This is a popular pastime for many students. 7:30 a.m. The school day begins with daily attendance. Kyle Sutherland diligently hangs the attendance slip outside the door. 9:20 a.m.: After second hour, students get a ten minute mid-morning break. Some grab a quick breakfast or a snack in the cafeteria. Below right: Others head to the computer lab to check e-mail. Shown are Mike Snyder and Tony Martolock. Far below right: Many students, however, just catch up with friends in the hallway, as do Holly Poulos, Sarah Robertson, and Clair Koppelman.

This is the story of a student's day. It has the same basic schedule for everyone, but each student's day ends up a little differently. Maybe something funny happened at lunch, or an interesting story was told during mid-morning break. Whatever happens, each day stands by itself and becomes a little part of a student's high school history.

All Around The World

Social Studies 9

An introduction to economics, geography, and world affairs. Students use current events and creative exercises, such as creating a country, and maintaining its welfare.

Rhonda Raab and Betsy Schroeder study hard, looking over a crucial point of United States history: World War I.

Seniors Rachel Bradshaw and Michael Melvin spend a short VIP working on projects to benefit underclassmen in the social studies 9 class.

Psychology and Adolescent Psychology

These companion classes inform students as to how their thoughts come to be, and the reasons for which they act the ways they do.

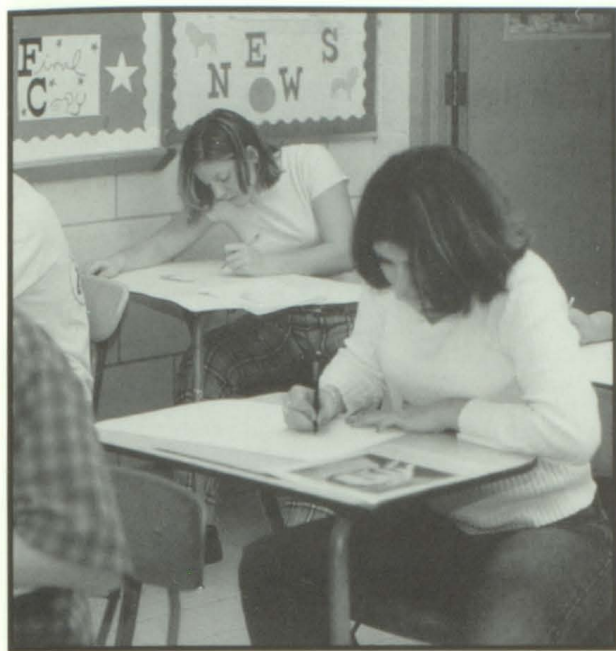

Mike Davis toils over his poster on motivation: what drives a person to either succeed or be stagnant.

Paul Phillips, confounded by the day's lesson, listens intently to Mr. Kostoff.

United States History

U.S. history studies the process under which our country was formed.

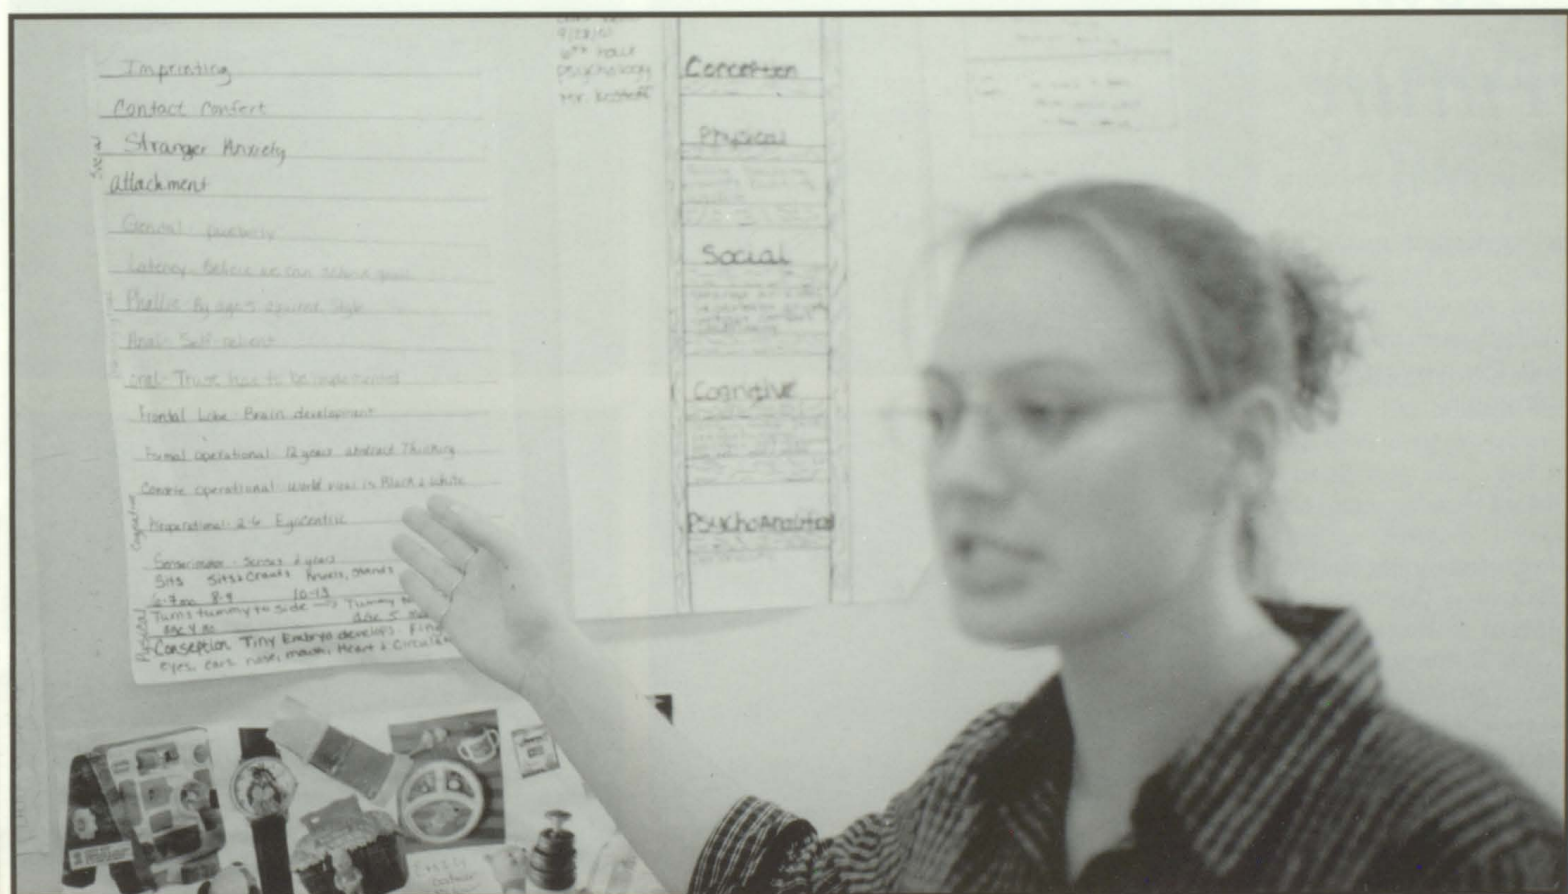

Jessica McClenath and Erica Portillo flex their artistic muscles, creating renditions of former U.S. Presidents for Ms. Walkowe's class.

Stephanie Powell and Corrie Feldkamp further their studies on World War I, for U.S. History.

Government

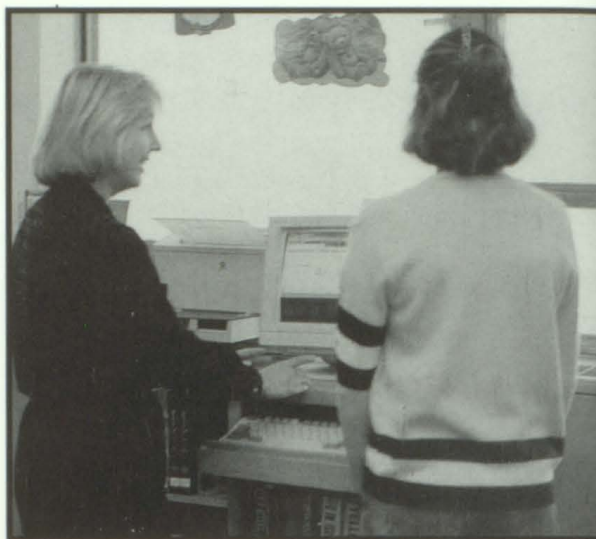

This required class teaches students the ideals of American democracy, how it was formed, and how it is upheld in every day life.

Stacy Goetz addresses the government class, presenting the different branches of the U.S. government.

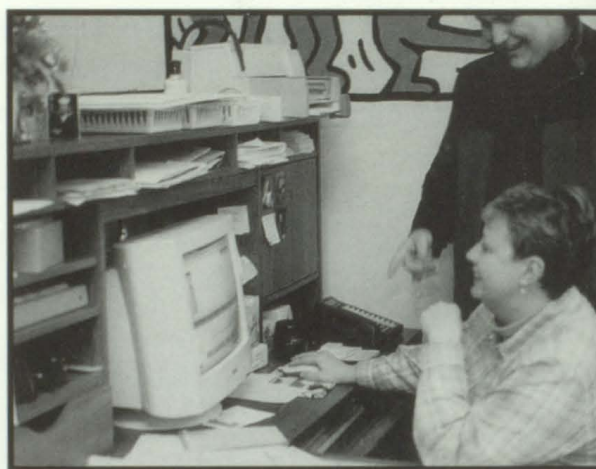

Enrich Your Mind

Business As Usual

And The Beat Goes On

From the band performing halftime shows on the football field to a winter concert from the choir and the band, the fine arts students continued to amaze us. In the spring came the Fine Arts Festival, which included a show from the band and choir. Also included were paintings, pottery, and jewelry from the art classes.

Katherine Ann,

We are so very proud of you. May you take your dreams and goals to the highest level. You can do anything. Remember Matthew 7:28 always. Just ask.

Love, Mom and Dad

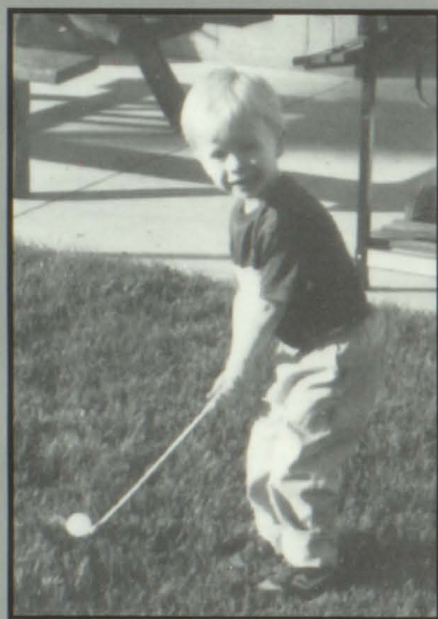

TRACY

One day you were starting to talk, then you soon began to walk. Along came grade school and junior high,

My how time continues to fly. 2002 brings the senior year, now you're grown and college is near.

Wishing you good luck in all that you do, and letting you know how proud we are of you. Congratulations Tracy,
Love

Mom and Dad

Aaron

We are so proud of you and love you very much.

*Mom, Dad,
and Bry*

Dear Chelsea,

Our baby girl is all grown up. We are proud of all you have accomplished.

To quote two favorite songs, our wishes for you:

*"To thine own self be true"
and "I hope you dance!"*

*Love always,
Mom, Dad,
Luke and Wade*

NICK

You are so special, so unique, so loved. As you begin a new chapter in your book of life, we wish you the best and want you to know we love and support you in all your endeavors.

*Love,
Dad and
Mom*

We are so proud of you and wish you much success in all you attempt to accomplish.

Remember:

"In all your ways remember Him. Then he will make your paths smooth and straight." Proverbs 3:6

Love Mom, Dad, Austin, Holly

Congratulations Stacey!

I am so proud of the lady you have become, I know you will do well in all that you pursue in the future.

*Love and God Bless,
Mom*

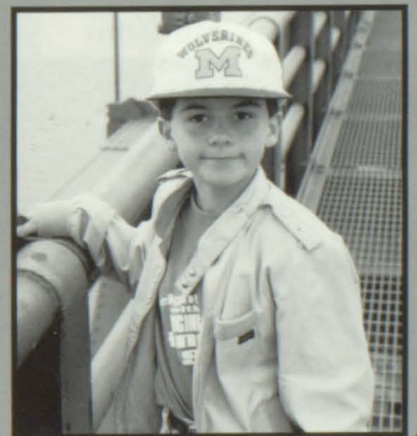

Josh Villegas

To our wonderful and loving son -

We are so proud of you and all that you have achieved. You have worked so hard and accomplished so much over the years. Remember all the fun times we had and keep the faith. May God's angels always be over your shoulder.

*We are very blessed to have you.
Love you,
Mom and Dad*

Dear Rachel,
You were our first. That alone makes you special. You have grown to be a beautiful person. You make us proud.

Respect life and what God offers.
Love and laugh as much as you can.
All our love,
Mom and Dad

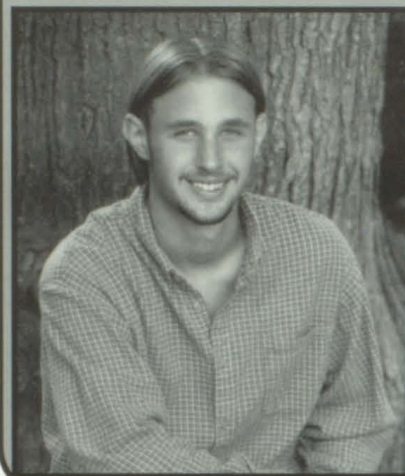

Stephanie - you have always been a very special daughter in our lives. Follow your dreams; we have always believed in you. Remember your imaginary friend; she loves you very much. Everyone in your family is very proud of you, no matter if they are here or not.
Love you very much, Mom, Ziggy, Jennifer and Edward.

I love you, congratulations and good luck.
Love Dad

Congratulations Don!

Your family is so proud of you. Your hard work and determination have paid off and helped you to become a successful man with clear direction in mind. We wish you the best life has to offer. Good luck at V.T.I. You'll do GREAT.

Your

Congratulations Jamie!
We are very proud of you.
Good luck in the future.

Love Mom & Dad,

Christina James

Just yesterday your dreams were ballerinas, catching unicorns, and Care Bears, giving fish and butterfly kisses before bedtime. Now your dreams are of college, teaching, and making the world a better place. May all your dreams come true. May the joy that you have given us throughout our live be no match for the joy you receive in yours. We couldn't be prouder of you.

Love Mom, Dave and Lynsie

and

Dad, Shannon, and Brittany

Jen and Meg

Congratulations! We are proud of you both. When you came into our lives you brought joy, laughter, and love. "Be strong and very courageous, obey all the laws Moses gave you. Do not turn from it to the right or to the left and you will be successful wherever you go."

Graduation 2002

Below: Natalie Eisenmann, along with Stephanie Powel, sings "I Will Remember You" as a tribute to the Class of 2002.

Above: Students look on as Mr. Johnson congratulates the class for their hard work and time in the classroom. Far left: Amanda Neyrinck and Shawn Borch are in awe as they realize that high school is finally over. Left: Guest speaker Kip O'Leary thanks the seniors for giving him the opportunity to speak at their graduation with a few tears on the way. Below left: Scott LaTour and Ashley Brenke give the closing speech for the Class of 2002, indicating the unique accomplishments of the class such as a high number of honor society students and athletes.

Giving back to the students. Renaissance members hand out cookies for an award.

Snowball 2002

Snowball is the all-school winter formal sponsored by Student Council and held at the end of Coming-Home Week. It is a chance for all students to enjoy a night of elegant dining and great dancing.

Prom 2002

This year the juniors, class of 2003, presented a fairy-tale night for the Junior-Senior Prom, which took place at Gladioux Meadows in Toledo. The prom king and queen were Derek Feldkamp and Cassie Todd.

BRINGING THE TRADITION HOME

Homecoming went well with new events such as class skits, which were won by the senior class. At the end of the week though, it was the junior class that won the spirit stick. Some of the dress-up days were Patriotic Day, and Opposite Sex Day.

Jennifer Eisenmann, Natalie Eisenmann, and Celia Pixley race against the other court members to find the five gummy worms in a pan of marshmallows. Far Below: Mr. Weston's VIP class shows their 9/11 spirit during Patriotic Day.

Bryan Seeburger smiles at the camera while his classmate, Josh Johns helps put tape on him to hold him up on the wall.

Coming Home week this year was filled with activities such as hall decorating, class skits & an all school assembly. Spirit Week was a close race but the junior class ended up on top.

Below: Seniors Nathanael Miles and Craig Bettis let the whole school know that "Seniors Matter" during hall decorating. Below right: Kim Sheldon and Anna Heydinger show off their p.j.'s on Monday.

The 2002 Coming Home Court: Front - Audra Leader, Ashley Brenke, Amanda Nicolai, Chelsea Vandenbusche, and Cassie Todd. Back row - Phil Westgate, Corwin Koppelman, Tyler Wyse, Jamie Rye, and Tom Pelham

Tori Weeber helps decorate the sophomore hallway dressed as cupid for Valentine's Day.

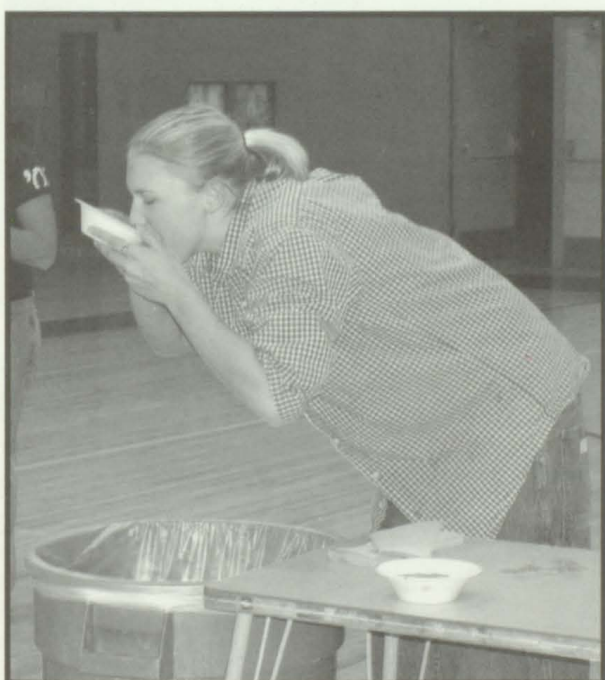

Clair Koppelman forces down a piece of burnt toast with juice on it during the assembly.

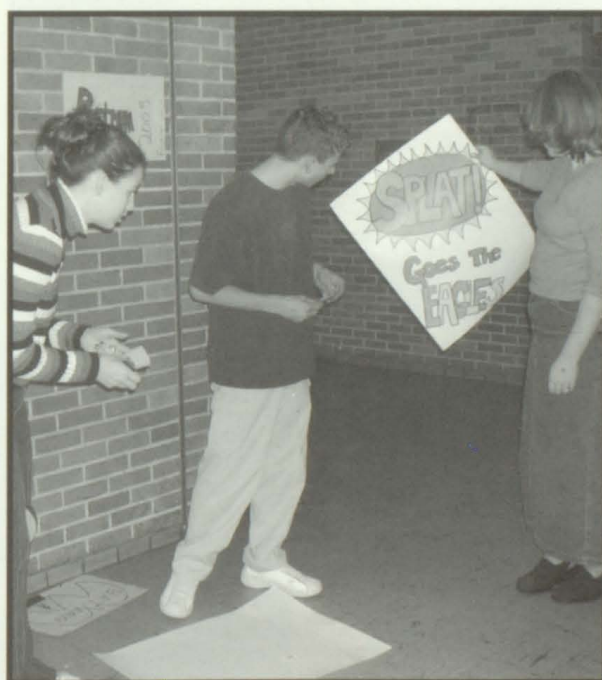

Lance Eisenmann, Laura Walters, Michelle Ahleman, Cassidy Brubaker, Kristy Kudlac, and Holly Poulos watch as their fellow junior classmates, Charis Mitchell and Renee Smith, decorate a sign to put up in their hallway, which they won first place.

Erica Demey drinks the last bit of milk from her cereal.

Jamie Duckele, Nathan Raburn and Erica Wehner hang up posters for the freshmen hallway.

Don Paxton gulps down a mystery drink to win the obstacle course for the seniors.

Spirit on the Streets...

COMING HOME

The annual Coming Home "Parade" features decorated wagons pulled around the gymnasium at halftime of the basketball game. This year's theme was "Superheroes." Top right: Tory Weeber and Holly Monahan pull the sophomore wagon inspired by Spider-Man. Middle left: "Michaelangelo" Johnny Seiser greets the crowd alongside Kristy Kudlac and the juniors' Ninja Turtles wagon. Bottom left: Members of the Coming Home court also rode through the gym in style. Candidate Amanda Nicolai is pulled by her "Luau Girls." Bottom middle: King candidate Tom Pelham relaxes on his Royal "throne." Bottom right: Who is that masked man posing as king candidate Corwin Koppelman?

Lights, Camera, Action!

You Can't Take It With You was funny and wacky. The Sycamore family might look crazy to everyone else, but not to themselves. Each family member is free to do what he or she wanted. Penelope loves to write plays and paint while her husband, Paul, loves to work in the basement on fireworks with Mr. Depinna, who the Sycamores invited to live with them. The Sycamore's daughter, Essie has her dancing, Ed has his music and printing, and Grandpa loves to attend commencements. When the Sycamore's other daughter, Alice, becomes engaged to the wealthy Tony Kirby, his parents are not too happy. The Sycamore family kept the audience laughing by doing exactly what each of them wanted to do, be happy.

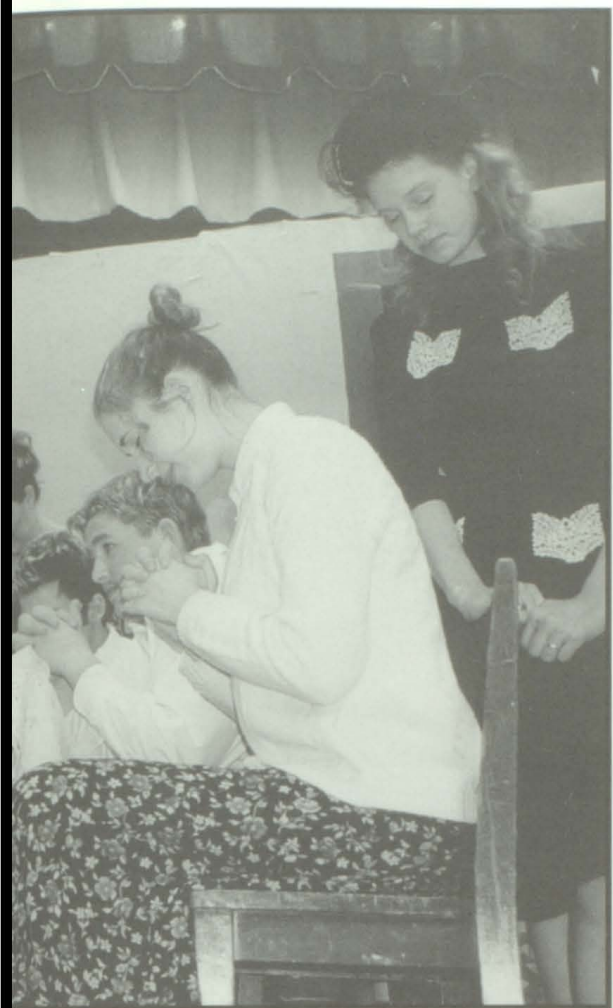

Far Above: Nathanael Miles, who plays a Russian ballet teacher called Kolenkov, tells a story about a friend of his who died from an ulcer when the Kirby's come for dinner. Immediately Above: Mrs. Kirby, played by Meghan Thompson, gets offended when Penelope Sycamore, played by Ashley Brenke, says that her hobby, spritualism, is silly.

Above Left: Alice uses the phone to call a cab to take her far away after finding out the Kirby's won't let her marry their son, Tony. Above Right: Olga Katrina, Russian royalty, enters the room gracefully and amazes the simple Sycamores.

Lucas Monahan, who plays a milkman named Mr. DePinna, dresses in a toga so that Mrs. Sycamore can finish the painting of him she started eight years ago and never finished.

While Penelope paints, Essie, who strives to be a ballerina, dances to the instructions of Mr. Kolenkov and the music of her husband, Ed.

Above: Grandpa watches as Tony Kirby tells his father he is a workaholic, while his fiancée, Alice, listens in disbelief.

Left: The two servants, Rheba and Donald, read from the newspaper that the Sycamores and the Kirbys were arrested the other night for setting off fireworks without a permit to use them.

An Opening for a Princess!

"Once Upon a Mattress" is a musical retelling of the story of the Princess and the Pea... with a twist. No one in the kingdom can marry until the Prince first weds, but the opinionated Queen makes that impossible. Along comes a Princess from the swamps who everyone is counting on, but can she pass the Queen's test for sensitivity?

A Tradition of Excellence

Six State Championships 2002

Blissfield's Larry Tuttle receives National Coach of the Year award.

Many had thought that there was little else that Larry Tuttle could achieve. But in the tradition of excellence, Larry Tuttle was named the National Coach of the Year by the National High School Athletic Coaches Association at a banquet in Connecticut. Currently, Coach Tuttle has a career record of 808-235-2 over his 35 years as coach. He is the second winningest coach in state history. Things could not look any brighter for the future of Blissfield baseball.

Tuttle is a common name among Major League coaches and scouts throughout the country. Many coaches, such as Brad Fischer (above) expect nothing but perfection from Blissfield baseball players.
