The Class of 2007

April Lynne Morrison

Congratulations Punkerdoodle on completing the first of many milestones you will conquer throughout your blessed lifetime!!! You have grown from a cute, curious, and happy child, to a beautiful, bright, and talented young woman. Your outgoing personality and sense of humor will open many doors for you. Your intelligence and common sense will make people behind those doors very happy you've arrived.

Wishing you the world!

Love,
Mom, Dad, and Maggie

Good Luck Alex!
Keep your sense of humor as you conquer life's challenges and pursue life's rewards.

Light tomorrow with today.

Richard...
When you were just a bundle, all snuggly, soft and warm, we knew a brand new love as we held you in our arms. You are up and running from your first step as a tot, then off to school, but every day we held you in our thoughts.

Soon, you had your own life - your friends and fun and cares. We worried, watched and waited up and held you in our prayers. Though you're grown up now, we'll never grow apart - whatever you do, wherever you go, we'll hold you in our hearts.

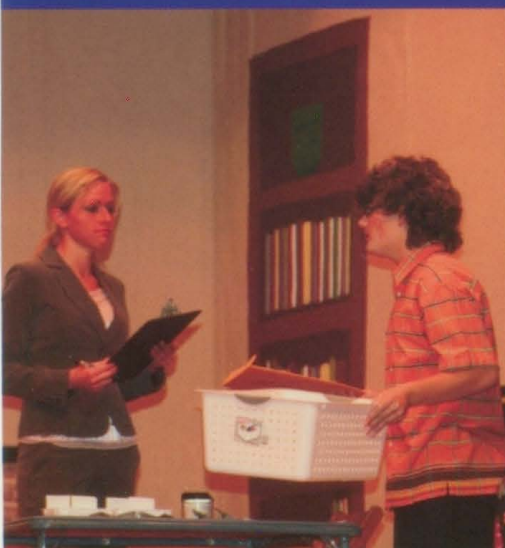

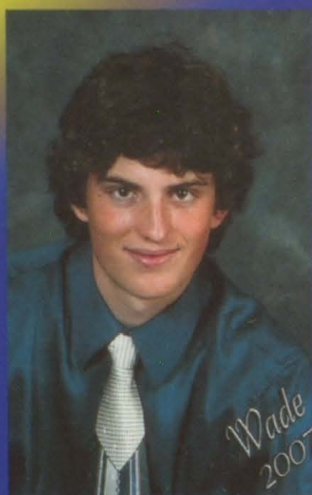

May this be a daily reminder of the special place you hold in our hearts, Richard. We are so very proud of you and always will be!

Love, Mom and Dad

For the remainder of the games the JV B team was combined with the JV A team for a team with depth and talent.

This year the Junior Varsity squad was so large that often times the team would split up into two squads. This was helpful so that the boys would get more playing time.

The 2006-2007 Junior Varsity Basketball team dedicated themselves to playing hard together. Defense and rebounding were two areas that were strengths this year. For the season, our opponents were held to an average of 49 points per game. We also out-rebounded our opponents by 291 points for the season. These two areas require hard work, determination and heart, and this team showed all three.

The 2006-2007 season was great - we finished second in the league. What made it so special was the players. Their competitiveness and hardworking, relentless effort is what made the team a success. The best game we played was against Onsted in a 71-69 loss. The kids showed great character, and passion for the game of basketball.
