If you have a love for cooking, this club might be for you! This club, led by Jean Piechocki, will meet quarterly, with recipes selected to reflect the seasons. Participants will prepare a cherished family recipe, and bring it to this pot-luck-style club meeting to share with other members.

Please, remember to bring a copy of your family recipe to share with the group, so that those with allergies can be aware of the ingredients. Recipes including peanuts and tree-nuts are not allowed. If you need to find a written version of an old favorite you only know by heart, take a look at our library's database page and check out "A to Z World Food" to find hundreds of recipes from all over the world!

Registration is required. Call or come in to register.
