ENHANCEMENTS TO THE LIBRARY

- Equipment, furniture, collection development and more.

Bookstore

The bookstore offers an ongoing sale of gently-used books (and some music/movies) for all ages at bargain prices. Friends sort donations and stock the bookstore. Located next to the café, the bookstore is open during library hours. Books are also sold off-site at Breaking New Grounds in downtown Durham.

We welcome donations of used books in very good condition. We cannot take textbooks, encyclopedias, dictionaries, or books that are stained, musty, or marked up. Donations are accepted Monday - Saturday during the last week of each month.

Bake Sale

Volunteers provide a variety of baked goods for patrons to purchase at the circulation desk. All proceeds benefit children's programs. Baking is a fun, tasty way to contribute!

To sign up, email the Friends at friendsdurhamlibrary@gmail.com or go to the Friends' page on the library website.

Meetings

Membership meetings are held six times a year, usually on weekday afternoons. Often preceded by refreshments and socializing, meetings may include varied presentations and business.
