

July 2021 at the Little Falls Public Library

Summer Reading for Adults

Who says summer reading is just for the kids? You can sign up on READsquared using this link: <http://littlefallslibrary.readsquared.com/> to register yourself for our summer reading program! Simply register as "19+", and you'll be entered into the Adult category. Log your reading and you'll be able to earn points and perhaps become the winner of our Adult category. Make the most of your summer reading!

Color Your Own Art Masterpiece Sign-up Begins June 28th!

Sign up by visiting this link beginning June 28th: <https://bit.ly/3vQc3D5> for this advanced coloring program running through the summer. Once you've registered, you'll be able to pick up coloring sheets and colored pencils! You must be a Little Falls resident to register. 1 box of colored pencils will be handed out per registrant. Materials will be handed out to registrants beginning Tuesday, July 6th!

Come See Us at the Little Falls Farmer's Market!

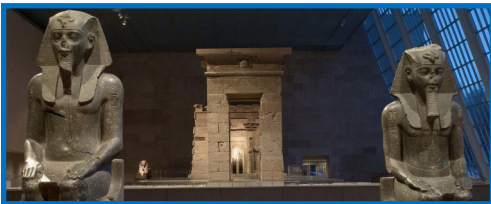

We will have a table set up at the Little Falls Farmer's Market at Town Hall every other Sunday from 10am—1pm beginning June 27th! Swing on by and meet the library staff and members of our Board of Trustees! Sign up for a library card, check out some of our upcoming programs, ask us about our museum passes, and much more! We'll also be attending several concerts in Memorial Park on Wilmore Rd. which takes place on Thursdays throughout the summer from 6pm-8:30pm!

Museum Passes

Summer is in full swing and there's no better time to check out a museum! Museum Passes are available to Little Falls Residents for 3 days at a time and can be reserved up to 2 months in advance. Single-use tickets for the American Museum of Natural History are also available to LF residents on a first-come, first-serve basis, with a limit of one ticket per card, per calendar year.

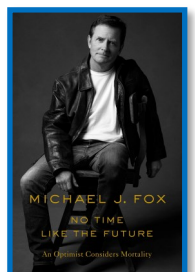

A Virtual Stroll Through the Met's Egyptian Art Tuesday, July 27th at 6:30PM

Michael Norris, Ph.D., will take us on a virtual journey to the Egyptian galleries of the Metropolitan Museum of Art that will guide you from the banks of the Nile to tombs and temples. Discover Ancient Egyptian culture and art through sculpture, jewelry, mummies, and actual Egyptian buildings. Michael got his BA in Classics from the University of California at San Diego and his MA in Classics and Ph.D. in Art History at the University of California at Santa Barbara. He spent twenty years at the Cloisters Museum and the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York and has lectured on trips all over the world. He lives in Teaneck, New Jersey. Register for this program through Engaged Patrons by following this link: <https://bit.ly/3xHHVul>

August Book Club Selection Tuesday, August 3rd at 7PM

Join us as we discuss Michael J. Fox's No Time Like the Future: An Optimist Considers Mortality. Limited copies of this book are available at the Little Falls Public Library. Weather permitting, we will hold this program outdoors at the library! We will post the Zoom link for this meeting on our website and social media if the weather does not accommodate for an outdoor meeting.
