

Gale Free Library Community Art Show Coming in February

CALLING ALL CREATIVES!

In honor of National Library Lovers Month in February, and our new art display space in the Upstairs Lobby...

...we'd love to share YOUR work in a Community Art Show!

Patrons and friends of all ages are invited to submit drawings, paintings, photos, 2D artwork, poetry, and stories about what you love about your Gale Free Library!

HOW TO ENTER

Stop by the Reference Desk through February 8 to drop off unframed artwork (matted okay, max size 12 x 16 inches).

Include your name and contact information on the back so that you can pick it up after the show comes down on February 29.
