

Construction alert!

The Window Restoration Project has officially begun. Please use caution when moving about the building. As work progresses over the next few months, different areas of the library may be temporarily closed while the windows are removed and replaced. We thank you for your understanding while we work to preserve our beautiful building for years to come.