

Learn the Art of Pysanky with Celeste Langlois

An art class for adults

Have you always wanted to learn how to make a traditional Ukrainian Easter egg to add to your basket?

Now is your chance!

Come and learn about the colorful world of Pysanky, the Ukrainian art form in which an egg is designed with traditional folk motifs using wax and dyes. You will draw lines on an egg and layer dye colors to make a beautiful, unique decorative egg. No experience is necessary.

The class will take approximately 2.5 hours, so plan accordingly. During this class, you will learn about the history and meaning of the colors and symbols of this Ukrainian art form.

Registration is required. There are two dates for this class
Each class is limited to 20 participants.

Registration for Blackstone residents begins on 2/20/23
Registration for all others begins on 3/6/23

Call the Blackstone Public Library at 508-883-1931 to register, or for more
