

Dear Friend,

February challenged us to find ways to stay warm and March is coming in like a lion. But the library continues to host programs for young and old. Creative juices flowed at Mrs. Hayes Art Day and the Cat in the Hat returned for the Dr. Seuss birthday party.

On March 15, there will be a kids' Drop-In Craft program where kids can put together a bouquet. We are providing the flowers!
 The Reading Challenge continues as do the various exercise programs including Yoga and Fun and Fitness with Joyce. These programs and activities would not be possible without your continued support. Check out the calendar for more programs that the library provides.
