Message From Our Library Manager

Hello and please allow me to introduce myself. My name is Ryan Bigelow and I am your new Library Manager. My family and I look forward to this new and unique opportunity. I had the pleasure of working with the previous manager, Vanessa Ward, for three weeks of intensive on-the-job training. I must thank Vanessa for taking the time to mentor me and leaving the library in a great position.

I am not new to the City of Cottonwood, as I have spent the last 10 years in the Parks and Recreation Department. Though my commute has not changed, my roles and responsibilities as the new manager certainly have. I have been extremely excited, though at times overwhelmed, with learning my new role and the endless opportunities that come with it.

To this point, I have been learning the basic functions of the library system and explored the various ways a library can be utilized in 2018. It excites me to think about what the future of the Cottonwood Public Library has in store. The staff is extremely supportive and continue to show patience as I learn this new role. I have been fortunate enough to utilize each of them as they have tremendous knowledge of our library.

Working with the City of Cottonwood Library Advisory Board and the Cottonwood Bookmarks has been a true pleasure. Both of these groups work extremely hard to further our library and we couldn't be where we are now without them. I look forward to our continued work together to solve the library's most complicated issues and to set the vision for what the library will be in the future.

Without a doubt, the most important people at the library are the volunteers. One of my first observations was the library is constantly in motion, and it is the work of the volunteers who provide the heartbeat for the library to function. Our volunteers are remarkably dedicated to their community and support of the library.

In final, with the backing of the Cottonwood Library Advisory Board, we will be working on a strategic plan so that the library can continue to meet the needs of our community. We look forward to getting feedback from everyone in the community and particularly our patrons. That being said, I would like to invite you to a "Meet the Manager" meet and greet on Wednesday, April 11 at 10:00 a.m. or 4:00 p.m. I would personally love to meet each and every one of you and hear your ideas on how the library can continue to support your needs.

Thank you all for this tremendous opportunity as I look forward to learning my role and meeting the people we serve.

Ryan Bigelow

Starting in June join Sonja Whisman for a class all about Google Apps.

Google Apps Class

Wednesday, June 13, 20, 27 & July 11
@ 11 a.m. to 12 p.m.

Registration is required as seating is limited.
Please call 928-634-7559 or sign up at the reference desk.

Intro to Meditation Class

Join Daniel Tigert of the Cottonwood Meditation Center for a free, six-week course on meditation. This six-part class will take place in Library Meeting Room A. Registration is required, please call 928-634-7559 or sign up at the reference desk in the library. The class begins on April 26 from 4 p.m. to 5:45 p.m. and will continue every Thursday through May 31.

Photography 1-2-3

with Bill Helm

Join Bill Helm of the Verde Valley Photographic Society for a series of three free classes on Photography. Topics to be discussed will be light, composition, and color. Lessons will be geared around understanding those three things. Registration is required, please call 928-634-7559 to sign up.

Thursdays, April 19, May 17, June 21

@ 3 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. in the Dede Ewald Room

Collaborative Art

with Sunshower Rose

Explore the concept of layering in Photoshop in a series of three classes with local artist Sunshower Rose. Students can bring digital artistic representations of their creations, from any genre and will co-mingle their form of art with other students' digital images. Once students see for themselves the results of layering two images, using the tools in Photoshop to obtain transparency for the top layer, a third, and exciting piece of art appears! Those who wish to learn this process (to its best advantage) are best served by bringing a laptop with Photoshop or a related program installed. Everyone is welcome, of course, to observe this unique form of art! Registration is required, please call 928-634-7559 to sign up.

Saturdays, April 14, May 12, June 9

@ 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. in the Dede Ewald Room

The Verde Valley Photographic Society (VVPS) is excited to display their photographs on the stacks in the audio/visual room of the library. What once started as photography classes at both the Camp Verde and Beaver Creek Libraries in 2013 became a club, a society of photographic artists. For Bill Helm, it was clear early on at the classes that there were “several talented artists who needed an opportunity to show their work.” The upcoming VVPS exhibit will be on display at the library from April 2 through June 30. “As a community space, the Library is a perfect match for not only promoting the wealth of amazingly talented artists in our community but also promoting creativity itself,” said Kyle Smith, Library Assistant at the Cottonwood Public Library. “The VVPS exhibit is a perfect example of this.”

Each month on the fourth Thursday, from 3:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m., the Verde Valley Photographic Society meets at the Camp Verde Community Library. Members discuss their recent projects, offer photographs for critique, and to solicit feedback and tips on becoming better photographers.

According to Helm, the purpose of the photographic association is to provide an outlet for photographers to learn from other photographers. “There are many talented artists in the Verde Valley,” Helm said. “And most artists cannot afford their own storefront, much less their own studio. Our group is just the beginning of what we see for photographers, for artists in the Verde Valley.” Helm also said that the Verde Valley Photographic Society is “always looking for additional members.”

For more information about the Verde Valley Photographic Society, visit the group's Facebook page at <https://www.facebook.com/verdevalleyphotographicsociety>. Or call 928-300-0522.

Some of the featured photographers include Devon Artrip, Dena Crill, Bruce Julson, Michael Mount, Tammy Reynolds, Sunshower Rose, “Mills,” and Bill Helm.

Safe, Non-Toxic Alternatives to Chemical Pesticides

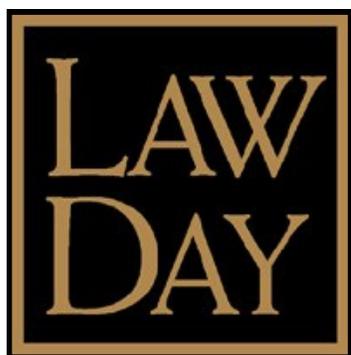

GOT WEEDS...let's talk! Spring is here and that means weeds have begun to sprout. What is a weed anyway? What is your weed management plan? Is what's sold in most stores safe for your family and pets? Do you want to learn a safe, cost effective way to manage weeds and other pests in your yard and garden?

Please join us at the Cottonwood Public Library on April 7, 2018 at 10:30 am in the Dede Ewald Room for a workshop called Safe, Non-Toxic Alternatives to Chemical Pesticides.

This workshop will examine the safety and environmental impacts of using chemical pesticides, while also providing safe, non-toxic alternatives. Come learn how you can help make a difference!

Non-toxic Verde Valley is a local organization created to raise awareness, unite like-minded individuals, and take action to assist in transforming our cities into safe, toxin-free, eco-friendly communities for people and pollinators alike. Information meetings, classes and events will be held on topics ranging from Uh oh, it's GMO: what do I need to know, non-toxic alternatives to chemical pesticides, organic gardening, how to choose non-toxic products for your family, organic vs conventional produce, explore water quality (tap vs bottled), and many more.

Non-toxic Verde Valley was founded by Samantha Malinski, a dedicated mother of two who has experienced firsthand the benefits of removing toxins from her home and surrounding environment. After her family experienced food allergies and severe pesticide overexposure, she started to investigate the many toxins in our world and saw an amazing transformation in her family's health and quality of life after removing them. Since then she's been a passionate advocate of living an organic way of life.

A Special Performance by

THE KILTIED MAN

As part of the 2018 "Libraries Rock!" Summer Reading Program, the Cottonwood Public Library is excited to announce a special performance by The Kiltied Man. Veteran performer Matthew Gurnsey delights audiences with his rousing performances of traditional Irish and Scottish music. Through the marriage of wit and finesse, Gurnsey charms his audiences, sweeping them into tales of wayward voyages, unrequited love and the vibrantly colorful lives of the every-man beloved of many Irish tales. His unique talents with traditional Celtic instruments such as the concertina, bodhran, bones and mandolin, add an air of authenticity to each piece and his stirringly rich bass voice provides the foundation for the hauntingly beautiful melodies.

Seed Saving

for the Verde Valley

Saturday, May 26

10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

in the Dede Ewald Room

This presentation by Rae Ebeling will cover basic information about saving vegetable seeds, emphasizing the development of varieties acclimated to our hot/dry climate. A bit of basic knowledge makes seed saving both easy and productive, avoiding pitfalls and mistakes so that it's a satisfying activity. This presentation is sponsored by the Seed Library and will include information about how to complete the cycle: from borrowing seeds to returning even better, "locally-raised", acclimated seeds to the community. You can help develop Verde Valley "heirlooms" in your own garden or even just containers. "Ruby's Gem" cherry tomatoes were developed by a woman named Ruby in containers located in Verde Village 3 and are now grown all over the valley, with the seeds in great demand. Rae Ebeling, a.k.a. "The Tomato Lady," has been gardening in the Verde Valley for the last 12 years. There will be slides to make the time fun and interesting, as well as handouts.

BOOK SPOTLIGHT:

MOSQUITOES DON'T BITE ME BY PENDRED NOYCE

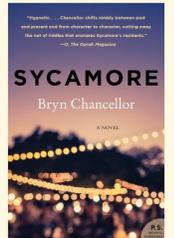

"Nala Simiyu, a half-Kenyan seventh grader whose mother is in a wheel chair, has a super power —mosquitoes don't bite her. Her simple seventh grade science project turns very interesting when the president of an international pharmaceutical company wants to research Nala and the part of her family she's never met in Kenya. They want to see if they can prevent mosquito-borne illnesses all around the world by discovering why Nala and her father's side of the family don't attract mosquitoes. She goes back to Kenya see her father who she hasn't seen in person since she was little, and attracts lots of attention—including that of a kidnapper! Nala has to learn a lot about courage very quickly and teaches some grown-ups along the way." - Dina D.

WHAT OUR STAFF IS READING

Democracy by Condoleezza Rice - "I love knowing where we have been to better understand how we can move forward. Democracies are incredibly hard to create, but also incredibly hard to sustain. Ms. Rice provides a unique perspective of how democracies have been built." - Ryan B.

Sycamore by Bryn Chancellor - "A mystery about loss, betrayal and the meaning of love, set right here in the Verde Valley." - Kyle S.

One Rough Man by Brad Taylor - "This pulled me in with his descriptive characters. Taylor gives each one a uniquely creative personality. This is a great series for those American patriots who like action packed adventures." - Mary G.

WHAT OUR VOLUNTEERS ARE READING

Forever by Pete Hamill - "An epic tale of a young man given the gift of living forever, arriving in New York City in the 1700's from Ireland. Reading the unfolding story of Manhattan from then until present day and the lives of those he has come across - it's a hard book to put down." - Carolyn M.

Light of the World by James Lee Burke - "This is a big, convoluted plot - but it constantly keeps you on the edge of your seat." - Jim C.

Bookmarks News

“I receive so much from the library that I wanted to give back.”

These were the words expressed by a patron recently when he presented a donation to the Library Manager.

The “modern” public library began in the mid-19th century, and has always been supported by donations - philanthropic and local.

NUTS! The sale of a variety of nuts is what provided much of the funding for Cottonwood’s first library in the 50’s.

Today, our library is a place for learning and meeting and so much more as technology expands access to so many broad choices of information.

Will you invest in your community? Your membership in Bookmarks and purchases from our Boutique fund programs and training throughout the year. But, have you also considered -

A Special Gift
A Gift in Honor of A Gift in Memory of

Visit www.friendsofctwazlibrary.org to learn more.

- How many libraries has Cottonwood had?
- How were they funded? (one hint is already on this page)
- What is the number of books available to our patrons?
- Where were they located?
- How has the number of patrons grown over the years?
- Who deserves most of the thanks for their efforts to build our libraries?

Stop by the Bookmarks Display Case near the information desk to read the interesting history of our Cottonwood Libraries and learn who was responsible for making them a reality.
