

Cottonwood Bookmarks - Friends of the Library News

- Our appreciation to all who participated in our June bag book sale. Not only did buyers purchase bargain-priced books, but also there was a friendly spirit of camaraderie enjoyed between buyers and workers.
- Our next book sale will take place in October. Details are still being worked out as we plan a special event tied to National Friends of the Library Week.
- Two very generous restricted donations were received in recent months, one for improvements in the Youth Services area and the other for the purchase of an improved book drop.
- Bookmarks funded the purchase of eight new Lenovo IdeaPads 330 for the library's Teen Zone, which provide the latest technology and are used for gaming purposes and to facilitate school work.

Support the library by becoming a Bookmarks member. Not only do members get half-off marked book prices throughout the year, but they also support library programs through their membership fees. Pick up an application envelope at the library or download the form on our website:

Ryan's Corner

August 2019

Cottonwood Public Library Patrons,

First and foremost, thank you for your patience while waiting for the next edition of our newsletter. Your continued support while our staff worked very hard to cover a critical transition for the library is sincerely appreciated. With that said, we would like to thank our new Library Supervisor, Brenda Pavlica, for putting together the August Newsletter, as this will now be a monthly publication.

As many of you may recall, we have been requesting your feedback to create a strategic plan. The strategic priorities are complete, and the staff is working hard at being intentional with our actions to achieve our goals. So, without further ado, after collecting data, conducting surveys, and speaking with our community members, here are the seven priorities for the Cottonwood Public Library:

- Create an Inviting Space for Everyone
- Maximize Hours of Operation
- Provide Cultural Diversity
- Encourage Children to Experience the World
- Improve Adult Digital Literacy
- Strengthen Community Connectedness
- Engage Community Members Not Currently Utilizing the Library

The priorities are the blueprint for decision making moving forward. We thank you for participating and hope you see and feel the changes these priorities provide. As always, if you have questions or concerns, please reach out to the staff or me directly. We are here to talk.

Sincerely,
Ryan Bigelow, Library Director
