In Loving Memory of Matt Mutter

Emily,

I remember the little girl who told me imaginative stories, sang songs boldly into a broomstick and denied me the joy of putting ribbons in her bed head hair.

Today, you amaze me still. It is your conviction, strength and reverie that will continue to guide you steadily and consistently throughout your life.

Love, Mom

Always do right. This will gratify some people and astonish the rest.

-Mark Twain

Brad,

I could not have asked for a better son. You have filled our lives with wonderful memories. I've watched you grow, and I am so proud of who you've become.

Love,
Mom & Rhonda

Joseph James Ohrman

You are such a great son.
We are so proud of the individual you have become.
May your strength of character and moral convictions continue to guide you through life's trials and tribulations.

Love, Mom, Dad and Patrick

Congratulations, Sara Jo!

We're so proud of you and all that you have become. Great things lay ahead of you and we know you will be successful in whatever you put your mind to. You are a caring, smart, pretty young woman and we look forward to your future. Love, Mom, Bubba and Jamie

Ryann James Eff

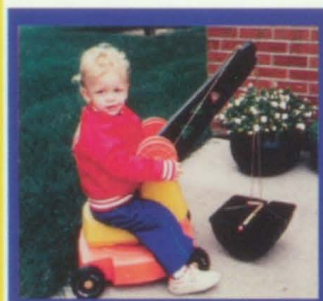

You are the sunshine of our lives. Congratulations on your many, many accomplishments these past four years.

We look forward to watching as you grow as a man, moving on in life, making your own distinctive mark on this world. We are so very, very proud of you Ry!

All our love,
Your Family

Zac Gallo

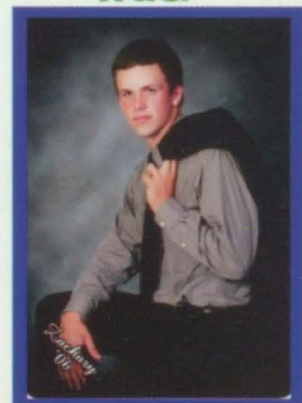

What fun it has been watching you grow from a boy to a fine young man. We know that you will excel in whatever you put your mind to. So go out and make your dreams come true.

We are very proud of you, and support you in everything you do.

Congratulations!

Love,
Mom, Dad, and Joe

Congratulations Aimee

You have come a long way baby!
We are so proud of you!

Love,
Mom, Gary, Kellie and Lindsey

Congratulations Lori!

We are so proud of you! May God bless you as you begin a new chapter in your life!

Love,
Dad, Mom, Chad, and Erik

CONGRATULATIONS JENNIFER!

YOU WERE ONCE SO TINY AND IN THE YEARS YOU HAVE BECOME A BEAUTIFUL
YOUNG LADY. WE ARE SO PROUD OF YOU.
MAY ALL YOUR DREAMS COME TRUE AND
KEEP YOUR FAITH. GOD BLESS YOU.
WE LOVE YOU VERY MUCH.

MOM, ZIGGY, STEPHANIE, & EDWARD

We're Proud of You Kyle!!!

Go confidently in the direction of your dreams.
Live the life you have imagined.
-Henry David Thoreau

Love,
Mom, Dad and Corey

From 1st grade to 12th grade, through all the struggles that life threw your way, inside and outside of school you stayed strong and did your best. For that I am very proud of you.

Now it's off to college and I am sure what ever life throws your way during this time you will be even stronger and succeed.

I love you and I am so proud of you
Jennifer Sue, you are my lifeline.

XOXOXO

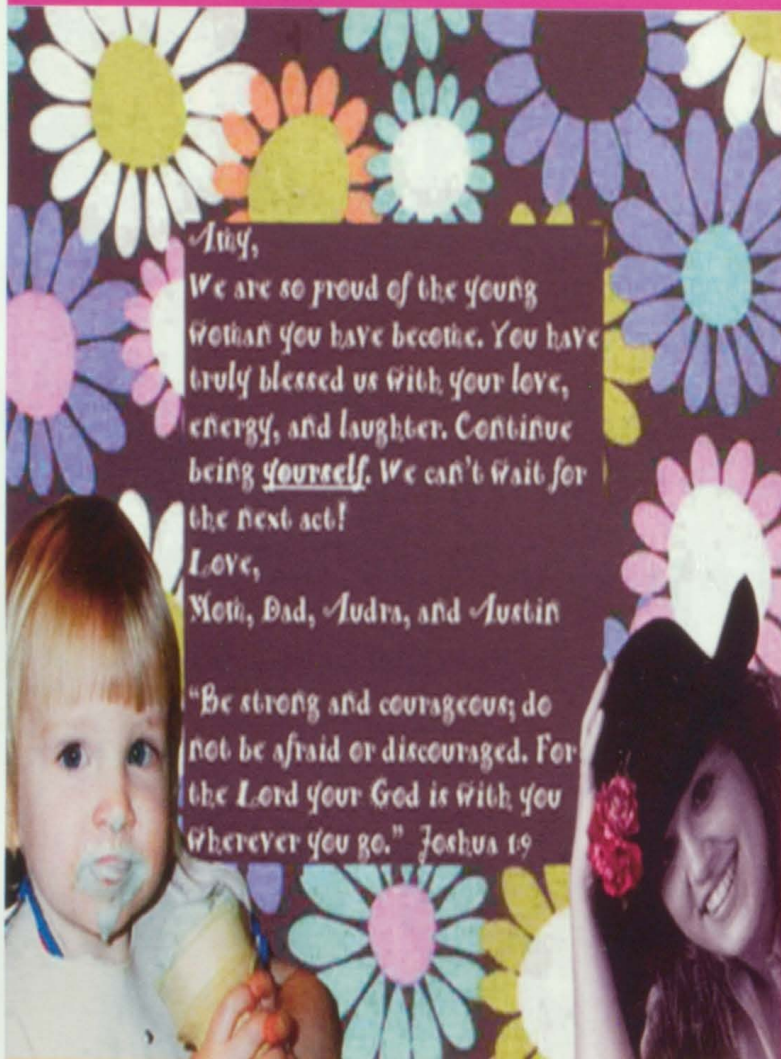

MOM

Ryan,

I am so proud of you! You've come so far in life, and you continue to move on with the courage and motivation that so many of us lack. Always remember to keep your chin up and be proud of who you are. If you work hard, it will eventually pay off. Have fun in college, and don't party all the time! One more thing, though you are grown up, you will always be my little boy.

*I Love You,
Mom*

*Any,
We are so proud of the young woman you have become. You have truly blessed us with your love, energy, and laughter. Continue being yourself. We can't wait for the next act!*

*Love,
Mom, Dad, Audra, and Austin*

Angela,

It seems as though it was just a moment ago you were ours to hold. As we watch you grow, we pray that God will fill your heart with dreams, And your faith gives you the courage to dare to do great things. Reach for the sky. It's not living if you don't reach for the sky.

We love you,
Dad, Mom, and Elisa

JAY

We are so very proud of you. You are an awesome son and brother. It's hard to believe this chapter of your life is finished-- time goes by way too fast.

Remember to always run a good, strong race. Follow your heart. God will guide you.

Congratulations Amanda

We're very proud of you. Good luck in all that you do.

We love you,
Mom, Dad, Nick, Robyn

American Ambassador Soars the Seas

"Call Me Madam"

Join Sally Adams, the American Ambassador to Lichtenburg battle politics despite her lack of political knowledge while she woos the Prime Minister and win the hearts of all

Chorus members, Tasha Rafer and Josh Villegas do the tango and enjoy their time at one of Sally's wonderful parties

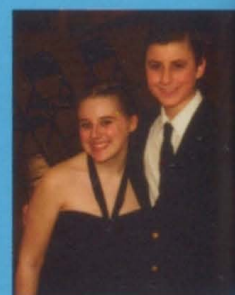

Mrs. Sally Adams talks to her close friend, the U.S. President, Harry Truman about the relations with Lichtenburg. Silly Sally doesn't even know where Lichtenburg is at Featuring catchy music, spiegy dances, and a charming plotline, "Call Me Madam" is an Irving Berlin classic that is sure to thrill young and old alike!

Princess Maria sits and ponders over her love, Kenneth Gibbens in hopes he will return to her so they can live a happy life together.

Chorus members Brianna Porter and Michael Shoemaker take a minute to warm up before the performance.

Left: Princess Maria and Kenneth are madly falling in love with each other, although it is hard for them to be seen outside the palace.

Kyle Smith sings a tender song, "Once Upon a Time Today" to his love, Princess Maria in hopes she will return his love.

Sally Adams and Princess Maria LOVE the spotlight and they are never afraid to be goofy for the camera either.

All the hard work and dedication of the students definitely payed off when 600 people filled the seats throughout the weekend.

Monica Valdez sings a sweet little melody in the chorus about how great of a country Lichtenburg really is.

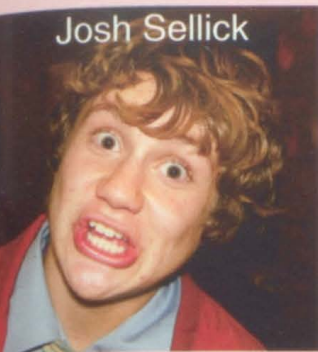

Levi Warren jokes around with a water bottle during a performance. It is very important to keep a wet whistle during the musical.

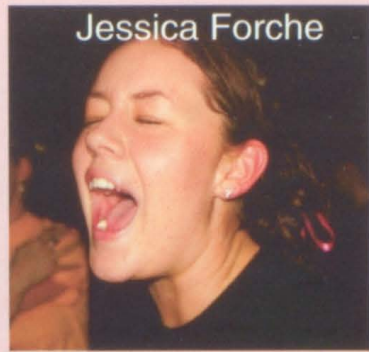

Above: Senior girls get pumped before the big game. Below Left: Crazy kids Austin Leader, Kara Priellip, and Emily Webster show true wacky spirit. Below Left: Two little cupcakes cozy up close during spirit week. Below Right: Dustin Gardner finds himself playing jack-in-the-box at the pep assembly. Leonie Beiseman stops to flash a smile.

This year's homecoming was certainly an event to be remembered! The theme was "Appliances". Many BHS staff and students participated, but the Seniors dominated all week and won the Spirit Stick. Hoorah! Seniors also prevailed, yet again, at the annual Powderpuff Football Game on Wednesday night. All of the floats were spectacular, but the Junior's float was voted the best. Following an exciting pep assembly in the gymnasium, the student body anticipated Friday night's parade, the game against Clinton, and the announcement of the King and Queen: Ryann Eff and Amy Leader. The amazing Royals defeated the Redskins! A superb dance in celebration for the weeks activities followed in the cafeteria where kids got their grooves on in a school appropriate way!

Coming Home

Once upon a time, a grand event took place at Blissfield High School. Coming Home 2006 proved to be a spectacular event, filled with school spirit, a basketball battle between Blissfield & Onstead, and the legendary competition for Coming Home King & Queen.

Snowball 2006

This year the annual Snowball dance was highly anticipated and patiently waited for. The original date was scheduled for February fourth, but due to weather, was delayed and rescheduled for March fourth. People started showing up around 6:15 looking dashing, and glamorous. Dinner this year was provided by 'Catering by Liz' and the D.J. was First U.B. youth pastor Jamie Nixon. Matt Lusk, and Jessica Carpenter were crowned king and queen of Coming Home.

April 29, 2006 proved to be a night of splendor as the students of Blissfield High School danced the night away in an enchanted rose garden. The night was not over until William Faulkner and Cari Hernandez were crowned as Prom King and Queen at the magical event.

GUYS SOCCER

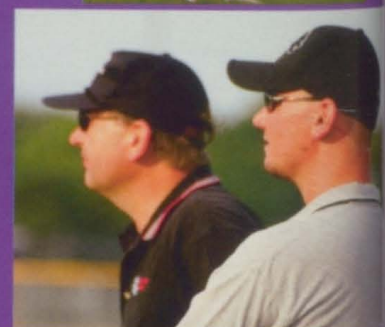

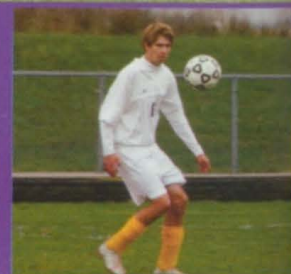

FALL 2005

The guy's soccer team was fortunate enough to play on the new field this year. The team was lead by senior captians Andy Kozak and Stephen Parrish, and did a great job defending the home turf. There were many new faces on the bench. The team had to work hard to teach the underclassmen the fundamentals of the game and work as a team to play tough. Great job!

The team is pumped to take the field, but circle up for some encouragement from the coaches.

SASSY SIDELINE CHEERLEADERS

The girl's sideline cheer team was filled with many new faces. The team consisted of mostly under classmen and only three upper classmen. Despite the inexperience of the team, the squad showed consistent talent and unity through their stunts and cheers. The senior leaders this season were Lacey Lake, Kelsey Gray, and Ashley Fowler.

Stephanie Stetton and Andrea Ellison work hard to get the crowd pumped up.

GIRLS BASKETBALL

The varsity team finished with a district title and the most wins by a girls basketball team since 1990. Captains Molly Schroeder and Ashley Albright both finished 2nd team all league despite Molly's ankle injury in the 9th game of the season. The varsity team had five other seniors along with the captains, Aly Marchal, Emily Harrigan, Jessica Forche, Kayla Cooper and Lesley Bates.

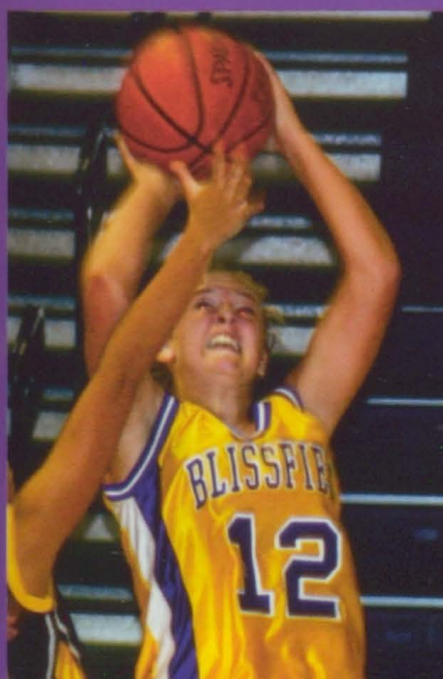

Coach Brink returned to coach the girls' varsity basketball team. He led the team to a victorious 15-5 season.

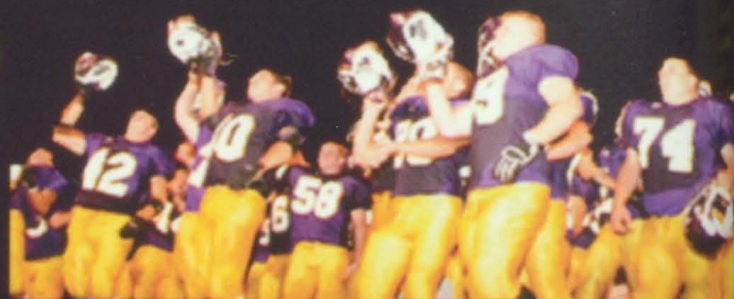

The Junior Varsity team had a perfect 20-0 season. Carrie Koppelman, Danielle Goetz and Kristen Gniewkowski all moved up to contribute in the varsity district and regional games. The JV team was coached by Ron Schmidt.

A.R.T.

The 2005 football team set new standards for success. The Royals won thier first LCAA title since 1977. Their 10 wins matched the most wins in a season tying the 1926 squad. On offense, Blissfield rushed for 2,837 yards, leading the county. They also had the county's leading defense, surrendering only 129 points in eleven games. The royals did not give up a point in the third quarter all year! The team was rewarded with serveral all-league & all county players. Great Job Royals!

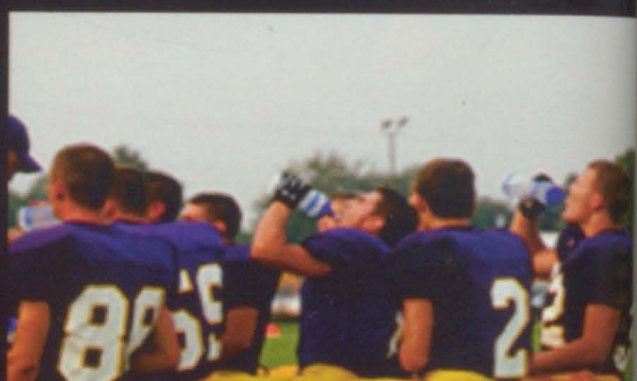

The Royal boys sing thier fight song. They rewarded the crowd as they raise thier helmets over the defeat of thier opponents.

Boys Cross Country

The 2005 boys cross country team was one of the best that the school has had in years. Billi Neri and Jay Yockey led the way, being front runners in every race, while Paul Douge and Jacque Pruitt held strong as middle pack runners. Brock Koppleman and Austin Leader. The guys team placed 3rd in the league, and 6th at the regional meet. Billi Neri, and Jay Yockey both earned county, and league honors, and qualified for the state meet as well.

Girls Cross Country

After a ten year reign in the LCAA, the girls cross country legacy came to an end. However, the team did managed to place third in the league championships. They were very competitive at every invitational, and jamboree meet they ran at. Stephanie Holdridge and Arlee Coaklee earned all league honors. While Stephanie Holdridge, earned county honros and a trip to the State Final Meet this year at MIS.

Competitive Cheer '06

The 2006 Competitive Cheer Squad fired up their spirit for the winter season. With the majority of the team as underclassmen, the ladies pushed for their highest honor yet. The young women placed third at the Ida Invitational, an accomplishment that they have earned wholeheartedly. They worked hard to improve their scores throughout the season, but most of all the girls learned to have fun and be part of a team.

This season proved to be a highly competitive one, as the guys track team had much depth this year with talented athletes in every event. In the LCAA, Jay Yockey in the 800 meter run, and the 400 meter relay team of Johnny Waldvogel, Jacque Pruitt, Brad Strang, and Brad Raab won first team honors. The 3200 meter relay team of Jordan Marks, Ryan Forche, Billy Neri, and Jay Yockey earned a trip to the state meet this year by placing 2nd at the regional meet. Jay also won the 800 at the regional meet, earning a trip to the state meet as well.

Jordan Marks has a perfect hand off with Ryan Forche in the 3200 meter.

Girls Track

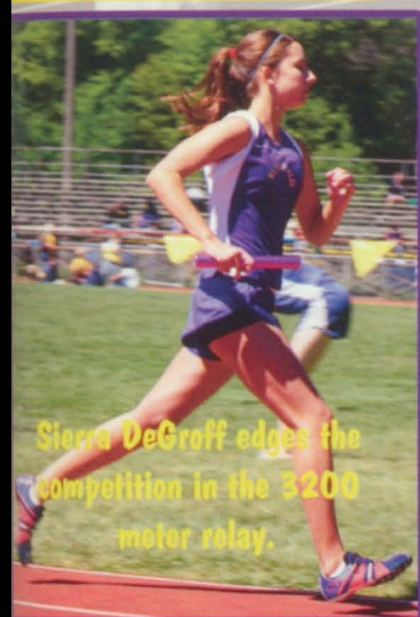

This year the girls track team was just as competitive as in years, however they were unable to pull off yet another LCAA championship. They did however manage to send a few athletes to the state meet. The 400 meter relay team of Danielle Goetz, Aly Marchal, Mikeal Labrunda, and Elizabeth Pooley earned a trip to the meet. Mikeal Labrunda also qualified for the state meet in the pole vault, and claimed the LCAA champion title as well, along with the 400, and 800 meter relay teams.
