

Massachusetts Libraries
BOARD OF LIBRARY COMMISSIONERS

Tuesday, Sept. 24 at 6:30 PM

Radio Turns 100

Voices: A Common Thread

Radio Turns 100 The Golden Age of Entertainment

Mike Morin has collected short clips from some of the greatest radio entertainers of the past century. His slide and audio presentation is a tribute to radio and includes Milton Berle, Jack Benny, Groucho Marx, Orson Welles and several memorable Boston radio personalities.

Morin, whose broadcast career is in its 53rd year, brings radio history alive in Radio Turns 100 - The Golden Age of Entertainment.

Mike Morin is a 53-year radio and TV personality. His Boston-area radio work included 94-5 WZOU and 93-7 WCGY. He also hosted 300 candlepin bowling TV shows for nine years in Boston and New Hampshire.

BLACKSTONE PUBLIC LIBRARY
86 Main Street
Blackstone, MA 01504
www.blackstonepubliclibrary.org

Registration is required. Visit our Events Page.

Please contact the Blackstone Public Library at 508-883-1931 for more information.

"Radio Turns 100" is supported by grant funds from the Institute of Museum and Library Services under the provisions of the federal Library Services and Technology Act as administered by the Massachusetts Board of Library Commissioners.