Lynn Piotrowicz's class scheduled in September has been canceled. Julie let us know that Michael Sullivan will teach a Youth Services class on November 2nd and 9th, 9-12 at Kingston Library. Michael will not charge for teaching course. Eileen let us know that Mary Danko will teach Programming class December, 8, 2015, 9-1 at Hooksett Library.

Eileen has all of Ricky's log-ins so she will be able to post the classes to Paralibrarian section on NHLA website.

Welcomed Edmund Lowe who has volunteered for the Vice President slot which will be voted on.

Welcomed Yvette Couser who has volunteered to be the Education Coordinator.

Lee Ann will put together ballot and Kathy Tracy will send out.

Treasurer's Report- July 1st started a new year. Currently we have $578 with $5 just add to make it $583. Currently have 55 members.

$100 per training if needed. Class cost is $5 for members and $10 for non-members. Julie will be working with Trainers when she is not attending class for collecting any money that has not been paid.

We have had three people been approved through Michael York. Discussed making and presenting certificates. Eileen said that they should be done at NHLA in October.

Julie said she was working on finding out about other New England states that have Paralibrarian Certifications. MA, Maine and NH each have one. Still checking on Vermont, Rhode Island and Connecticut.

Discussed wording "paralibrarian" that ALA uses Support Staff. We will work on this.

Eileen and Julie will meet with the LUV Co-op to talk about the Paralibrarian Group.

Will also set up time to meet with the SILC Co-op .

NHLA Conference on October 27- Tuesday morning is the Paralibrarian Roundtable there will be a 5 minute meeting and then open for discussion. Eileen will check to see if those that wish to attend the meeting need to register.
