This is the old school that was located on the corner of Giles and Cherry where the Blissfield State Bank now stands.

50 Years of BHS

Builders of B.H.S.

Superintendent- Floyd J. Strayer

Architects- Warren Holmes Company

General Contractor- Fred W. Entenman, Inc.

Mechanical Contractor- WM. P. McDonald, Inc.

Electrical Contractor- Piedmonte Electric Company

This is a picture of the school under construction from the west side view.

Prior to 1958, the district was served by a series of smaller rural schools. The initial nickname for the school district was the Blissfield Sugar Boys. This name referred to the large sugar beet production in the area. When the current high school opened in the fall of 1958, the name was changed to the Blissfield Royals. Burdett Peebles was the first principal of the new school.

Dinner... and a Murder!

This year, the Fall play brought a new type of entertainment: Dinner Theater! Two one-act plays were performed with two separate casts. This allowed more thespians to be involved than ever before. Both productions were centered around murder, mystery, and mayhem.

"Cafe Murder", the first play, involved a cast of crazy sisters and their adventures. The second play, "The Fourth Wall", was not only a murder mystery, but also a play within a play. Overall the performances were stupendous and welcomed over 400 guests!

"Rosemary," Alicia Sampson, is chastised by "Maitre D'," Kylee Baney, for being a brat... in the play, of course.

"Valerie," Nicole Corriveau, orders pizza after a deadly delay in her meal.

"Maid," Carrie Glauner, and "Hostess," Emily Scholl, await "Death's" entrance.

"Dead Person," Sam Birkenkamp, and "Host," Austin Leader, listen to "Death's" sob story, keeping both eyes on her scythe.

"Detective Harris," Sidney Buchanan, sniffs out the murderer.

"Stage Manager," Taylor Charlefour, asks a rude Katie Kimmelman to be seated.

"Melanie," Makenzy Speiser, thinks carefully about her answer... it is her life on the line.

"Dead Person" shrinks away from "Death's" threatening instrument of murder.

"Marjorie," Natalie Berry, answers questions from audience members as they investigate Rosemary's murder.

Carrie Glauner : "I believe in god, only I spell it Nature."
-- Frank Lloyd Wright

Anthony Smith : "Life without God is like not living at all." -- William Shakespeare

Paul Liewert: "The church says the Earth is flat, but I know that it is round, for I have seen the shadow of the moon, and I have more faith in a shadow than in the church." -- Magellan

Once Upon A Mattress...

The all-school musical, "Once Upon a Mattress," is the retelling of the classic fairy-tale, "The Princess and the Pea," in which a pea is placed beneath a mattress in order to test a princess's sensitivity. However, in the musical version, the princess is a loud, boisterous girl, and there isn't just one mattress, but twenty! The outcome was a riotous comedy with large musical numbers, crazy parties, and even moat-swimming! As with the play, there were two completely separate casts, an upper and underclassmen cast. Each cast performed two times, and every show was nearly sold out!

"Queen Aggravain," Courtney Bausman, lulls Underclassmen Lead "Winnifred," Emily Scholl to sleep.

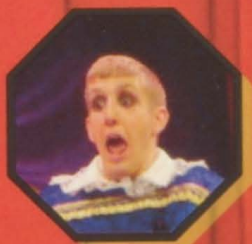

The Upperclassmen ensemble cast listens to "Harry," Aaron Butts, read Princess Winnifred's royal qualifications.

Sam Birkenkamp, Emily Wolfe, Jimmy Stump, and Nicole Corriveau playing as the Minstrel, Jester, King, and Larken sing about the beautiful land of "Normandy."

"Winnifred," Emily Pooley, councils "Larken," Grace Renwand, in the ways a true lady... unsuccessfully.

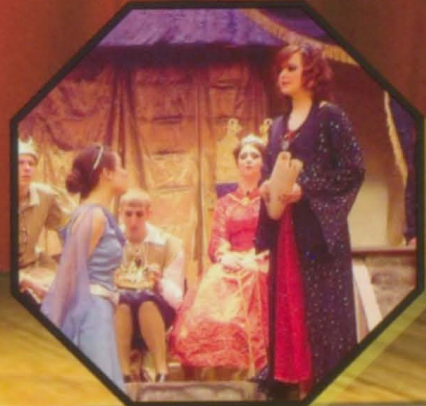

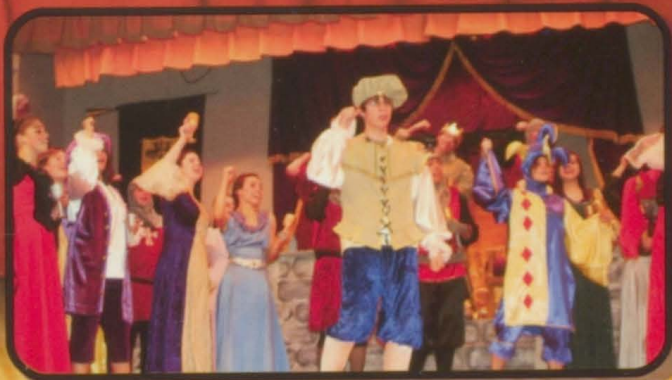

"Dauntless," Austin Leader, gets shocked by "Winnifred" and her tact.

The Underclassmen ensemble featuring "Prince Dauntless," Zachary Miller celebrate the wacky ways of "Princess Winnifred" or "Fred."

"Princess #12," Alex Buchanen, nervously awaits the test from cunning "Wizard," Kylee Baney, and evil "Queen Aggravain," Carrie Glauner.

Katie Kimmelman casts a spell on the Underclassmen cast as she plays the "Wizard."

Emily Miller : "Be honest and truthful to yourself. Don't let others get you down."

Mrs. Freshcorn : "May you always have courage to take a chance and never find frogs in your underpants."

Sam Birkenkamp : "It's a dangerous business Frodo, going out your door. You step onto the road, and if you don't keep your feet, theres no knowing where you might be swept off to."
-- Bilbo Baggins

The Blissfield Royals 2008 Varsity Football Team had another successful season. They finished the regular season with one loss to the Onsted Wildcats. For the second year in a row the Royals clinched home field throughout the playoffs. The Royals raced passed their first opponent in a 35-7 victory over the Clinton Redskins. In the district final game, the Royals were up against 7-2 Manchester. Many times in the game the Royals had opportunities to take control and they fell short. In the game they received a great performance by Cody Spotts the second-string quarterback because Eric Schmidt had come down with appendicitis the previous day. The senior class amassed a career record of 22-3 and were state finalists the year before. Next year the team looks strong and is hoping for another Royal playoff run.

Cole,

I can't believe this part of your life is over!
The time has gone by so fast, and you have grown to be such a wonderful young man.

I feel you have an old soul and a caring heart!
You are wise beyond your years, and have taken on so many responsibilities at such a young age.

You have been my anchor and support in so many difficult situations, and have been such an easy child to raise.
I enjoy your funny personality, your crazy friends,
all the cars in the driveway, and your music that fills the house.

I am proud to be your mom and very proud of you!
Whatever you choose to do in life, I know you will do it well.

Good luck as you start the next chapter of your life at U.T.
I love you very, very much and will always have your back!

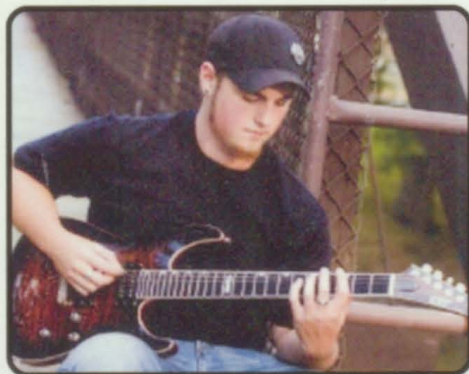

Congratulations Bubba-son!

Class of 2009!

Our Son, Anthony...

When you were just a bundle all snugly soft and warm,
We knew a brand new love as we held you in our arms.
You were up and running from your first step as a tot, then off to school, but every day we held you in our thoughts.
Soon you had your own life--your friends and fun and cares.
We worried, watched and waited up and held you in our prayers. Though you're all grown up now, we'll never grow apart--whatever you do, wherever you go, we'll hold you in our hearts

You will always hold a very special place in our hearts,
Anthony! We are so proud of you! You finally did it!
Congratulations!

Spencer Snyder

Spence,

Where did the time go? You seemed little forever,
then all of a sudden, you are all grown up!

Do you know how much we enjoy having our very own comedian living with us? You have made us laugh for 18 years!!

Thanks for making being parents fun, and being such a joy of a child to raise!

You have always been one to think before you act, to lead rather than follow. Your friends are very important to you, and you have built relationships with them, to last a lifetime.

You are mature beyond your years, in the way that you think and act.

Spencer, you have made your father and I very proud to be your parents!

We know that what you choose to do in life, you will do it well.

Your wit and sense-of-humor is something everyone knows you by.

Take your life and career serious, but be happy in whatever you do,
and continue to make people laugh!

Love, Mom and Dad

Congratulations Spencer!

Congratulations Margaret!

As a child you experienced challenges most adults never will, and you persevered with patience and grace. You are quiet, thoughtful and intuitive, with a sense of humor and quick wit that is unique. You will change the world and we all will be better for it. We thank God for you everyday. You are a true miracle.

Love, Mom Dad and April

Sierra,
CONGRATUALTIONS

On all you have accomplished in class and in Track and Cross Country. Good luck in your future endeavors. Study Hard!

Seek truth, knowledge and justice
Reject dogma, superstition and blind faith
Keep an open mind and always try to Fight for what is right.

"Our task must be...
widening our circle of compassion to embrace all living creatures and the whole of nature in its beauty."~

Albert Einstein

The first part of the paper discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. This is particularly crucial for businesses that operate in highly regulated industries, where even a small error can lead to significant legal and financial consequences. The author emphasizes the need for a robust system of internal controls to ensure the integrity of the financial data.

In the second section, the author explores the various methods used to collect and analyze financial data. This includes a detailed examination of the different types of financial statements, such as the balance sheet, income statement, and cash flow statement. The author also discusses the importance of understanding the underlying business operations and how they impact the financial results.

The third part of the paper focuses on the role of the auditor in ensuring the accuracy and reliability of the financial statements. The author discusses the different types of audits, including the external audit and the internal audit, and the importance of maintaining a high level of independence and objectivity. The author also discusses the various challenges that auditors face in their work, such as the complexity of the business operations and the pressure to complete the audit on time.

Finally, the author discusses the importance of transparency and disclosure in financial reporting. This includes a detailed examination of the various disclosure requirements, such as the disclosure of related party transactions and the disclosure of significant accounting policies. The author emphasizes the need for companies to provide clear and concise information to their investors and other stakeholders, and to avoid any misleading or deceptive practices.
