we would have a hard road through here without waiting for the state to do it. The present road has been put in at the expense of the townships and county. It cuts into the heart of what a few years ago was known as "the swamps" but which now contains some of the best farm land in the state.

—When you have a news item call The Plaindealer. The first kiss is worth a million dollars to some fellows, but they wouldn't give ten cents for the second one.

Our idea of the worst pessimist in Chatsworth is the man who thinks it is going to rain just because he has had his shoes shined.

Most Girls Can Have Pretty Eyes No girl or woman is pretty if her eyes are red, strained, or have dark rings. Simple camphor, hydrastis witchhazel, etc., as mixed in Lavoptik eye wash, will brighten the eyes and a week's use will surprise you with its QUICK results. Regular use of Lavoptik keeps the eyes healthy, sparkling and vivacious. The quick change will please you. Dainty alum-inum eye cup FREE. Will C. Quinn, Chatsworth, Ill. (A-5)

Wherever You Go. The Delco-Light Electric Washing Machine

The washing action in the Delco-Light machine is similar to that employed by the expert laundress when she thoroughly cleanses clothes by hand: 1. Clothes are placed in machine, on top of perforated fuse bottom, and covered with water. 2. As tub swings clothes are forced up through water. Suction also draws water down through clothes, same as when clothes washed by hand are lifted out of water. 3. Tub continues to move in same direction, water being squirted thru clothes similar to hand washing. 4. As tub reaches maximum down position, clothes also slide downward over false bottom, giving rubbing action similar to old-fashioned wash board. Call at our office and let us demonstrate this machine.

Mother's Day was appropriately observed in both the Presbyterian and M. E. churches on Sunday. This beautiful custom was the result of a movement which owes its origin to Miss Anna Jarvis, of Philadelphia. Since then other countries, including China, Japan and Australia have set aside this day in honor of mother. It is now generally observed by wearing a flower one day in the year for remembrance of mother's love, deeds and sacrifices. It is not a day lost.

A base ball game between the business men and the high school boys was played at the ball park after school Friday evening and resulted in a score of 7 to 11 in favor of the business men. Hawthorne and Opperman were the pitchers for the business men and Keefe, McKee and De la Gardie for the high school boys. It is reported that some major league scouts were in the bleachers giving Hawthorne's pitching the "once over."

PRESENTED GOLD MEDAL.

A gold medal purchased by five members of the G. A. R. will be presented to the Cullom high school soon.

The medal will be used as a prize, and given each year to the student who shows the most interest and does the best work in American history.

The medal remains the property of the student winning it for the period of one year. It must be returned to the president of the school board by June 1st of the following year. It will be presented at the annual commencement exercises each year. The medal will not be awarded this year, because the students were not apprised of the award in time to compete for it. The winner will be decided each year by the American history teacher.

The donors of the medal are George W. Boeman (now deceased), J. L. Neitger, Lewis Shearer, John Kingdon and John Cook.

"Daddy" Schick in Legionnaires says: "I have, no form of ceremony, but I have, in their own way, arranged services and testimonials as circumstances. If other eyes grow dim and hands slack and other the solemn trust, ours will so long as warm main to us. Let us to pointed time gather red remains and garland less mounds above, with flowers of spring time, above them the dear saved from dishonor, solemn presence never to aid and assist those have left among us, a upon the Nation's great soldiers and sailors' uniforms and our disabled now linger in hospital land."

Whole hearted endorsement "Poppy Days," May 23rd the American Legion, Legion Members and Legionnaires will distribute red poppies to the soldier dead of the war given by Governor Deneen to the Illinoisans in the American Legion as a mark of devotion to their lives for country.

The poppy has been the American Legion a flower and will be put various committees of Legion Auxiliaries throughout the month of May, to be designated for the welfare and service men and work of the Auxiliary.

SHALL WE CELEBRATE?
Time slips along its 4th is only about six weeks until 1923 Chatsworth is to celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of the American Legion. There has been some talk of celebrating this year but so far nothing has been done. It is now the time to begin if we would make the undertaking.
