Pursuant to the Kennebunk Free Library's Meeting Use Policy, use of the meeting room is subject to the following procedures:

1. Any individual or group seeking to use the meeting room shall complete and submit a meeting room application form. Such form shall incorporate by reference the Meeting Room Use Policy and these procedures and shall confirm that the applicant has received a copy of both and that they agree to abide by their terms and conditions.
2. In order to ensure adequate time to process a meeting room request, a meeting room reservation application form should be completed and submitted at least one week prior to the meeting date. No application, however, will be accepted more than 45 days in advance of the meeting date. A $10.00 non-refundable deposit must accompany the application with balance due prior to or on date of event. Notice of cancellation must be given at least 3 days in advance of the meeting date. Failure to do so may result in loss of meeting room privileges and/or forfeiture of the room charge fee.
3. The person signing the application form must remain in the meeting room throughout the period for which it is reserved to ensure the safety and security of meeting attendees and of the Library's facilities. They must also ensure that attendees observe all applicable Library policies and procedures.
4. The applicant is responsible for supervising all children in attendance.
5. No application shall be deemed complete until the Library has received a completed application form signed by a duly authorized individual over the age of 18, together with any applicable fee(s).

Recyclable trash must be sorted into appropriate containers and non-recyclable trash and garbage must be bagged and disposed of by the applicant. No janitorial services will be provided. The applicant will be held responsible for any damage resulting from use of the meeting room, for damage to the meeting room or its contents, and the cost of any services required to restore the meeting room or any other part of the Library to its condition prior to the meeting.
