Mrs. Benvenuti

Ms. Cid

Dear Class of 2013,

It is our pleasure to congratulate you on four years of hard work and dedication! We have watched each of you grow as individuals and come together, not only as a class, but as a family. During this time, we have shared memories that will stay with us forever. From selling cheesecakes and Yankee Candles to our Six Flags trip and numerous car washes, you worked together to make the class a success. We hope you will remember these experiences and the many people with whom you shared your time here at PV. Upon your graduation, hold your memories in one hand, but leave the other open... for your life is just beginning, and the world that awaits you is endless.

Wishing you the best of luck in all your future endeavors...

Sincerely,
Ennely Cid and Suzanne Benvenuti,

Dr. Tina Pantano

Dear Members of the Class of 2013:

“You’ve got to be careful if you don’t know where you’re going ‘cause you might not get there!”

The Yogi Book ~Yogi Berra

In 2009, the Class of 2013 entered the halls of Passaic Valley Regional High School in much the same manner that the previous classes arrived in the 70-year history of the district... colored with apprehension, excitement and hope for the future. That year the United States witnessed the inauguration of its first African-American President, a struggling economy, bankruptcy filings of major corporations in the auto industry, worldwide weather calamities and growing international political/military conflicts. Despite these events and challenges, your class proceeded to lay the groundwork for your future.

Many students followed the administrative recommendations made at the eighth grade orientation sessions to become fully involved in the daily life of Passaic Valley. You took advantage of both the academic and co-curricular opportunities in an effort to broaden your experiences and set the stage for future opportunities in your post-secondary lives. Yogi suggests that if you don’t know where you are going, you might not realize your goals. However, the members of this class recognize the world is changing rapidly and that they need to be flexible, creative and to think critically. Thereby, you will be prepared to define your own future.

More than ever before, it is critically important for our young people to understand the importance of becoming life-long learners who recognize the importance of cause and effect and how to monitor their own personal growth. The Yogism that opens this letter was far more accurate in previous generations. However, if you are to become successful contributors to society today, you need to be actively engaged in your own individual development and build on the knowledge and skills acquired during your K-12 experience. Making concrete connections between that knowledge and real world needs will put members of your class on the road to success.

On behalf of the Board of Education and Administration, I wish you the very best in your future plans and remind you to maintain your Hornet Pride in the Green and White.

*“Don’t always follow the crowd, because nobody goes there anymore.
It’s too crowded.”*

The Yogi Book ~Yogi Berra

Respectfully,
Viktor J. Joganow, Ed.D.

Letters From Home

Kylie Antonucci:

To Kylie,
I can't believe my baby is graduating high school. I knew this day would eventually come, but I guess I didn't realize how fast it would get here. It seems like just yesterday I was dropping you off for your first day of kindergarten. That was a hard day for me, but not as hard as it will be having you go off to college. That's going to be a really tough one!! I just want you to know how very proud we are of you, of all the choices you have made and all you have accomplished in the past 4 years. You are a beautiful young woman inside and out and we know you will go very far in life and accomplish all your dreams. You will make a great Music Teacher, and Marching Band Director. We wish you the best of luck and much happiness in all you do! Just remember...no matter what...wherever you end up...you still have to call me...everyday!
"We love you!"
Mom, Babbo & Dani...oh yeah... and Lindsey too!

Julia Booth:

Julia,
We are so proud of you. You've worked so hard and now it's time for the next journey. You'll do GREAT. We love you,
Mom, Dad, and Robert
Dear Julie,
Thanks for being the best godmother ever! We love you and are so proud of you!
Love, your godchildren, Anabella and Nicholas

Brianna Carnovale:

Brianna,
Words cannot describe how very proud we are of you. You've worked so hard and have always been focused. We have all the confidence in the world that you will succeed in whatever you do. We love you!
Love, Mom, Dad, and Ally

Christina Jane Castillo:

Christina, we are so proud of your 4 years of High School. We wish you the best in your future. Love always,
Daddy, Mommy, and Sara

Michael Giovannucci:

Dear Michael,
It seems like yesterday when you started kindergarten and here you are graduating from high school. We are so proud of you. We know you have a bright and successful future ahead of you. We will always be here for you. Congratulations.

Love,
Mom and Dad

Cheyenne Davis:

Cheyenne,
Congratulations and the best of luck in your future endeavors! We love you!
Love,
Bambi, Aunt Sharon, Aunt Beatrice and Elliot
Cheyenne,
Congratulations! We are so proud of you for making it this far! We wish you much success and happiness in your future endeavors.
We love you so much!
Love,
Aunt Pat, Tiffany, Monet, Jacob and Olivia
To Our Cheyenne,
CONGRATULATIONS! We are so proud of your accomplishments and thrilled about you going to college. We want you to know that we are always here for you and pray that you remain humble, thoughtful and loving. Trust your instincts and be brave enough to listen and know that those who love you will do so unconditionally. Never tuck away your dreams because they embellish who you are, the light in your eyes when you smile, your witty sense of humor, the spittfire you get when someone has really irritated you, but most of all your compassion that you have for others. Remember to keep GOD FIRST for he is the first-aid kit that you will continue to need as you go through life and for each star that shines it represents an opportunity that whatever your aspirations are you can achieve them. REACH FOR THE SKY - much success in your future endeavors...WE BELIEVE IN YOU.
We love you so much.
Love,
Mom and Dad

Lily Elaine DiMattia:

Our dearest Lily,
It is hard to believe that you will be graduating from high school and moving on to college; it seems like just yesterday we were picking you up from Magic Years Pre-School. What a fine young lady you have become and as you move into the next phase of your life, we trust that you will make fine choices. What a treasure you are to us and it goes without saying that we love you tremendously.
Love always,
Mom & Dad xoxoxoxox

Alessandra DiFalco:

It seems as though it was not long ago we walked you into Pre-K. And now you are graduating high school. We are very proud of you and wish you all the best. Thank you for all the beautiful memories you have given us through the year. Congratulations and good luck.
We love you!
Love,
Mom, Dad, Paulie XO

Michelle and Marchella DeLuca:

Michelle and Marchella DeLuca,
It seems like yesterday that God blessed us with beautiful twin girls. We are so blessed to have you in our lives. You have grown up to be such loving, compassionate, caring, and strong young women. You have given us so many wonderful memories watching you both during Cheering and Girl's Show. We are so proud of all your accomplishments. May your future be filled with success and always be there for each other through the ups and downs. Follow your hearts and never settle for less. Set your goals high, and strive to reach them. And may all your dreams become reality. May God guide you both, keep you safe, and bless you with good health. We hope that your lives will be filled with happiness and good fortune and you achieve whatever your hearts desire. You are loved more than words can express!

"LAUGH WITH ALL YOUR HEART
DANCE LIKE NO ONE IS WATCHING
CHERISH EVERY MOMENT!"

All our love,
Mom & Dad

Ashley Dondero:

To my beautiful daughter Ashley,
Where do I begin to tell you how proud I am of you...
You have grown into such a beautiful young woman on the inside as well as the outside. You have brought so much joy into mine and your sister Courtney's life and made us a complete and happy family. We have been through so much together and your life's journey is just beginning. I'm so excited for you and what your future holds for you, just always remember no matter where you go in life Courtney and I will always be there for you. I love you with all my heart and soul!
Love always & forever,
Mom & Courtney

Thomas Ficarra

Congratulations on your graduation! I know that you will continue on and do great things in your life. I will always support you in whatever you choose to pursue. You have always been so strong and independent. Use those positive qualities to make the world a better place!
Love,
Mom

Alexa Fontanella:

Dear Alexa, Congratulations and best wishes as you graduate from high school. You have completed one more chapter, and are about to begin another, in the story of your life. Through your hard work and determination your goals will be achieved and your dreams will become reality. We have watched you grow and develop into a beautiful young woman and we are so very proud of you. May the story of your life become #1 on the best sellers list. We love you so very much!
Mom, Dad, Jimmy and Christini

Melissa Dunn:

Melissa,
It seems just like yesterday that we were seeing you off to kindergarten. We remember taking a video of you and Brendon boarding the bus on your first day of school. Although the years have gone by fast, you have always given us so much happiness and so many reasons to be proud of you. When you made the PV Honor Society in your sophomore year, it was just the beginning of many accomplishments to come. We challenged you to always do your best, regardless of the outcome. You took that challenge and ran with it. In your junior year you were inducted into the National Honor Society as well as the Foreign Language Honor Society. Then in your senior year, as captain of your volleyball team, you earned the distinction of Passaic County Champions, something which had never before been done in the history of PV. Most of all, and more importantly, we are extremely proud of the wonderful person you have become. You face a very bright future, and whatever college you choose to attend they will be fortunate to have you.
With all our love always,
Mom, Dad, and Sean

Pamela Gaccione:

Dear Pamela,
It feels like a dream that our baby girl is graduating from high school. Even though this time is very bittersweet, and the realization that our little girl all grown up brings tears to our eyes, we couldn't have asked for a more precious extraordinary daughter. We are so very proud of all that you have accomplished and achieved, while never losing your caring, loving personality. No matter where life leads you, always know we will be right there sharing, supporting and loving you! Your life is just beginning and we are so excited to be a part of all that you have yet to experience. Never lose your heart so full of love!
Congratulations our precious angel!
Love Always & Forever,
Mom, Dad, Tommy & Sadee
xoxo

Letters From Home

Erica Gibbons:

Dear Erica,
We can't believe that the time has flown by since the day that you went off to Kindergarten. You have achieved so much since that time and have grown to be an extremely sensitive, compassionate, driven individual. You have learned that great lemonade can be made from life's lemons. In the words of Marilyn Monroe, "...sometimes good things fall apart so better things can fall together." Things certainly have fallen together for you over the last four years. You will be extremely successful in whatever it is you decide to do in life because you are driven and determined to be the best that you can possibly be at whatever it is that you are doing. You make us extremely proud to call you our daughter. Never stop making beautiful music. We love you so much! Love always,
Daddy and Mommy XOXO

Diana Leach:

Through the years, I've watched you grow, to become the princess we all know. All this time I've watched you dance and now it is your chance, to be all you want to be because you are everything to me. We love you Dee- Class of 2013!
Love, Mom, Dad, Darren, and Gianna

Casey McCall

Casey,
Words cannot express how proud we are of you and what you have accomplished. We know you will make your dreams come true. Your passion for music will lead the way. Keep playing your heart out. We love you so very much,
Mom, Dad, and Caity

Ianell Matias:

Ian,
From Heaven above we have watched you grow, we are so proud of you our only bro.
Do not be sad or mad our place is here with our heavenly Dad. We are your guardian Angels, his promise to you.
"For he will command his Angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways." Psalm 91:11
We love you and are so proud of you,
Gracie, Lynn, Lianela Mia, and Liana Destiny Matias.
Ianell,
You are our blessing from god. We love you and we are so proud of whom you have become. Continue with your heart of gold and your compassion for people. We love you, our "bebote"

Julie,
I'm so very proud of you. You have become a lovely young woman with a great maturity about you, (sometimes). You have overcome many obstacles but always stayed true to yourself and as the song says, you made it through the rain. I'll always be here if you need me for anything. I love you, stay strong.
Paula,
Wake up!! But I love you too.
Love Aunt Robbin XOXO
PS, Your high school days have ended so now your new journey in life begins. Always remember- God loves you and so do I.
Gramma XX
Julie/Aunt Julie,
We cannot express how proud we are of you. You have grown up to be such a responsible, beautiful young woman and we expect nothing but great things from you. College will be the greatest years of your life, enjoy them and take advantage of the opportunities given to you to grow, prosper, and be an even better person than you are today. Enjoy, we love you!
Sissy, Derek, and Taylor
PS Aunt Eve says it has been a pleasure to watch you in band and at fencing and now she will see you graduate, and yes, she will cry.
Congratulations Julie! We are so proud of you! Can't believe you are already graduating- seems like only yesterday you were an adorable little girl. Look at you now, a remarkable young woman. We know you have a bright future ahead of you, and know we will be with you all along the way. Love,
Beth, Laura, Brian, and Mark.
Dear Julie,
What can I say about how proud of you I am. I have seen you as a fierce, loyal friend, a hard worker and a responsible adult. You draw a mean picture, bang a perfect gong and fence an opponent like nobody's business. Your volunteer work with animals shows what a passionate person you are. You have overcome anything that was thrown at you and have emerged a beautiful, smart, athletic, kind, young woman. You impress me and how nice generous a person you are. You are a wonderful daughter, sister, cousin, niece and Granddaughter. You will be an even better Aunt and Godmother. Your positive attitude is unmatched. I know in my heart that you will accomplish anything you set out to do. I WILL BE RIGHT BEHIND YOU ALL THE WAY!
Stay Silly, I love you
Mom SOX

Nick Morello

We hope your dreams take you to the corners of your smiles, to the highest of your hopes, to the windows of your opportunities, and to the most special places your heart has ever known.

Best of luck on your high school graduation you have made and still make us so proud!

You are the best son in the world to us!

Congratulations!!!

Love Mom & Dad xoxo

Daniel John Murray:

Dear Daniel,

Wow! Has it been eighteen years already? You came into this world a little early, but always had drive and determination. You may have been small, but boy you were strong. You have always been level-headed with lots of common sense, and the one that we could count on. You have brought us more joy that you will ever know while watching you grow into the wonderful young man you are today. We are proud of your accomplishments in academics, music, fencing, and track, as well as volunteering to help others. Because of your determination and drive, dedication to your family, and kindness you are a very special person. May you travel life's journey with fath, happiness, good health, peace, and love. Always believe in yourself. Remember that we are here to support you in all that you do, and love you until the end of time. Congratulations on your high school graduation! Best of luck in all that you do in the future! Never lose that focus and persistence. It will help you achieve whatever it is you want. We love you now and always! Mom, Dad, Johnny, and Jacqui

Michelle Pepe:

Michelle,

We couldn't be any prouder of the amazing young woman you've grown into. This next chapter of life is going to be full of wonderful & exciting experiences, make sure you take the time to enjoy them.

Ryan J. Tolomeo:

Ryan,
Your years at Passaic Valley have been both successful and enjoyable. We are very proud of your accomplishments! Keep up the good work in the future.
Love, Mom, Dad, and Melanie

Kyle Yancius:

Dear Kyle,
Words cannot express how proud I am of you and how much I love you. You conquered so many adversities and losses in your young life and were still able to achieve great grades, participate in sports, music and acquire a wonderful group of friends. After your dad passed away, you were not only my son; you became my best friend. You are kind, loving and sincere and I know Dad would feel the same pride as I do today. You have a bright future ahead of you with many good things to come. Congratulations!!
I love you,
Mom

Alexandra Reda:

Wow! It's hard to believe that you are graduating high school. Where did the time go? We are so proud of the young woman you have become. Good luck in all your future endeavors. We love you! Love Always,
Mom, Dad, Taylor, Mikey, and Mema

Christopher Petruzzo:

"You did it!" Congrats - One door closes and a new one will now open. We will always be here for you. We wish you the best in whatever you choose to move forward with. You are a great person and a lot of fun. You deserve the best! We love you!
Dad, Mom, Ashley and Brandon

Cesar,

The greatest gift I can give you is self-confidence. I gave you the wings, now it is your turn to take your own flight. Remember you are the author of your life: its up to you to make all your dreams come true. Love you with all my heart...Good luck in College!

Love you,
Mom, Pamela, & Lucy

In this journey of your life, I wish you all the success in the world, and always keep in mind that in the road ahead you will find obstacles to overcome. My dear son always remember what matters is not how many times you fall, but the times you get up, in order to achieve success. May God always watch and bless you always. I love you with all my heart.

Love you,
Dad, Coco, & Max
