"Growing up is never easy. You hold on to things that were. You wonder what's to look ahead to what would be Other days. New days. Days to come. The thing is, we for growing up." ~The Wander Years

To the Class of 2009, from Your Advisors

To the Class of 2009,

I have had all of you for four whole years. Where did the time go? For most of you, I remember you entering as timid freshmen and have seen you all grow not only to be seniors, but into the roles you were meant to fill in this world. The journey we have all been on is one that has been fulfilling and extraordinary. I have had the pleasure to work with a class that is charismatic, hard working, dedicated and full of PV pride. We have made great strides with the challenges we faced and we managed to overcome them and succeed. We have done numerous fundraising events and social events throughout the span of our four years together and I hope all of you will be able to look back on them with nothing but fond and lasting memories of the times you shared here at Passaic Valley Regional High School. Each of you worked hard to get here and all of you should be proud of yourselves for all the accomplishments that you have made so far. I hope that all of your future endeavors will hold many more accomplishments for you and that you make the right choices in your life that lead you to be successful in whatever you choose. I am so glad that I have had the opportunity to go on this journey with all of you but I am sad that it will come to an end June 24th, 2009 here at Passaic Valley. But graduation will only be the beginning of your journey. To each and every one of you, I wish you the best of luck on that journey you are about to embark on and my congratulations to the GRADUATING CLASS OF 2009!

With warmest regards,

Ms. Czepiel

The best advice I could leave you with is from an old saying, If you want to be happy for a year, win the lottery. If you want to be happy for life, love what you do.

To the Class of 2009,

In September 2005, you all entered the halls that year a little unsure of what the next four years would bring. I have watched each of you grow as individuals and as a class. Its amazing how fast four years have gone by. Being a class advisor for your class was enjoyable and rewarding. I know that you will look back at your years at Passaic Valley and smile. You will remember the great friendships and memories that have shaped you into the person that you are today.

You have demonstrated the ability to contribute, grow, and succeed personally, academically, and ultimately as gifted individuals who will inspire. I am honored to have served as your class advisor. The Class of 2009 will always have a special place in my heart, as being advisor allowed me to create bonds and memories with all students. Best wishes to you in good health, happiness, love, and success in your future endeavors!! You deserve the best!!!

Sincerely,

Miss Casale

“The best teachers teach from the heart,

Dr. Viktor Joganow

Mr. John Wallace

Dear Members of the Class of 2009:

To look backward for a while is to refresh the eye, to restore it, and to render it the more fit for its prime function of looking forward. ~Margaret Fairless Barber

For nearly 70 years, the Valley Green has served as the repository for the most precious high school memories experienced at Passaic Valley Regional High School. When you look back at your four years at PV, that reflection coupled with your yearbook archives will provide you with a host of warm memories. Numerous surveys and anecdotal comments reinforce the fact that most people warmly recall their high school years even more than their collegiate experiences.

Annually, we have returning alumni who visit PV and who cannot wait to share their recollections with their classmates. While the teenage years can be trying for young people and family members alike, they also represent some of the most exciting events in our lives. Just think back to your first few days at PV as a wide-eyed, lost and confused ninth grader and how quickly the four years have slipped by.

We trust that you have taken full advantage of the opportunities that were available to you at PV. There is no greater satisfaction to educators than to see their students move to more significant academic and professional successes. We take such pride in your past achievements and look forward to hearing about your future accomplishments. Remember to look back occasionally and reflect on the hornet tradition as you continue to grow as a productive citizen in our society.

On behalf of the Board of Education and Administration, I wish you the very best in all of your future efforts and remind you to maintain your pride in the Green and White!

Respectfully,

Viktor J. Joganow, Ed.D.

path on your new journey. I love you, and always will, Mommy

Lindsay Braen:

Having you for a daughter is one of the most important things in our life... We have watched you become your own special person, and that has made us very proud. We especially admire you for all of your accomplishments on top of all your other responsibilities... you bring your own touch to everything you do. You mean the world to us and we love you very much. Good luck in college! Always, Mom & Dad

Mia Castiglione:

Dearest Mia, Every single day I am amazed by you...you are such a "Mia" - full of life, peace, love and understanding. You are truly beautiful inside and out. Well rounded and balanced, you juggle school, homework, friends with ease and dignity. I truly have never met such a self-motivated and determined person. You commit to everything you do and you never forget the human element. Thoughtful, caring and compassionate, you have good old fashioned qualities that mean so much in this ever changing world. You are genuine and authentic and you hold fast to your beliefs and values - I am so proud of the decisions and choices you have made. And even with the challenges we have faced as a family, despite all odds, you battle forward, stand tall, breathe deeply and recognize what you must do and want to do (Dad All 4 U)...your inner essence is what makes you so unique and so special. You will always amaze me...I dream with you, for "A dream you dream alone is only a dream. A dream you dream together is reality." Go forward with your dreams. Peace, Godspeed and Namaste, Mom

Sithra Chaudhary:

I love you, Sithra. It is my honor, privilege, and the greatest blessing to be your dad. I remember the day and time when you were born and I was the 1st on to hold you after Dr. Ahkami & nurses cleaned you. I called Adhan in your ears, right after your birth (this is our Islamic tradition). That was the 1st moment of my love for you which increased with every passing day. When you began kindergarten back in the day, you were terrified and pretty much cried the whole first week. By first grade you were still quiet and shy. Whenever we traveled you never liked anything but home, after our return you would sit in the middle of the living room and clap. Now - that shy little girl takes charge of the things and makes the things happen. What a big change and transformation. You have made me proud, because you always respected my wish and valued my opinion. May Allah Almighty bless you forever. Sithra you are a tremendous blessing from God! I am thankful and humbled that I was chosen to be your father.

Valentina Cilindrello:

Valentina we are so proud of you. Good luck in college. We know you can accomplish anything you desire. Follow your heart and your dreams will come true. We love you. Love, Mom and Dad

Sabrina Conti:

When we brought you home from the hospital we didn't know what the future would bring. Where did all the years go? You have become such a beautiful, smart young woman. You know what you want and you work hard to get it. We are so proud of you! Love, Mom & Dad

Dana-Jenae Cooper:

The day that you thought

Letters From Home

would never arrive. You looked on in amazement when your sister graduated from PV. Now, it's your turn.. Take a moment and enjoy this once in a lifetime achievement. You are the best and the smartest. You have the tools to succeed in Life... We love you dearly. We wish you ONLY the best in your ceilingless future. Your goals will be exceeded. Remember, your family will always be here for you in Love. Remember your TEAM of classmates. They will join your college TEAM of classmates to mold your future sphere of influence. They may also assist in your entrepreneurship or corporate goals. Continue to think outside the box and the empowerment of creating your own box when necessary. Be very, very careful of what you allow to soak into your sponge. For when life puts its pressure on your sponge (and it will), it will only squeeze out what you put into it. Keep Jehovah God in your life...

Lindsay Cosgrave:
Your 4 years at PV flew by with so many great memories. You entered PV as a nervous freshman and are leaving as a beautiful young lady. As you go off to college keep your memories close to your heart. You always make us proud

I just want you to know that over the past year I realized that not only are you my daughter, you are my best friend and I am extremely proud to call you both. I love you! Mom

David DiBenedetto:
David, before you were born, I used to dream about what it might be like to have a son like you...And you know what? You turned out even better than I EVER dreamed you'd be. Congratulations, Love Mommy

Christopher DiPasquale:
Dear Christopher, There are not enough words to express how proud we are of you. Your hard work has resulted in excellent grades, great performances on stage, and having many friends. The greatest thing a parent can hear is when someone else tells us "you have a terrific son" or they hope their child

Georgina, did you know from the day you were born you stole our hearts? We have watched a needed to be different, curious, smiley little girl grow up to be a wonderful young woman. Although, you still carry those traits we want you to know we would not change a thing about you. The joy you have given us cannot be expressed with words. You have always challenged yourself and seemed to succeed in so many ways. We have watched you learn to stand on your own and be your own person. Although you do not really need us anymore you always let us be part of your life and decisions. We want to thank you for that. You have given us laughter, support, love and compassion. You have made difficult times easier by your smile and selfless acts. We cannot express enough how important you are to us and how so very proud we are of you. We know you have had your difficult times and through it all you have stood strong. We hope your future brings joy, happiness and success. Wherever life takes you, know you will always have our hearts. We love you always, Mom & Dad

Your presence invariably lights up a room. The past three years in PVHS with you have been the pinnacle of my entire career here. Jacquelynn Rachel Murray:

Our dearest Jacqui, Wow! Time sure does fly. Eighteen years ago we hoped for a beautiful little girl. When we heard those words, "It's a girl!" we were thrilled. Our wishes came true! You've gone from a cute little girl with ringlets who loved to spin while she danced, to a beautiful young woman who still loves to dance. You amaze us with your talents in dance and art. We are so proud of you. You have brought us so much joy; more than you'll ever know. Your love of life and dedication to your family has made you the special person you are. Now you're graduating high school and ready to take the next step into your journey through life. May you travel this journey with faith, happiness, good health, peace, and love. Always believe in yourself. We know you will succeed at anything you choose to do in life if you put your mind to it. Remember that we are here for you, support you in all that you do, and love you until the end of time. Congratulations on your high school graduation! Best of luck in all that you will do in the future. Remember to always smile and dance like there's no one watching. We love you now and always! Mom, Dad, Johnny, and Danny

Meghan Murray:

Dear Meg, Dad and I find it so hard to believe that four years have gone by at Passaic Valley High School and you will be a graduate this June. What a remarkable change for you when you left your small grammar school and entered the doors of PV. You embarked on journey filled with new friends and dreams. You have shown what a wonderful young lady you have turned into. Daddy and I never expected anything less. You have demonstrated such strength, growth, kindness and leadership through your four years. Through your clubs, sports, activities, you even found time to volunteer to give back to Passaic Valley. Whether it is being the STAT Girl for Varsity Football, Walking miles for Cancer or simply offering a kind word to a new student or one in need. Meg, you have always brought a smile to the face of everyone you meet we hope you always will continue to do so. We are so very proud of you. The people you have met and the journeys you have taken in high school will prepare you for your next stage in life. Dream big, keep giving back, and keep smiling you deserve all the best in this life. We love you Meghan. Love, Mom, Dad and Patrick
