From February 7th-17th, anyone with an in-district library card can participate in the Big Movie Watch, a new film club from Kanopy, which includes a film discussion board where you can chat about the film with others across the country. You may watch this film anytime from the comfort of your own home from February 7th-17th. There will be an in-house viewing of Molli and Max in the Future at the library on Saturday, February 8th at 2pm. Popcorn and water will be provided. No registration is required. We hope to see you there!

Wednesday, February 12th

Ellie Presents: The Rich & Romantic History of Valentine's Day at 6 pm -

Part exhibit, part historical talk, part workshop, join Ellie as she celebrates her very favorite holiday! Who was St. Valentine really? Who sent the oldest Valentine that is still in existence and what did it say? How did sending paper Valentines to loved ones catch on in so many places? These and other questions will be answered in this fun and informative presentation. Ellie will also share her collection of vintage Valentines and her research into the history of the holiday with participants. And as a special treat, Ellie will be bringing Valentine making supplies to the event so that everyone in attendance can create their own special handmade Valentine to take home! This event is for all ages, and no registration is required. Wednesday, February 12th at 6 pm.

Friday, February 14th
