Foreword

Another pattern has been woven and left behind in the tapestry of our lives. Each thread is a symbol of our stay here at Passaic Valley, and each happening in the course of events another intricate stitch. We hope that through this good beginning our worthy objectives can be reached so that when the last stitch has been completed and the pattern runs out, ours will be a most beautiful covering to be hung on the wall of time.

Dedication . . .

. . . to our Parents

During our four years at Passaic Valley, and those prior to these, we have come to realize the importance of a sound foundation. We further realize that this has been most carefully laid by those who love us, our parents. Therefore, we dedicate this, the culmination of Valley, to those most worthy of our offering . . . Our Parents.

In Memoriam . . .

I am the graduating class of 1949. In the course of the year, I have lost a friend—a friend who has been with me since I entered Passaic Valley. Through his willing and ready helpfulness, days at Passaic Valley were made more pleasant for me. He was part of me until just recently, when our Creator beckoned him home much to my loss and heavy-hearted sorrow. He will remain forever in the scented past of my memory—but will never be forgotten. I leave with his treasured memory living within me.

William Henry Traphagen, Jr.

Just "Bill" to us, but Bill Henry to radio, is already on the road to attain his goal; to become a successful radio producer. Bill is interested in meeting people, reading and "just plain thinking."

Raymond John Vanden Berghe

Sleeping late on Saturday morning is the sport that "Ray" excels in most proficiently, but horseback riding and skiing are his favorite sports. His easy-going manner is well-known to all of his friends.

Barbara Jean VanderKraats

"Babs" goes around criticizing people and finds her pet peeve is Gus and his horns. All-State chorus rates high with Barbara who has long been a member of the choir.

Martin Russell Van Ostenbridge

Valley

John Verderame, Jr.

"Well, after I make my second million . . ."

John's tycoon inclinations are his trademarks. His ambition is to own a twenty-four cylinder car. That popular pastime of dodging work is a typical Verderame calling card.

Shirley Ann Vreeland

"Shirl's" pet peeves are models, but she enjoys going out to eat. Her habit is telling people to be quiet. A member of the Senior Play cast, Shirl is known for her incessant "gift of gab."

Floyd William Westerholt

"'T' Model Tommy"

Floyd's avid interest in cars and motors occupies all of his spare time. Ben, "Pride of the Faculty," Lami is his pet peeve. Running out of gas is Floyd's most regular habit.

Jay Arthur Williams

"Tex," as he is known to many of his friends; is very interested in football, weight lifting, and cowboy music. Many of us have seen him during football season guarding for "good old P. V."

Norma Vigorita

A cheerleader on our squad for two years, "Ba-Ba" has participated widely in Girls' Athletics, and is a member of the Honor Society. Norma says she will devote her life to try to find happiness.

Mary Jane Walton

She's usually seen telling her troubles and dreaming in French class. Conceited people are her pet peeve. Jane's high ambition of being worthy of someone will lead her through life.

Hazel J. Wilkie

"Haze," when awake, is an active member of all sport activities—basketball and baseball especially. While being good-natured and full of fun, conceited people annoy her.

Marguerite I. Wagon

The Hornets buzzed through another stiff schedule in '48, and though they were on the short end of the score in six of the games, they gave their opponents well-fought contests. Touted as underdogs in eight games, they proved that the experts can make mistakes in sports. In the Rockaway game, for instance, a 13 to 7 loss was predicted. Instead, the Green and White of Valley emerged with a 20 to 0 upset.

That the student body was behind the team was proven at the last home game when the Valley stands remained filled during a drenching rain to cheer the Green and White to its victory.

Even though he is faced with the loss of eleven lettermen, Coach Elmer Griswold has sufficient reason to be optimistic about next season's squad. What coach wouldn't be with such standouts as Dick Wittman, Al Bleecker, Dave Terranova, Ron Rose, and Bob Martorano returning? These boys, along with last season's successful Junior Varsity team, will make up the fighting unit of '49.

"Successful" seems to be an adjective suitable for our 1948-49 season. The squad compiled eight wins and eleven losses to finish third in the Lakeland Conference. The Hornets squared off against Pompton Lakes in the Jamboree Finals, but were downed 42-18. Our squad, as indicated by the score, played well off their usual form.

Highlights of the season were the 34-33 upset of Dover, two victories over a tough Boonton five, and a last-second 38-35 victory over Hawthorne.

High scorer for the team was our big center, Al Rothwell, with 142 points. Charley Asselin was runner-up with 136 tallies.

Both Joe Leo and Brian Duffy were second team All-Conference. Duffy also received honorable mention for All-County.

Players for the season were: Captain Joe Leo, Al Rothwell, Sam DeYoung, Charley Asselin, Brian Duffy, Andy Spaschak, Al Bleecker, Max Speizer, Bill Stry, and Ralph Ritacco.

Through the annual Girls' Show, the G. A. A. Dance, and the selling of refreshments at sports events, money is raised for athletic awards presented annually, at a special assembly, to girls who have met the requirements for them.

The girls of the G. A. A. work to live up to its motto:

This year's captain was Shirley Macones, ably assisted by Gwen Sindle, Norma Vigorita, Jennie D'Agostino, Doris Dhyvetter, Isabelle Van Ness, Catherine Stoner, Eleanor Huizenga, Nancy Philport and Elaine Hackes.

The Girls' Show

Passaic Valley High School opened its doors to the public in 1940, and it was in that very year that the possibility of having a Girls' Show was brought up for consideration.

As soon as the "O. K." was given, plans were formulated and put into action, and on March 26, 1941, the first Girls' Show took place with the purpose of showing parents what the girls did in the field of sports, and also to convey the message that they knew how to win as well as how to lose.

The two teams, bearing the names of the Greens and the Whites, competed in tumbling, relays, tug-of-war, basketball, entrance, songs and cheers, and decorations.

This year the theme was Cinderella and Snow White. The Greens were victorious. The system was changed this year so that the competition continues throughout the entire year instead of beginning and ending with the Girls' Show.

Student Government Association

The Student Government Association this year was under the leadership of its President, Bill Cowley. The other officers included Alan Rothwell, vice president; Marilyn Smith, secretary; and Jean Nonnemaker, treasurer.

It has continued to build up its reputation for efficient handling of emergencies, and, through careful planning, has come through to give the students what they want.

Under the direction of Mr. Gatti, the Student Government this year revised the school's Constitution, and reevaluated the Activity Point System.

Senior Play

SENIORS PRESENT
"DEAR RUTH"
AS ANNUAL PLAY
Miss Kane Directs
Broadway Hit

Past records will lie far behind those to be made tonight as the seniors present DEAR RUTH in the auditorium at 8:00. "One was good; two were better; and now we'll have three" might easily be their guiding principle, for they will initiate the first senior play to be given three performances. After this evening's opening there will be one each on Friday, October 22, and Saturday, October 23. Prices have been scaled so that holders of activity tickets, and grade school children as well, will be admitted for 44 cents. All other patrons will need 74 cents.

GRANT, HOLLEY TAKE LEADS

Heading the cast of this two-act comedy are Betty Grant as the beautiful and intelligent Ruth Wilkins and Alan Holley in the role of the spiritedly charming Lieutenant Bill Seawright.

Also featured are:

Lois Cook—Miriam, Ruth's high school aged sister.

Edgar Hoedemaker—Albert Kummer, Ruth's 34-year-old fiance.

Bill Cowley—Judge Harry Wilkins, Ruth's father.

WilmaJean Carson — Edith Wilkins, Ruth's mother.

Shirley Vreeland—Martha Seawright, Bill's 20-year-old sister.

Donald Harding—Sergeant Chuck Vincent.

Doris Ann Pels—Dora the maid.

Everett Hopper—Harold Klobbermeyer

HANN, VANDEN BERGHE ON PROPS

Assisting behind the scenes will be Ray Vanden Berghe and Jeanne Hann, "prop men." Miss Tompkins, Mr. Kuziora, and Miss Kane have charge of the furnishings, stage design, and play direction respectively. Mr. Worden is handling any necessary construction work. Sound effects have been provided through the courtesy of Mr. Jailer. Miss Holub has been directing the business angle.

A brief introduction to DEAR RUTH:

Secret correspondence between Miriam and young servicemen at the front starts off a chain of unexpected and laughable complications. This pastime of Miriam's involves Ruth and her fiance Albert in an unhappy situation with a returned Air Force Lieutenant Seawright. Mr. and Mrs. Wilkins and Dora the maid are bewildered observers and the unfortunate guinea pigs during the developing confusion.

Sergeant Vincent and Bill's sister Martha appear long enough to settle a lover's quarrel. Then an unpredicted solution for the existing problems leads everyone to believe that law and order will soon reign. But can this new found peace last? Come and see for yourself.

Band

"Guide right!" was the familiar shout heard from Drum Major Arno Hohn during eighth period while the band rehearsed its shows for the football season—the shows which have gained for Passaic Valley High School recognition for having such an outstanding musical organization. The band, under the leadership of Frank Kells, is the largest group in the musical department, and gives an annual concert each March. Allan Rothwell is President of the Band. Vice President, Gwen Sindle; Secretary, Jane Ackerman, and Librarians, James Conti, Charles Fredericks and Leslie McKinnis ably assist the President in the smooth running of the Band.
