

Library Mission Statement

The mission of the Mattapoisett Free Public Library is to select, organize, maintain and make available to the entire community those materials and services necessary to assist and support all its citizens in the pursuit of their educational, informational and recreational interests and needs.