SCAN ME

Self-Checkout now available for patrons

The Allen Park Public Library is excited to announce the integration of Self-Checkout kiosks for public use! Patrons simply scan their valid library card then scan books for fast and easy checkout. Currently, one kiosk is available for use but we do plan to expand the service in the coming months. Not all materials are useable with Self-Checkout such as DVDs, audiobooks, and materials on hold from other libraries which must still be checked out at the Circulation Desk.

New collections available on Kanopy

For Native American Heritage Month, Kanopy has curated a special collection. Celebrating the rich history of America's first people, these narrative and documentary films pay tribute to the past and make clear connections to the present. Patrons can also join cinematic sleuths, as they venture down dark alleys during Noirmember: A celebration of film noir. Visit allenparklibrary.kanopy.com to watch.
