* SEE REVERSE SIDE FOR MORE INFORMATION*

Be Aware:

- This credit cannot be claimed in more than one community within New Hampshire or if you are receiving similar benefits in another state, such as the Massachusetts Veteran's Credit.
- If your primary residence changes and you no longer qualify for the credit, you are obligated by law to advise the Belmont Assessing Department
- If you do relocate within the Town, you must file an amended permanent application with the Assessing Department for the Veteran's Credit and the exemption will be transferred to the new property. It will be the exemption recipient's responsibility to notify the parties involved in the sale of the property that the credit is being moved to the new property with the person qualified for the exemption.
- If your marital status changes you must notify the Belmont Assessing Department
- A person is guilty of a misdemeanor if, with the purpose to deceive a public servant in the performance of his official function, he makes any written false statement which he/she does not believe to be true, or if he/she knowingly creates a false impression in this written application for pecuniary or other benefits by omitting information necessary to prevent statements therein from being misleading, or if he submits or invites reliance on any writing which he/she knows to be lacking in authenticity. RSA 641:3, II, (a) (b) (d) (supp.)

Information disclosed on this application will be verified through all resources available to the Town of Belmont and the Assessing Department.

I have read the above statements and fully certify that I/we understand them. Any misrepresentation may result in court action for recovery.
