2011 Class Advisors

Ms. Erin McNeill

Mrs. Cheryl Grande

To the Class of 2011,

It is hard to believe that four years have passed since you first arrived as freshmen! In that time, you have had many varied experiences that have helped to shape you into the young adults you are. As you look back at this book in years to come, we hope that it will help you remember with fondness some of these many experiences and the many people with whom you shared your time here at Passaic Valley.

Passaic Valley will remember you, the Class of 2011, as a class that was bright, energetic, talented, athletic, committed and full of school spirit. Each of you as individuals provided a stitch in the tapestry that characterized the Class of 2011. Your collective efforts made your class successful and well-respected within the school community. We are so proud of your accomplishments. As you begin the next phase of your lives, we wish you continued success. Wherever your road may lead, always remember that your journey started here, and keep that Hornet pride in your heart forever.

Scariest and Nicest Teachers

Faculty

Dr. Viktor
Joganow
Superintendent

Mr. Ray
Rotella
Principal

Dear Members of the Class of 2011:

"Change is inevitable. To resist it is to invite disappointment and defeat. When we expect challenge-- and use it to our advantage-- change becomes an ally rather than an adversary"

~Anonymous

The Passaic Valley Regional High School administration and staff welcomed your class in September of 2007 as wide-eyed ninth grade students. At those orientation meetings, the administration stressed the importance of accepting change and taking advantage of all opportunities being afforded the members of the class. The mantra was to become involved in the school and become part of the deep traditions at Passaic Valley. A review of the Class of 2011 indicates that most of you have heeded those suggestions and have become involved in the numerous offerings at our school.

The challenge at Passaic Valley is that a regional high school is faced with bringing students together from three different school districts and molding them into a unified class. Clearly this scenario represented a significant change for you as incoming students. However, your class was flexible, willing to change and new relationships were easily established across community lines as you came together as a class with your own identity.

Yes, change is inevitable. However, we trust that your experiences at Passaic Valley, which included academic pursuits, the fine and performing arts, community service activities, club and athletic participation have prepared you for the next phase of your life.

On behalf of the Board of Education and Administration, I wish you the very best in your future plans and remind you to maintain your Hornet Pride in the Green and White.

Respectfully,

Viktor J. Joganow,
Ed.D

Mrs. Judith Derosa

Mrs. Nancy Garofalo

"Retirement is a time
For feeling glad to be alive,
A time when friendships blossom

For knowing...life is good."

what they live for. They live for the rides, invitationals, countless pairs of Gatorade, & coaches you dislike but

Amanda Abene

Dear Amanda,
Where do we start to tell you how proud we are of you? Over the past four years you have worked so hard in school and have been so dedicated. Your persistence and drive to do your best is incredible. You have become independent and ready to conquer the world. We know that you will be successful in whatever you do. We are extremely proud of you and are looking forward to your continued success in the years to come. We will always be there for you. You will always be there for you. You always have our love and support in whatever you do. We are proud to call you our daughter.

Love always,
Mom and Dad

Danielle Antonucci

Dear Dani,
Wow, I can't believe you're going to college! I can't believe how fast these years have gone by. I would mention some of our good times growing up, but then I'd have written a novel. You truly are my best friend and I don't know what I'm going to do if you go away to college. You are an amazing sister and I love you so much. Good luck with everything to come, I know you will succeed! Congrats!!
Love, Ky

It seems like just yesterday you were sitting in the rocking chair reading your favorite bedtime story, Milk and Cookies and listening to you tell us stories about daddy on the paby. Now here we are getting ready to send you off to college.

I can't believe how fast the years flew by. You know if it were up to me, I would have slowed them down to keep you here longer. Lol... I just want you to know how very proud we are of you, of the choices you've made, and all you have accomplished in the past four years. You are a determined young lady who won't stop until you make your dreams come true. There is no doubt in our minds that you will reach your goal and become a Nurse Practitioner living in a house on the beach in California. Just don't forget to call me... everyday! We Love You. Mom, Dad, Kylie

Toniann Appio

Dear Toniann,
With love and pride we watched you grow into an amazing young woman. May the joy you have given us in the past bring you success in the future. We are so proud of the person you have become and all of your accomplishments. We know that, with your confidence, dedication and determination you can reach all your goals. Danielle Coiro

Dear Danielle,

It's hard to believe that seventeen years have passed so quickly and that little girl who was always laughing, playing and needing our attention has grown into such an independent person. We are so proud of you and the person you have become and we look forward to the wonderful things you will achieve in your life.

Remember to always follow your heart and everything will fall into place. May god watch over you and keep you safe and happy as you pursue your dreams. We love you and will miss you when you leave for college. Congratulations on all of your accomplishments at PV!

Mom, Dad, Angelo, & Kevin

Dominique DeFrancisi

Dear Dominique,

Where did all the years go? It seems like yesterday we brought you home from the hospital with your two older brothers. The only girl in the family, you've grown up tough and learned how to stand up for yourself, but at the same time quickly learned how to become a "priceless". Over the years you had some tough times, but your incredible sense of self esteem and determination saw you through. We have always been there for you and you probably thought us more than you will ever know.

Whatever you decide to do just follow your heart and your decision will be easy. We love you and the wonderful person you have become. We love you,
Mom & Dad

Our dearest Nicholas,

"Nick-a-Nooch", we've watched you grow from a vibrant, active little boy, into a fine and respectful young man. You have a wonderful personality and a "God-given" talents that can take you far, but mostly it's your competitive edge and yearning to do your very best, that can take you farther. You strive to be the best you can be. And you have learned that through perseverance, hard work and determination. Everything is possible. You make us proud to be your parents, and you make Walter proud to be your brother. Follow your heart and dreams but most of all "stay focused". The sky's the limit! We wish you the best of luck always.

All our love, your #1 fans,

Always remember, what we do for ourselves dies with us, what we do for others and the world remains and is immortal. Mark James Fontanella

Dear Mark,
We want to let you know how proud we both are of you. You were this little boy going into Passaic Valley and now... WOW!!! Look how far you've come. A skinny, nice, handsome, hairy legged young man. I think we did our job and you have never disappointed us in the least. Each year of your life turns another corner to make you a better person. That is all we ask of you. Our family may be dysfunctional but me and dad wouldn't change a thing. All our laughs, crying, yelling, vacations, good and bad times, it has made us all who we are. And you have grown into a person we wished for. Thank you. Each day of your life, you will learn something. Don't forget that. I heard that when I was nine or ten years old and I have never forgotten it. We are always, always, there for you. We love you so much. Love (hugs and kisses),
Mom & Dad

Thomas A. Gaccione

Dear Tommy,

Amy Gish

Dear Amy,
We can't believe that soon we will be watching you walk across a stage to be handed your high school diploma. We know school didn't always come easy for you, you've worked hard to get to this point and we're proud of you. You began this life as a cute baby girl we called Doodles and grew into a beautiful young woman. Unforgettable, curly, long blond hair usually bouncing in a pony tail. Soon you will be off to college discovering the world on your own, always know that we'll be with you no matter where you go and that we'll be there anytime and anywhere you need us. We wish you a lifetime of learning and opportunities. Remember that setbacks are temporary; they are lessons in life. Some of life's satisfaction comes from overcoming obstacles and succeeding at those things you didn't think you could do. Have fun and laugh often. Love,
Mom, Dad, & Katie

Daniel Gianduso

D.J.,
What can I say...? You have always been a respectful, courteous person, yet never one to follow others. You chose to do things your way, never looking back and have accomplished much as a result.

These attributes will help you as you move forward onto the next phase of your life. I have been proud to call you my son, and look forward to seeing the man you have become. You are unique in your dreams... continue to be innovative in your quest to fulfill them. The world awaits you... I will be here for you whenever you need me, and I will always love you! Love,
Mom

Daniela Gloor

Dear Daniela,
Well, senior year is here, where has the time gone? I can still remember the first time I saw you, with a big smile on your face and those beautiful green eyes. Throughout the years you have accomplished so much. Trying to keep up with you big sister, your will to help at any cost, and much more still amazes us. You are always sweet, there for people, and no matter what time of day it is, you always find time to help anyone who needs you. We could not be more proud of you. Please remember to always stay sweet, and you know the world is yours; you need to just go out and explore it. In life there are two types of people: those that just sit there, and those who achieve, and you are an achiever. I know some day you will reach all of your goals, and become the judge you've wanted to be. No matter what endeavors you partake in, we will always be on your side to cheer you on. With all our love today and always,
Mom, Dad, Erin, Elizabeth, & Frank

Jessica Leigh Levetsanos

Flashback 30 years. I stood where you are. Fearful to leave the familiar yet thrilled to explore the unknown. Now in 2011, through a mother's eyes, I see my beautiful daughter, one who is prepared, confident and ready to begin a path that is uniquely her own. I'm so proud of what you've accomplished, how you've accomplished it, and the woman you have become. Continue to do your personal best, follow your conscience (and my little voice in your head...) and don't be afraid to "stand alone". Continue to surround yourself with good friends, be grateful, give back, and take advantage of those student discounts. Please call, text, webcam, email and visit home frequently!
Flash forward. I see another diploma in your hand and a rewarding profession ahead. A good education isn't just a degree. You learn "how to learn", adapt, cope and prioritize. It gives you choices. Choose well and be happy!

I love you with all my heart!

Love,

Mom

Jimmy "Loop" Lupo,

No words can express how proud we are of you or express the amount of love we have for you. It is so hard to believe that seventeen years have passed since we were blessed with your birth. It seems like just yesterday that you were saying "MIL-L-L-L-K" and playing tee ball. Now look at you- you're driving, you have a girlfriend and filling out college applications. Wow! Time flies! Loop, it's been an amazing experience to watch you grow into a fine respectable young man. Always keep your family in your heart and cherish forever all the memories, Jessica still thinks she's the champ at 'Leaners and Tops'. Remember our family road trips from the Grand Canyon to Route 66, to the Redwood Forest to San Diego and to being on stage with Lance Burton in Las Vegas. Don't forget about the Wildwood vacations with our poker tournaments. Jim, enjoy your life. Be true to yourself, be happy, never accept no as the final answer and go after everything you want- the future is yours for the taking. You are and always be the joy in our lives. We wish you only the best for the future.
We love you and always will (xoxo),

We can hardly believe that you are about to graduate from High School. It seems like only yesterday that you were a little girl going to New Directions Nursery School, Little Falls School #2, the first class to "graduate" from School #3, then on to School #1 and finally to PV!! Soon you will be a young adult going off to college, entering a new world filled with knowledge and meeting new friends.

Jonathan Pabon
Jonathan,
My dearest son, I will always think of you with so much love and pride, for the boy you once were and the man you have become. When God blessed your Dad and me with you, He blessed real good. I can't think of a time since your birth that you have not been a joy to our hearts and blessing to our family. You're the finest young man. I hope you will always think of yourself with as much high regard as your Dad, your sister's and I think of you. In doing so, respect for yourself becomes respect for others. You have always been a caring and loving son; you're an extraordinary brother and have been a good role model for your sisters. I have waited for this day, through twelve years of school. From the first day of Kindergarten, as the tears streamed down my cheeks all the way to watching you walk down the isle to receive your high school diploma, these tears still stream down my cheeks.

So proud to see you wear that cap and gown but, sad to see you leave your home town. I know you must go and find your pathway in life, I just hope it's without any strife? You, my young man, have made us proud parents throughout the years, there is nothing I would not do for you, so if by chance you happen to stop by someday to see your old room, I will meet you at the door with my arms held open to embrace you and these tears streaming down my cheeks, not because I am sad, but because you have grown into a wonderful man.

Stefanie L. Persani
Dear Stefanie,
Everyone told us that four years of high school will fly by. Well, it has done just that! You are now embarking on a new adventure-College. What an exciting time for you. We have watched you grow into a beautiful young lady who is free spirited and light hearted. The same free spirit has caused countless arguments and disagreements along the way. I guess it's a growing process for all of us. Please know that our love for you is bigger than the sun. We know your future is bright! Our hope for you is to be happy and never settle for less than what you know you are worth.

Dear Gianna,
Where did the time go? It seems like yesterday you were beginning freshman year. You were a little nervous but very excited. We have watched you grow and mature into a beautiful, caring, respectful young lady. You have balanced so much of your time, from schoolwork, to sports, to coaching cheering and holding a job. You have managed to do it all with a positive attitude and a smile on your face! You have taken each year and its circumstances (not always fair) and turned them into a positive, always handling them with dignity and grace. You are stronger because of it... We have all the faith in the world for you and your talents and know that much BIGGER things lie ahead for you. Congratulations on your graduation! We love you with all our hearts!

Phillip Sgobba

Dear Phil,
When you were a baby many people gave me advice. The one piece of advice that I am now feeling the true impact of was "enjoy him now because he'll grow up so fast". As I'm going through your baby pictures to submit to your yearbook, that statement is proving to be so true. I feel like it was just yesterday that I was holding you in your arms, rocking you to sleep, or trying every trick I could think of to get you to eat. My, how things have changed. You have given your father and I so much joy throughout, and we could not have asked for a better son. We are so proud of the boy you were and the man you've become. I know you will continue to make us proud in all that you do in the future. As you begin the next chapter of your life I hope that you will take with you all the values we have taught you. Be true to yourself, treat people with respect and laugh, love and enjoy life.
Oh wait I forgot to tell you something.....I LOVE YOU!!
