Fall River was incorporated in 1803 from part of Freetown. The name of the town changed to Troy in 1804, but reverted back to Fall River in 1834. From 1803-1889, the vital records include 42 data volumes and 30 index volumes.

Fall River Marriages, Births, Deaths 1803-1822. Vol 1.

Water stains abound in this old book--and some ink is washed completely away. Most births and deaths are arranged by family, with dates as early as 1724 and as late as 1856. Marriage and/or intentions dates range from about 1788 to 1831. Earlier marriages are implied from the birth dates of children in family listings. On occasion, records of animals and fences are interspersed with vital records; e.g., pages 73, 100-102, 105, 110. Note the name change from Troy back to Fall River in village records of about 1833 (fiche #5).

Marriage intentions <1822-1834+ and corresponding marriages are the basis of most of this book. Births and deaths of about 1749-1845 are added later, most relating to families formed by the above marriages. See page 196 for the effect on one family of Thomas Pepper, a "notorious villain."
