

Well-Versed

September 2022

“An Interesting Turn of Phrase”: poems in English with titles in foreign languages

- "Tu Ne Quaesieris" from Spirits in Bondage: A Cycle of Lyrics C.S. Lewis (Clive Hamilton)
- "Suum Cuique" from Poems Ralph Waldo Emerson
- "Zu der edlen Yagd" from Sea Spray and Smoke Drift Adam Lindsay Gordon
- "Der Mann Im Keller" from Songs and other Verse Eugene Field
- "Schumann: Erstes Verlust" from A Spring Harvest Geoffrey Bache Smith
- "La Figlia Che Piange" from Prufrock and Other Observations T.S. Eliot
- "Siena mi fe, disfecemi Maremma" Ezra Pound
- "οι ῥέοντες" from Poems, Chiefly Lyrical Alfred, Lord Tennyson
- "ΑΓΝΩΣΤΩ. ΘΕΩ." from Poems of the Past and the Present Thomas Hardy
- "La Belle Dame sans Merci" John Keats
- "La Fuite de la Lune" Oscar Wilde