Our "Fields of Bliss" Are . . .

The name of our yearbook, Elysium, is unique to our school. Although other schools may publish their yearbook under the same title, they cannot claim the appropriateness that we can. Elysium is a Greek word meaning "fields of bliss." In the early 1800's a man named Bliss settled here and began building a home. Other settlers built homesteads near his, and the area soon became known locally as "Mr. Bliss' field." Eventually a small village was begun and the logical name of Blissfield was chosen. Hence the applicability of Elysium as a title for our yearbook.

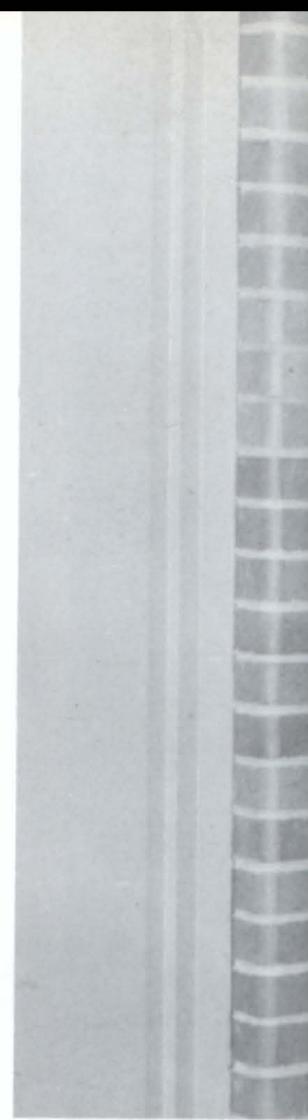

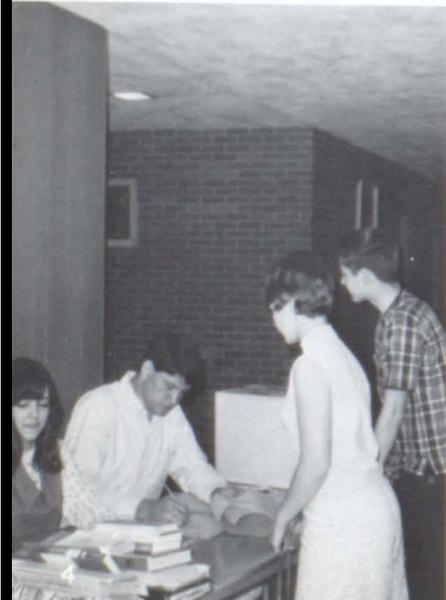

Our staff has chosen "fields of bliss" as the theme for our fifty-first edition. In this yearbook we will try to present all the facets of Blissfield High School - an educational institution, a social institution, and a threshold of the future. Blissfield High School is a wonderful place to live and work. The 1967 Elysium staff has dedicated itself to presenting completely and honestly the joys and sorrows, the triumph and defeats that our students have shared this past year.

Morality Play Reveals New Concept in Dramas.

Conscience (J. Clement) and the Devil (Mr. Piper) compete for the possession of Everyman's soul (K. Sprunk).

In their final production of the year, the dramatics class presented a completely new concept of the theater. Their play, Everyman Today, was a modern morality play. It depicted man versus his inner drives or struggles, such as his conscience, his thirst for power, and his feelings for guilt. The play was staged as a "theater in the round." This new method for Blissfield finds the audience seated around a central stage, enabling them to view the action from all sides.

Below, the Manifestations of Everyman stand trial.

Conscience summons Everyman to defend himself before Death (J. Steiner).

The 1967 Awards Assembly officially closed the school year. The assembly was opened with the pledge of allegiance and the installation of new student council officers. President John LaSotta discussed the activities and accomplishments of the council for the last year. He presented Mr. Earl Wolverton a shirt and tie set on behalf of the student council in appreciation of all the work he has done. The new officers were then installed: treasurer, Monica Seeburger; secretary, Pat Cory; vice-president, Howard Estes; president, Dale Wotring. Dale ended the ceremony with a few brief remarks.

Mr. Harold Mohr, Kiwanis' representative, presented the Kiwanian scholarship awards to the following students: (ninth grade) Robin Frautschí, Becky Hodgins, Jody Tormoehlen, Pat Clement, Gary Hartman, Sharon Rathbun; (tenth grade) Vicki Walker, Jill Valentine, Janet Thompson, Bonnie McHenry; (eleventh grade) Sandy Soff, Steve Porter, Suzanne Klauda, and Pat Cory.

Mrs. Boylan presented certificates of Educational Development to Pat Clement, Jim Estes, Wanda Goetz, Gary Hartman, Becky Knisel, Karilyn McCarty, Tom Miller, Sandy Porter, Jody Tormoehlen, Carolyn Carlton, Virginia DeGross, Jane Eisenmann, Don Frost, Bonnie McHenry, Terry Vernon, Jeff Tormohlen, and Jilleen Valentine.

The following other awards were also presented: Toledo Blade awards and the Reader's Digest award to the co-valedictorians went to Karen Kuchenmeister and Mary Eisenmann. Michigan Press Association Award - Pat Sayler and Mary Eisenmann

The first major event of the school year is Homecoming.

After football, basketball season begins and brings excitement to enthusiastic crowds.

At the arrival of spring, everyone's thoughts turn toward the Junior-Senior Prom.

For seniors, class night is the last high school activity before graduation.

During the year our activities create interest and enthusiasm and give our students something to look forward to. From homecoming in the fall to commencement in the spring, we work hard to make our activities successful and memorable for all our students. Participation in these activities brings our students closer together. Our "fields of bliss" become a more enjoyable place to live and work through the interest and effort devoted to our many activities.

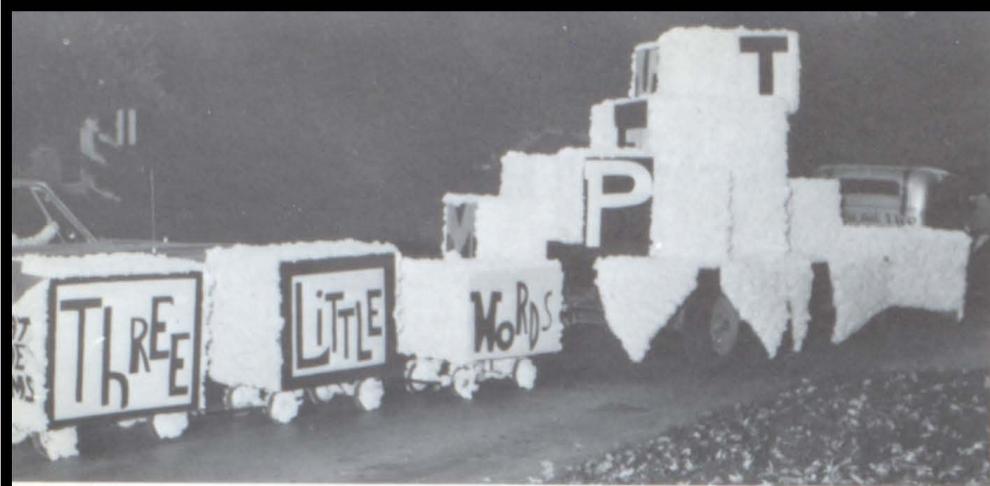

. . . and what's a school year without a dance?

Commencement marks the end of high school for some and merely the end of the school year for others.

Drama Class Becomes a Reality

This new course offered at Blissfield High School this year, Dramatics, has proved to be very successful. With the help of their able coach, Mr. Thomas Piper, the dramatics classes have successfully staged three productions. The first production included two short plays, Impromptu and Spoon River Anthology. The second production, an all-school play, was extremely successful. The set for the Diary of Anne Frank was entirely designed and built by Mr. Piper. A third production, Everyman Today, was also staged by the dramatics classes during the year.

Although their main interest was the production of plays, the dramatics students also studied other aspects of drama. During the year, the dramatics students studied different drama writers, the plays they wrote, and their writing styles and techniques. Different types of theaters, including the most primitive to the most modern, were also studied. To help the students obtain some basic ideas of acting, impromptu acting was done during class. During the production of the plays, the behind-scenes people learned the proper way to paint the scenery, the right way to use lights effectively, and the proper way to use make-up in making up the actors.

The Dramatics classes have certainly made a welcome addition to the curriculum here at Blissfield High School.

C. Horvath and S. Porter were the first guests to enter Club Tahiti.

Guests congregated in the Hula Room to dance to the music of the Red Perkins Combo.

Junior-Senior Prom A Gala Affair

The grand opening of the Club Tahiti was held Saturday, May 20. After participating in the grand march, guests entered the Tiki Game Room in which a variety of games was available. Decorations for the room consisted of a mermaid sitting on a treasure chest beneath a palm tree, all resting on a sandy beach, and a display case of such items as a hula skirt, a ukelele, and a wide assortment of sea shells.

As guests entered the Hula room for dancing, they viewed fish nets entwined with shells and stars and draped across one wall; a grass hut was built along the adjacent wall, and a cage housing tropical birds was built in a corner.

Bamboo fences draped with vines separated the Hula Room from the Polynesian Dining Room which opened at nine. The long gourmet table covered with white linen was attractively set with a large variety of foods. Here again, fish nets entwined with shells were draped across one wall. A hand-woven map of the Pacific islands and a hand-painted mural depicting a surfing scene were on the opposite and adjacent walls. The main attraction of the gourmet table was a whole roasted suckling pig, complete with an apple in its mouth and garnishings of fresh fruit. A lavish assortment of meat, fruits, cakes, and relishes completed an excellent buffet dinner.

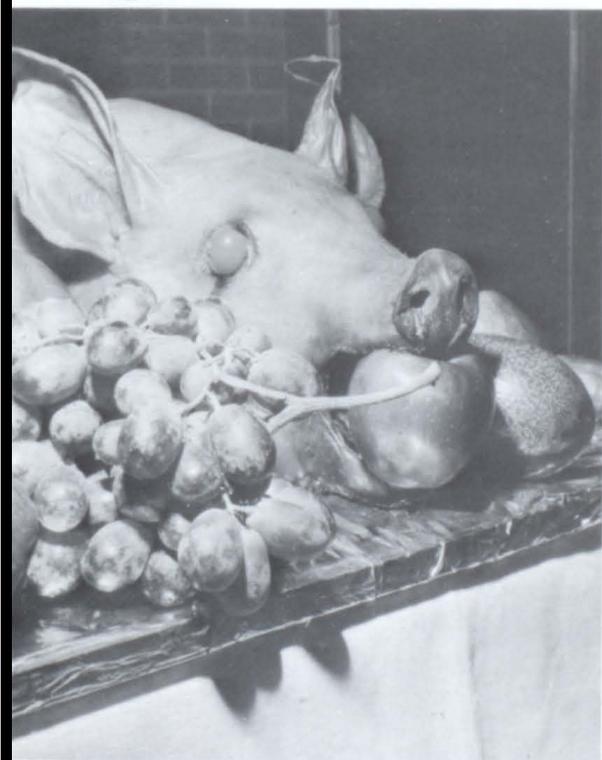

Roast suckling pig was the specialty of the house.

Dr. Hayden of the University of Michigan gave the address to the students at Blissfield's first outdoor commencement ceremonies. This year was also the first time National Honor Society students were given recognition by the gold braids over their robes. After diplomas and awards were presented, the class of '67 walked back to the school, no longer students of BHS.

Five yards was the difference between a perfect season and the 7-1-1 record that the Blissfield Royals hammered out. In their first game, the Royals came within two yards of a touchdown and a victory at Hudson. At Grosse Ile, they lost the Huron League Championship by three short yards, losing to the Red Devils, 6-0. As the record indicates, there was plenty of hustle, desire, and good plain "heads-up" football. The season was high-lighted by Blissfield's 20-0 win over Tecumseh and the ending of Dundee's 37-game win streak with a 14-0 win.

After compiling an average 5-5 record, the Royals captured 10 straight victories, finally losing to Willow Run in regional play. During Christmas vacation they nipped Hudson and Adrian to win Blissfield's first ABHT title. After losing to Tecumseh 67-60 in a league battle, the Royals fought their way to the top of the Huron league, tying with Airport for the crown. In the district tournament they defeated Dundee, Milan, and Tecumseh to capture their third straight district title. Advancing to the regionals, the Royals clipped Hillsdale in a double overtime thriller, 67-66. In the next round they lost to a fine Willow Run quintet. Well-balanced scoring and great bench support were the main factors which carried the Royals to a fine 15-6 record. The season's final thrill came when Coach A1 Schaffer was named All-County Coach of the Year.

Varsity Shares Title

The junior varsity this year displayed fine potential and much promise as next year's Royal cagers. Coach Jack Hepinstall led his team to a praise worthy record of 11 wins, 5 losses.

One of the greatest thrills of the season came when the JV's won the ABHT tournaments. This was the second year in a row that the young Royals captured this crown. Since this was the last year for the ABHT tourneys, this title was especially important to the team.

(Below) J. V. cheerleaders, L. Jackson, B. Slaybaugh, V. Walker, C. Walker, C. Reed, and K. Pagel lead the J.V.'s through an 11-5 season.

Our Royal baseball team combined the determination of their squad and the expert aid of Coach Koski to provide an exciting and rewarding season. Their co-captains for the year were Larry Thompson and Tom Pagel. The Royals' most exciting game was their victory over arch-rival Tecumseh. It was after this game that the Huron League All-Sports Trophy was awarded to BHS. The final game of the season was exciting because of its importance. In the contest we eliminated Flat Rock from first place and gained a fourth place finish for ourselves.

Outstanding pitchers on this year's team were Larry and Denny Thompson, Terry Crist, and Jeff Brockway. The squad also found strength in the expert hitting of Tom Pagel. Two other teammates, Chuck Burgermeister and Doug Bateson, brought home honors when they were elected to the Huron League All-Star Team.

Very important to relays are good handoffs. The difference in inches that comes from good handoffs often means five big points. Here a nearly perfect handoff against Airport between D. Sbach and M. After losing the first dual meet of the season to Adrian, the BHS thinclads, led by Captain Denny Sbach, won four straight meets before losing two very close meets to Dundee and Tecumseh. The loss to Tecumseh (60-58), which was decided on the last event, dropped the Royal runners to a tie for the crown.

One of the highlights of the season was Blissfield's first place finish in the Huron League Meet in which all Huron League teams competed. BHS sprinters were a major factor in this meet as they took 17 of the 32 possible points in the two sprints. First place finishes for Blissfield were John Hall in the long jump, Chuck Cory in the two-mile run, Denny Sbach in the mile run, and Don Bohlka in the 100 yd. dash.

Four BHS runners qualified at the regional meet for state competition. They were John Hall in the long jump, Denny Sbach in the mile run, Mike Schlottow in the 440 yd. dash, and Marty Gillin in the 220 yd. dash. Sbach captured fifth place in the state meet.

At the county meet in which all county teams compete, Blissfield had two county champs. Denny Sbach won the mile run which was a new school record as well as a new county record. The mile relay, consisting of Jerome Lewis, Mike Schlottow, John Hall, and Denny Sbach, won in a time of 3:35.0, just four-tenths of a second off the school record.

Although Blissfield will lose twelve seniors through graduation, a strong crop of freshmen led by Fred Bilkey, Chuck Cory, and Jerome Lewis (all of whom lettered) will help the Royals gain respectability again next year.

Wrestling Introduced At B.H.S.

This year wrestling, directed by Merle Solowin, was added to the Blissfield High School sports lineup. Mr. Solowin pointed out that "anyone can be a good wrestler if he has the determination. Strength is not vital; it is only ten per cent of a wrestler's ability. The other ninety percent is speed and agility."

Coach Solowin, an experienced wrestler and former captain of Toledo University's wrestling team, led this year's Royal mat squad. He was an undefeated wrestler throughout his high school and collegiate careers and later became a member of the 1962-63 World Wrestling Team. Mr. Solowin views wrestling as a game of "physical chess," in which each move is planned in advance.

This year has been a learning process for the matmen, who practiced various holds of the wrestling art. The season began with a triweekly wrestling practice, during which a few of the more important holds were taught. Concentration on fine, maneuvers of the art came later in the season as skills developed.

A post-season mat exhibition, given to an evening audience, highlighted the wrestlers' polished achievements for this year. Included in the intersquad program were demonstrations of various holds and maneuvers.

The joys of life are greatest in youth,
We search for honesty, love, and truth.
But as we wake to the joys of life,
Our happiness is marred by strife.

Our fragile lives are shadowed by Death
A spirit that roams with coldest breath.
Youth and health are unprotected
From this ghastly, cold detective.

So young an age for Death to take
To the wonders of life not yet awake.
A brother to some, to others a sister;
Death took him, with cold lips kissed her.

These friends are gone, but memories remain;
Their happy souls are free from pain.
They were called in their early years;
They've now forgotten sorrow and tears.

by John LaSotta

In Memoriam

Mr. Ted Sanchez, custodian at BHS for two years, was a friend to every student.

AN ODE

Death is always hard to bear;
It always steals, it's never fair.
And when it takes so great a friend,
Love and life meet tragic end.

A friend, a father, a husband, a son,
Loved by all, disliked by none.
Wise and friendly, always smiling,
Never defeated, always trying.

His greatest love--companionship;
Wisdom guided with quiet lip.
How cruel a fate for such a man,
But Death will summon whomever it can.

A lark, a rabbit, running free
Over his grave--no sympathy.
Yet blessed are the memories
Of friend, of father, of men like these.

The Student Council, the ruling organization of our high school students, is chosen each fall by the student body. During the year, the Council sponsored the freshman mixer at the beginning, the semi-formal dance at Christmas, the Bundle Days clothing drive, and an exciting Activities Week in the spring. The Student Council also bought speakers for the cafeteria. The members participated in the Huron League Student Council Exchange Day. Council members raised money by selling popcorn and school supplies. Equipment was purchased for the football concession stands.

NHS Rates As One of Top Honors

Mrs. Boylan and J. Goetz discuss NHS program.

Membership in the National Honor Society is the highest honor a student can have bestowed upon him in high school. The members are chosen for character, service, scholarship, and leadership, and the first letter of these qualities is inscribed on the emblem. Provisional membership cannot exceed 5% of the 10th grade enrollment, 10% of the 11th grade enrollment, and 15% of the 12th grade enrollment.

The initiation of new members was held in April. Admitted to the chapter this year were Janice Hartman, Rosemary Krix, Terri McCollum, Jerry Pieh, and Diane Lamley - seniors, and Nancy Clement, Loraine Crots, Roy DeRousie, Wayne Heineman, Suzanne Klauda, Jennifer Love, and Susan Porter - juniors. Sophomores are admitted to the organization on honorary terms. They were Keith Eisenmann, Connie Frost, Linda Jackson, Laurie Sayler, Barb Slaybaugh, Janet Thompson, Jill Valentine.

"Fields of Bliss" Depicted by '67 Elysium

Members of the 1967 Elysium staff learned the difficulties and rewards of publishing a yearbook. To give The Elysium a professional touch, Pat Saylor, Bruce Bussing, and Mary Eisenmann attended a yearbook journalism workshop at Ohio University in June. After their return, the staff chose the theme "Fields of Bliss," which is the meaning of the Greek word, elysium. Frequent discussions were held concerning the color, cover style, length, photography, endsheets, and style of print of the book.

Pages were allotted to activities, curriculum, organizations, and classes. After very successful advertising and subscription drives, each page of The Elysium was designed by some member of the staff and approved by the editor. The following September, after the 430 books were published and returned, one was sent to a national yearbook critic to be judged.

Royal Jester Holds Secret Sweetie Contest

As its highlight of the year, the Royal Jester staff held the Secret Sweetie Contest which gave the student body a chance to guess the Royal Jester's sweeties, Mary Ellen Jackson and Richard Kerbawy. Mr. Evans, new this year at Blissfield, supervised the staff through a successful year.

New ideas introduced by this year's staff included student editorials and more coverage on sports. The purpose of the staff is to inform the students about the latest activities at BHS. To increase circulation has been one of the main goals of this year's staff. By dropping the price of the paper, they are now selling to 85% of the student body. The Royal Jester is also sent free of charge to forty college freshmen.

"Agriculture — Strength of America"

The officers for 1966-67 were B. Knisel, Sec.; W. Knoblauch, Pres.; A. Robertson, V. Pres.; M. Wilczynski, Sentinel; D. Neuroth, Reporter; K. Knapp, Treas.

The new school year for the Future Farmers of America really started on July 1, 1966, when the new officers started their duties. After harvesting their chapter wheat project, winners of last year's top chapter awards spent three days on a canoe trip in northern Michigan.

A few weeks after school started, Bob Bragg, Ed Judson, David Loar, Charles Mallory, and Dean Retter attended the National Future Farmer's Convention in Kansas City, along with Mr. Venema, their advisor. New members were inducted into the club in October, by the Green-hand Ceremonies.

The Blissfield chapter, which also participated in the District Leadership Contests in February, won the Public Speaking and Demonstration contests, and participated in the Farm Forum and Parliamentary Procedure contests. On regional level, Dean Retter received a silver award for public speaking and Alan Robertson and Bill Knisel received a silver award for their demonstration.

Kirk Knapp and Gary Roe were the Blissfield delegates to the state convention, and Paul Taylor received state recognition for outstanding scholarship.

Members of the Farm Forum team were D. Fritz, D. Neuroth, D. Taylor, K. Knapp, G. Roe, T. Woodward, and K. Eisenmann. They competed in District Contest.

President W. Knoblauch is honored by sitting at the speakers' table at the F. F. A. Banquet.

Blissfield High's FHA Chapter led a very busy season this year. Sue Mitchell, former Region III treasurer, attended the 1966 National Meeting in St. Louis. Jilleen Valentine and Connie Gautz captured 1967 regional offices, songleader and vice chairman, respectively, at the Region III meeting at Vandercook Lake High School.

A first for the chapter was a recreation night at Saline High, as guests of their chapter; however, the crowning highlight of the year was the awarding of our chapter advisor, Mrs. Jan Durbin, with a Michigan State Honorary FHA Membership--an award given to a select few in the state who have helped advance the goals and ideals of FHA chapters everywhere.

Various chapter activities--work on degrees, a guest speaker (who was an ex-Peace Corps volunteer to Venezuela), bulletin board displays, a program on gift-wrapping--helped round out the chapter's goals and ideals, as the BHS FHA strives "Toward New Horizons."

FNC Takes Two Field Trips

Future nurses take instructions from nursing advisor, Mrs. L. Eisenmann.

FIRST ROW: Mrs. Culhane, Advisor; D. Reed, Corresponding Sec.; C. Sinclair, Recording Sec.; M. Lindley, President; C. Crane, Vice Pres.; J. Love, Treasurer; SECOND ROW: S. Retter, S. Bragg, J. Kafer, H. Dvorsky, S. Scheurer.

The Future Nurses Club led a busy year, as it took two field trips. In May the club visited Ypsilanti State Mental Hospital, and at the end of the school year, they went on a tour of the Upjohn Pharmaceutical Company in Kalamazoo. Nursing representatives from the armed services visited the club and in December, the girls hosted their mothers to a Christmas program. As its final meeting, the future nurses had a potluck picnic.

Encouraging girls to find out what nursing as a career requires and offers is the purpose of the FNC. The club tries to interest students in personal and community health.

B. Buehrer helps students with art.

The main project of the Future Teachers Association this year has been student teaching at the elementary school. During their study halls and after school, the members helped elementary teachers with a grade of their choice.

Other activities included a trip to Siena Heights College where the group met with future teachers from the county. The meetings this year have been highlighted by talks from teachers in different grade levels. Also, the German exchange student, Mike Schlottow, gave a talk on the German school system as related to the American school system.

Latin Club Sponsors Roman Banquet

D. Sager helps D. Maloney and J. Onofrio get dressed for Roman Banquet.

The 1967 Latin Club highlighted the year by sponsoring the biannual Roman Banquet, complete with Roman dress and practice. The dress consisted of a toga, which was a cloth about 18 feet long, wrapped around the body in a complicated way. The week preceding the banquet was set aside as Latin Club Week.

Other activities during the year included Christmas caroling, all in Latin, and sponsoring a school dance. The officers of the Latin Club were Diana Maloney, pres.; Susan Brown, v. -pres.; Deanna Sager, sec.; Jilleen Valentine, treas.

Teens for Christ Club Holds Olympics

The olympics held by the Teens for Christ Club at their January meeting included a "cross country" race, modified discus and javelin throws, and a volleyball game with medals presented to the olympic winners. Other meetings included the showing of a film "Without Onions," an electric chair exhibition, a banquet with the theme, "Complete in Christ - Physical, Mental, Spiritual, Social," and a panel discussion on teenage problems of today.

Because the purpose of the club is Christian fellowship, each of their meetings includes devotions. A quiet time at the beginning of each day is given over the P.A. system by some member of the club.

The chorus, the musical vocal talent in the "fields of bliss," held their own separate concert for the first time in the history of BHS. It is composed of girls carefully selected for their musical talent. In preparation for the concerts at which they perform at Christmas and in the spring, the chorus undergoes intensive training. During their rehearsals, Miss Hostetter directs the chorus in exercises like lifts, swings, and spins to improve their voices. Members of the chorus learn to read music and to appreciate its different forms. The arrangements they sing vary from Bach to the Ray Charles Orchestra.

FIRST ROW: D. Maloney, J. Muck, K. Jacob, V. Wood, J. Grinage. SECOND ROW: J. Porter, P. Saxton, C. Dickerson, S. Seegert, D. Zimmerman.

The goal of the band this year has been new uniforms by next fall. To fulfill this the band members sold fruitcakes, held a talent show, and served at banquets. The new uniforms will total to about $7,000.

Another accomplishment of the band this year was getting straight ones at the District Band Festival. During football season, the band performed at the Tecumseh Marching Band Festival and at the home games. The band held three concerts this year--a Christmas concert, a midwinter concert, and a spring concert at which they played a variety of music.

Our Faculty Prepares Us For Tomorrow's Fields

Our faculty, the adult leaders in our "fields of bliss," have spent many years in acquiring their education. While the students spend their summers in carefree romps in woods and on beaches, our teachers attend summer school, lay out lesson plans, and travel to California, to Europe, and to Mexico to have a first hand knowledge of the world in which they teach.

Returning in the fall, they are ready to greet the new freshmen, recall the names of upper classmen, and begin the final assault on the seniors. As the year progresses, our fearless faculty answers our never ending questions, helps plan our organization meetings, spends long hours checking papers, and chaperones our parties and dances. They have a deep sense of satisfaction as the year ends even though they are glad for the summer's change. They are dedicated to the task of making us think; and although we never admit it, we appreciate them very much.

Mr. Brewer, who teaches biology, is also a loyal royal fan.

Class of '67 Becomes Tomorrow's Leaders

As the class of '67 looked back upon their senior year, they must have felt as if they had raced across their "fields of bliss." As September approached, they could hardly believe that in a short nine months they would stand, in caps and gowns, with diplomas in hand, at the threshold of their lives. Individual futures began to take shape; college, vocational schools, or jobs were the subjects of seniors' conversations. Then the class settled down for work, study, and recreation.

The seniors during their candy sale, worked harder and earned more than any class before them. Their homecoming float was the first modern art structure of its type. In a flurry of exchanges seniors traded pictures with one another to build their collections for future pleasures and memories. As they were measured for caps and gowns and as they ordered commencement invitations, the seniors looked ahead with maturity at the approaching event in their lives. With the trip and the prom drawing near, the excitement increased. The class paused to take one last, light-hearted look at its past years at class night. Commencement arrived -- as each senior received his diploma, he looked ahead with keen anticipation and some dread at leaving the "fields of bliss" that had been his home for four wonderful years.

The Elysium Staff

A Word From The Staff

The 1967 Elysium staff is proud to present this book to its readers. We have tried to portray the fields of Blissfield--the victories and the defeats, the joys and the sorrows. We hope our readers will enjoy this book.

We would like to extend our appreciation to Mr. Pete Durbin, our advisor; to Powell Studios; to Taylor Publishing Company; and to Mr. Lee Zimmerman, representative for Taylor Publishing Company.
