

Food Drive at Blackstone Library

by Tressy N. Collier

In order to promote the spirit of giving and thanks which exemplifies the true meaning of the Thanksgiving holiday, the Blackstone Board of Library Trustees will be sponsoring a food drive for the Blackstone-Millville Food Pantry.

From now through November 30, patrons are invited to drop off unopened, unexpired and nonperishable food items at the Blackstone Library during normal business hours.

A list of the most-requested food items includes the following: instant potatoes, macaroni and cheese, cereal, ketchup, granola bars, jelly, juice boxes, coffee, tomato soup, vegetable soup, crackers, mustard, mayonnaise, fluff, cocoa and toilet paper.
