

Charlton Public Library Newsletter

Special Hours

Wednesday, April 16: Open from 10:30 am - 5 pm

Monday, April 21: Closed in observance of Patriots' Day

Friends of the Library

April showers may bring May flowers, but the Friends may also play a role in your bountiful and colorful garden this summer. Stop by the Library and check out the variety of vegetable, flower, and herb seeds, courtesy of the Friends of Charlton Public Library.

Southwick's Zoo Tickets

The Friends have Southwick's Zoo tickets available for sale for $25. (a savings of $5. off adult admission). Tickets can be purchased with cash, Venmo, PayPal, or check payable to the Friends of the Charlton Public Library while supplies last at the main circulation desk.

Yarn Sale

Saturday, March 29 from 10 am - 2 pm

Friends of Charlton Public Library will hold a yarn sale with lots of yarn, notions, and patterns, on Saturday, March 29, from 10:00-2:00 in Dexter Hall. Knitters and crafters, feed your obsession and help support Charlton Public Library at the same time! Proceeds go to support Library programming such as Summer Reading, Genealogy & History Programs, 1,000 Books Before Kindergarten, Museum Passes, and more!

Thanks for your support!

Front Lobby Art Exhibit

This month our art gallery features the work of Nayari Veras.

Spring Foraging

Thursday, April 3 at 6 pm

Join The 3 Foragers as they discuss the edible plants and fungi of spring, with their original photos and recipe ideas featured in an educational slideshow.

As the warmer temperatures and longer days of spring unfold, many tender, young edible shoots, plants, flowers, and even a few fungi awaken a forager's senses and delight. Learn how to identify, sustainably harvest, and prepare the wild foods of spring, from invasive bamboo shoots to the lemony tang of fresh wood sorrel, including some of the early edible fungi of the season. Registration is appreciated.
