DOUBLE DOUBLE TON AND TROUBLE

294 SENIORS

It's been 4 years of 8 periods a day, 5 days a week, 184 days a year with 4 minutes between each 45 minute class. Those numbers mean nothing when you think about what was most important: laughter and conversation between friends, days filled with learning, fun, studying, drama, hard work, winning, losing, rehearsing, striving, dreaming and finally...moving on!
WE DID IT! CONGRATULATIONS!

CLASS OF 2012

2012 Class Advisors

Mr. Nelson Colon

Mrs. Kathleen Dellanno

Dear Class of 2012,

Congratulations on your graduation from Passaic Valley High School! The last four years have been filled with challenges, accomplishments, and great memories. In September 2008 you entered as Freshmen, unsure of what the future held. Now, as the Senior Class of 2012 you leave more mature, confident and ready to face the new challenges ahead. We hope that you will remember and use what you have learned here at PV. Do not forget that learning is a lifelong process; wherever life leads you, you will continue to add to the knowledge, wisdom and life experience that you have gained here. Enjoy the journey! We wish you the best of luck and don't forget your Hornet Pride!

Sincerely,

Class Advisors,

Nelson Colon and Kathleen Dellanno

Dear Members of Class of 2012:

*Nothing that is can pause or stay;
The moon will wax, the moon will wane,
The mist and cloud will turn to rain,
The rain to mist and cloud again,
Tomorrow be today.
-Henry Wadsworth Longfellow*

The Class of 2012 was welcomed by the Passaic Valley Regional High School administration and staff in September 2008 with great excitement and enthusiasm. During the same month, our nation was in the throes of a very heated presidential campaign, which ultimately resulted in the election of Barack Obama in November. The U.S. economy was spiraling downward with Wall Street experiencing record losses and the unemployment rate was above 6%. According to U.S. Treasury Secretary, Henry M. Paulson, Jr., without greater government involvement, household wealth would suffer from family budgets, to home values, to savings for college and retirement, and the inability to secure home and auto loans and other consumer credit.

Four years later, the nation is preparing for another presidential campaign, the nation's economy continues to struggle, the financial markets are still in considerable flux, and unemployment is ahead of the 2008 indicator. As graduating seniors you are ready to accept the challenges beyond high school and prepare for your future role in our global society. Many of you will continue your education at the college/university level, while others will pursue technical institutions and some will elect to enter the military.

Your generation has been presented with significant challenges because the social and economic issues of 2008 have also escalated on the international level. Greater creativity than ever before is required in addressing many of these issues. We are depending on your generation to provide the future leadership to guide us back to the traditional prosperity and exceptional quality of life our great nation has always experienced. We are confident that as members of the Class of 2012, you have taken full advantage of the academic and co-curricular opportunities at Passaic Valley and established a solid foundation as you enter the next chapter of your lives.

On behalf of the Board of Education and Administration, I wish you the very best in your future plans and remind you to maintain your Hornet Pride in the Green and White.

Respectfully,
Viktor J. Joganow, Ed.D.

LETTERS FROM HOME

To Our Daughter Valerie D' Ambrosio,

It seems like yesterday that our beautiful "Glowie" was born and now you are graduating from High School. You have accomplished so much both in and out of school. We have watched you grow into a beautiful, caring, and compassionate young lady. Your hard work and determination have not gone unnoticed and we are so proud of you. You have given us so many wonderful memories watching you be a part of Cheering and Girls' Show for the past 4 years. Whatever you do, do it with all your heart. You can do anything that you want to do. Don't settle for second best, you deserve the best of the best, and we will always be here cheering you on. I can't wait to see what the future will bring. I know that no matter where life's path takes you, you will succeed and you will be cherished.

All Our Love,
Mom & Dad

Dear Marc Bonilla,

Words cannot express the pride that we feel as parents in being blessed with a very special son like you.

You have brought so much love and happiness into our lives, and we are so proud of you.

Lots of luck and success in all that you do. Believe in yourself and follow your dreams. We love you very much.

Lots of Love,
Mom & Dad

Kristina Bronkowski,

Where to start- From your toddler years you have always been so focused, which is why you became a "black belt" in karate at 6 years old. With love and pride we watched you grow into an amazing young lady. May the joy you have given us also bring you success in your future. We are so proud of the person you have become and of all of your accomplishments. Whenever you set your mind on something, you didn't stop until you succeeded. Set your goals and follow your dreams. Never lose your great sense of dedication. Always stay focused and pursue each and every goal. We know that with your confidence and determination all of your dreams will come true and you will continue to grow and develop into an even more amazing young lady. There is no limit to what you can achieve. Live life to the fullest extent and always remember that we love and support you with all our hearts. As you enter into the next phase of your life, may it be full of love, happiness and success! We love you---

Mom, Dad, & Allen

Kristina Bronkowski,

Kristina- Our "favorite" granddaughter
We love you and wish only the best for you always.
We are so proud of you and all your accomplishments.
We loved watching you play soccer, basketball and softball all these years and wish you a very happy and successful future!

We love you,
Grandma & Grandpa

Josh Cooper,

"J," You are the last, but certainly not least, of our 4 P.V. Graduates. We have with absolute brimming pride watched you grow into an exemplary young man. You have by your mere existence shown us courage beyond all measure, determination beyond your ability & comprehension, and a maturity beyond your years. It is with infinite pride and immeasurable love we wish you well in your future endeavors & your life's journeys. You have been blessed in your life with amazing people who have helped you along the way. You've had an amazing girlfriend who has loved you through thick and thin, friends who you could count on and who often went above and beyond the definition of a friend, teachers, administrators, and staff who guided, cajoled and supported you toward your goals. You have had your family's never ending consummate support & faith and we know unequivocally that, "You WILL Make a Difference." We leave you with this verse to remind you of your greatest source of strength which comes from above. Philippians 4:30- "I can do everything through Christ who strengthens me." You have our love always & forever,

Mom & Dad & your family

Elisa Corsetto,

Elisa is a well rounded young lady and will succeed tremendously in her near future. I know she will make herself very proud of who she will become as well as making her parents very proud in whatever path she chooses to follow. Elisa is definitely a go getter and a achiever who will reach for her stars! We are happy she is our daughter and wish her the very best ever and always. We Love you a lot,

Mom & Dad and sis Brianna

Gabriella Crocco,

It's hard to believe that "Our Baby Girl" is old enough to go to college. Congratulations on your graduation from High School! You have successfully completed a large chapter of your life and will now begin a new one and exciting one. You have grown from a sweet baby girl to a wonderful, intelligent young woman. We are extremely proud of you and all that you have accomplished. Never give up on your dreams and always be TRUE to yourself. We wish you the best of luck as you work toward your goal as a History Teacher. Remember that we are here for you and will support you in all you do, and our love is endless. We love you very much

Mom & Dad

Dear Andrea Doumar,

Daddy and I are so proud of you. You have grown into such a wonderful young woman. I still remember your first day of preschool when you sat on the floor in Miss Debbie's classroom sobbing. Then the next day you walked right into school like you had been going for years. You have made some great friends and created memories that will last forever. We hope all your dreams come true, you deserve it. Good luck in college, have fun and work hard!

Love,
Mom, Dad and Jaclyn

LETTERS FROM HOME

Dear Melissa Fisher,

Do what makes you happy; Be with those who make you smile; Laugh as much as you breathe; Love as long as you live! You always do your best, you make me proud.

Congratulations
Love Mom

Kayla Gordon,

We are very proud of you, all the hard work that you have done to get through school at the level that you are is proof that your future is going to be a bright one and full of joy and success for you.

We are so proud of you!

Mom and Tony

Dear Shannon Hartwig,

As your High School journey comes to a close, we reflect back on the past four years. From your first day as a freshman to your senior year, you have had many exciting learning experiences. Meeting your guidance counselor, learning to speak French, Jazz and Concert Band, and Culinary Class are just some of your many High School experiences.

You have grown as a person. Your confidence is stronger and you have begun setting goals for yourself. As you move on, the Philosophy to live by will remain the same; be a good person, think of others, always use words of kindness and remember to care, laughter is genuine, do your best, believe you can, speak up against wrong. Be a good friend, be loyal and trustworthy. Never forget those who have been there for you.

As you take on your next learning adventure, you will take this Philosophy with you. Let it be your guide, your focal point, your grounding.

Hold on to what's important to you. Your parents will always be there for you. Using the slogan from your dad's favorite store: "You can do it we can help". Using the slogan from your mom's favorite store: "The signature of American style".

Good Luck, Best wishes, We Love You!

Love,
Mom and Dad

To Our Daughter Ashley Rose Kolenc,

It seems like yesterday that our miracle arrived. Our beautiful baby girl with warm brown eyes, ringleet curls of brown and a smile that brightened our days and brought joy to our entire family. We remember vividly all of your first milestones, talking, walking, the first day of school, horseback riding, cheerleading, clarinet, piano & guitar, concerts, plays & sports. Now you are graduating high school. Plays & sports by! As you continue on your life's journey we wish you good health both mental and physical. You will need both to fully enjoy life's pleasures. We wish you happiness in each goal you set out to attain. View any setback as temporary or another lesson in life. Learn from these challenges, be kind to yourself, have a positive attitude and success will happen in all areas of your life. We wish you love. To love and be loved is life's greatest gift. May our family traditions live on through you and bring you fond memories. We wish you laughter and fun times with good friends who will appreciate you for the wonderful person you are. We wish you faith, not only in yourself and your own capabilities but also faith in God. Your faith in Him will give you the serenity to change the things you can, accept the things you can't and the wisdom to know the difference. Nurture your spirit with prayer. When no one else will listen, He is always there! May you find a career you love. We are so proud to call you daughter. You have faced many obstacles with resiliency and continue to thrive. You are beautiful inside and out! We will always be here to share your adventures in life. Be safe, be happy and know that you are loved more than words can express.

Love,
MaMa & Daddy

Sara Elizabeth Kosch,

It seems like only yesterday we were blessed to bring a beautiful baby girl into the world. Now 18 years later she is ready to go out into the world as an adult. They say that the high school years fly by and it certainly is so true. You entered PV as a freshman, sweet, enthusiastic and ambitious. Looking at you now, as a senior, your qualities haven't changed, but are only more obvious than ever.

You were challenged with many obstacles that weren't in your favor during the four years, but you never gave up. You pursued every goal and dream that you set for yourself (GREEN CHIEF). You are an amazing young lady, and we are so very proud to say "That's our daughter"!

You possess so many amazing qualities about you that we admire. Your smile lights up a room and your personality is infectious.

We love you with all our hearts and wish you continued success but most of all happiness in your life.

Always stay true to yourself and reach for the stars, but remember to SMILE, SPARKLE, SHINE!

Love you with all our hearts,
Mom & Dad

Dear Deborah Laguna,

Congratulations! You Did It!

We are so proud of all you have accomplished. You have always been a dedicated person in everything that you do.

You have taken on a lot of responsibility, not only in school but in other areas of your life and have always given 100% of your effort and dedication.

Continued success as you endeavor to write a new page in the story of your life.

You will always have the support of your parents and siblings. We are so very proud of you.

You don't talk you go and do. You always let your actions speak louder than your words.

As you go on in life may all the experiences achieved and the lessons learned during the past twelve years help you to achieve all your goals and to climb every mountain. Blessings to you always.

We love you

Dad (William) Mom (Taty) Brother (Giancarlo) Sister (Kylene)

LETTERS FROM HOME

Dear Deborah Laguna

Wow I can't believe how time flies. It seems that it was yesterday when you were 8 and wanting to sing to the world. Now not only do you sing for the almighty, but you have blossomed to become an admirable young lady. Mentoring you has been the most pleasant and unexpected experience. As you embark on your own journey of self discovery I pray that you recall all our conversations and that they will help you in this new phase of your life. I trust that your leveled head and strong personality will make you stand out in all you do. The almighty gifted you with the name of an amazing religious figure Deborah: a Judge, a leader, an outstanding woman. I pray that you continue to be a leader and that you achieve all which your heart desires, that you continue to be an example of success knowing that we have a higher power working on our behalf. May the Almighty Bless You and keep you safe.

Always remember, that life will bring hard choices, that when it's time to sit it out or dance..... I Hope You Dance Deborah,

I Hope You Dance!!!

Blessings
Jamie

Dear Jocelyn Lee,

You probably didn't believe it when we said that the four years were going so fast! Now here we are in 2012 watching you embark on your journey to college and choosing a career. The four years have been a joy to watch, as you grew and became a hard-working student, an exemplary leader, a committed volunteer, a faithful friend, and a strong and responsible adult. Words can't even express how very proud we are of all that you've achieved and know that the four years at PV are only stepping stones in which you will continue to be successful in anything that you do in the future. We are honored to call you our daughter and fortunate to watch you as you have matured throughout the years! You are a poised, composed and well-mannered young lady! You are our treasure, our heart and our Princess! Congratulations on your achievements at PVHS and our hearts are with you every day as you plan your future to reach each goal that you set for yourself! Always believe in yourself because you can do anything you set your mind to!! We love you <3!

XoXo,
Dad & Mom

Dear Erica Ligouri,

To our Baby Girl, we cannot express how much pride and joy you have given us over the past 17 years. From the moment you were born--to soccer, softball, field hockey, basketball, cheering, Honor Societies, golf, and especially Drum Major in Marching Band--all these things have helped to mold you into an amazing and determined young lady. You are about to enter into the next phase of your life. Whatever you do, know that we will always be there cheering you on as your biggest fans. Best of Luck in college and your future. We love you always,

Mom & Dad xoxo

Nick Liberatore 18 years ago, we held you in our arms and dreamed about the kind of son you would be. You have far surpassed anything we could have imagined. We are so proud of the wonderful, caring young man you have become. Remember to always do your best, enjoy life to the fullest and love with all your heart as we have loved you! May God Bless you & guide you always!

Love, Mom & Dad

My Dearest Vincent Marciano,

As I am writing you this letter, I have so many thoughts that go through my mind. Since the time you were a premature baby until now at 18 yrs, you have been a joy! Through all of my illness you have been right by my side and never let me give up. I am so proud of you and our great relationship. You will always be my 1st child and my little boy. Nothing will change that! Your father is as equally as proud of you and the relationship you have with me. I never saw a brother and sister that have such a great relationship as the two of you. You should cherish these relationships for as long as you can. We love you very much and are behind you 110% of the way. I still can't believe this day is actually here. I picture you going to pre-school with Miss Sue as if it were yesterday. As time goes on and changes, at least we have the great memories of you becoming an adult. We love you very much! Vincent, you have turned into such a handsome young man!

My son means the world to me!
So much out there for him to see!
I would like to take him in my arms!
And show him the world and its charm.
As he grows a little day by day,
God lights the path, to guide him on his way.

Dear Ashley Melnick,

It doesn't seem that long ago that we watched you smiling and excited to get on the school bus for your first day of kindergarten, and now you are graduating high school. My little girl has grown into a beautiful young woman inside and out and someone that I am very thankful and proud to have as my daughter and best friend. You have impressed us with your academic achievements all through your school years. No matter where life's path takes you, we know you will succeed and be cherished. Remember there will always be ups and downs along the way, but continue to grow and learn...and always stay the sweet, beautiful girl with the biggest heart who loves to laugh and have fun. Good Luck, Health, Happiness and may all your dreams come true. We love you Ashley... no matter what, we will ALWAYS be here for you.

Love,
Mommy, Daddy & Taylor xoxoxo

Dear Robert Novak,

I cannot believe I am writing this letter to you, because it means you are a senior and are about to graduate. OMG Rob! You have grown into such a handsome, responsible, caring & loving young man; I just can't believe my eyes. I am so proud of all you have accomplished, and excited for your future. You can do anything you set your mind to son, the sky's the limit. You have developed the qualities of determination, discipline and drive which together are a winning combination for success in life. You are always there to help me and your family, you have learned to be a treasured and loyal friend and I pray you will be a successful college student. My heart is filled with pride, with hope and especially filled for you. I love you so much honey, congratulations!

LETTERS FROM HOME

David Robinson,

Your years at P.V. have gone by so quickly. Freshman orientation seems like it was yesterday, walking beside you in the same halls that both me and your grandfather did. As you close this chapter in your life, hold on to your memories, learn from your mistakes and never give up on your dreams. You can accomplish anything you want. The world is yours for the taking, go and grab it and get everything out of it that you can. Hold on to your passion because it is what will lead you to accomplish your dreams. You are my greatest gift. I am so proud of you. You have my continued support in all you do. This next chapter in life is for YOU to write. I love you! Mom xo

To Robert Scelzo,

Congratulations, you did it Rob. There are not enough words to express how proud I am of you. And how much I Love You. Keep your head up high, go for your dreams, you deserve the best. Good Luck and Congratulations. We all Love You.

Love Always's Mom, Rezier, Victoria, Nan, Pop and Maz
xxoo

To Our Dearest Megan Jean Tencza,

We are so proud of you for all you have accomplished these last four years. You have had to work hard to overcome some trying circumstances. But with your upbeat attitude and your outgoing ways you have done more than you'll ever know. You are an incredible young woman and an inspiration to us. As you go forward continue to keep that beautiful smile upon your face and the joy and laughter in your heart.

Forever know that Daddy, Sara and I will always be your biggest fans. We will be here whenever you want with open arms.

Thank you for making our lives better!
Congratulations and Enjoy!

Love ya,
Mommy, Daddy & Sara
XOXOXOXOXO

Dear Megs,

Congratulations! We are so proud of you. Thanks for being so good to us.

Love,
Moo Moo, Grandpa and Zoe Zoe

Dear Ashley Thomas

Who would have thought that your four years in high school would pass in the "blink of an eye." We are so proud of everything you have accomplished academically, socially and through your extra-curricular activities and we thank you for bringing us along for a ride! You have dealt with obstacles, large and small during the last four years and you still managed to stay focused and kept that smile on your face! Your level of maturity is second to none and it will serve you well as you continue your journey through life. You will always have our love and support and we wish you nothing but a lifetime of love, happiness and success. We hope all your dreams come true. Love Mom, Dad & Stephanie

Kristen Schirner,

It is hard to believe you will be graduating high school. It feels like yesterday that we were holding you in our arms and rocking you to sleep. We are so proud of you and all of your accomplishments. Especially being named 1st team all county and all conference for field hockey. You have turned into a star athlete over the years.

CONGRATULATIONS! We know you will succeed in whatever you choose to do.

WE LOVE YOU
Mom, Dad, Phillip

Kristen Schirner,

Congratulations on your Graduation!
We are so proud of you and your accomplishments. We wish you happiness and success in your future. Remember your "Life lessons" and let your determination and passion lead you to all of your dreams. Always know we are here for you.

We love you,
Aunt Patty, Jessica and Adam

Kris,

Congratulations! I'm so proud of all you have done. You're an amazing cousin and best friend, and I couldn't ask for more. I'll be here for you for anything you need in the future, I'm just a futon talk away. I love you! - Jess

Dear Veronica Schneider,

We are so proud of you! You are so special and mean everything to us. Since you were a little girl, it seemed that you were destined for something special. Nana and Papa always thought that you were here before. You knew things that seemed to have been learned before you came to us. Now you are about to begin a very exciting part of your life and we will soon find out just what it is you are meant to do! You have brought us so much happiness. I can't even begin to tell you how much! We had so much fun taking you places, Cape May, Hawaii, Mexico, rafting in Oregon, camping in the High Sierras. We really hope you enjoyed your childhood because we tried to give you the best.

You set high standards for yourself and that is something to be proud of. You are a leader and that takes a lot of courage. Being an only child, you have had to find your own way, and we think you are doing a great job. We hope you continue to make good mature choices. You are in our hearts always. Most importantly, we wish you much happiness in whatever you choose to do in life. Remember Veronica, we will ALWAYS be here to support you, no matter what.

With all our Love,
Mommy & Gary

Dear Michael Stanek,

Congrats!!! I'm so proud of you. Good luck in the future in medical school, you will be one of the successful surgeons who wants to help others. Go after your dreams, don't ever give up or let anybody stop you. I always knew you were going to be somebody special, someone that I'm going to be proud of. I love you always.

Love Mom & Nick

Scott Wisse,

Congratulations, we know it was not easy for you! Work hard and we know you will succeed in whatever you choose to do. Stay true to yourself and never change for anyone. Smile, be happy, and always have love in your heart. Remember to appreciate the little things and don't sweat the big things. You are a wonderful son and we are so proud of you! We will always be here to love and support you.

We love you, Mom, Dad and Amanda
