President’s Report (Justine Farfara, given by Stacey Desrosiers)
- Nothing to report

Vice President’s Report (Maryjo Siergiej, given by Stacey Desrosiers)
- Conference Review
  - Virtual attendees could not see slides.
  - There were Zoom issues with computers.
  - People enjoyed lectures but wanted more hands on sessions and breakout sessions with conversation instead of focusing on lectures.
  - Some of the talks didn’t fit the theme of Teen Mental Health.
  - Conversation about being careful about who we have as presenters
    - Some people were concerned about ABA and Autism Speaks.
    - More research and vetting should go into presenters.
  - Overall the experience of signing up was good and smooth.
  - Lengths were good for presentations.
  - Length of the conference was appropriate.
  - Announcing the conference and signups 3 months in advance is the ideal time for most participants.
Comments about the conference/why people could not/did not attend.
  ■ The location of the conference was too far.
  ■ School librarians couldn’t get substitutes for the date.
  ■ Parking was difficult with the time limit at Portsmouth Public Library
  ■ Topics did not fit smaller libraries demographics.

    - Examine statistics related to discrimination within libraries/schools and risks that LGBTQIA+ youth face on a day-to-day basis in their communities, then discuss ways that library professionals can improve the general climate of libraries and summer reading programs through various strategies from simple word choice to organizational policy change. An interactive safe space for all of your questions will be moderated by a CSLP Inclusion Committee member following the presentation portion. Digital resource handouts will be provided.

- Outcomes:
  - Participants will learn about implicit bias, the complexity and depth of gender, and explanation of acronyms.
  - Participants will be given strategies to create a welcoming environment in their Library and their Library’s summer reading program for LGBTQIA+ youth.

- Presenter:
  - Kaleidoscope Youth Center in Columbus, Ohio
  - Director of Education and Outreach: Amanda Erickson

- Vision for Community Education and Professional Development:
  - To expand the safe and affirming spaces of Kaleidoscope Youth Center into the greater community by working with organizations, community members, educators, and youth-serving professionals through education and consultation; and empowering youth leaders to organize their schools and local communities.

- Available NOW on Niche Academy (Cohort Coming In January)
  - The Youth Services Basics course is now available on Niche Academy. https://my.nicheacademy.com/nhsl-staff/course/45478
  - This course is designed as an introduction to library services for public library staff who are new to libraries and/or working with youth. Whether you are already working in a library or just starting out in a new youth services position, this content will help you consider why library services focusing specifically on youth are important, how to collect appropriate materials, the types of services and programs you can provide to your patrons, and the importance of outreach services. This course contains an Overview of Youth Services, followed by age-specific sections on Early Childhood, School Age Children, and Tweens & Teens.
  - This course was created in collaboration by the Indiana State Library, Library of Michigan, Montana State Library, and the Tennessee State Library and Archives, with support from the Institute of Museum and Library Services.
  - Similar to the Storytime Basics and T3, I will be forming a cohort in 2023 that will work thru the material individually but meet to discuss via zoom on Jan 10, Jan 24, Feb 7 & Feb 21 at 1 pm.
  - Sign up for the cohort here: https://forms.gle/NvXECwhb2ERF49KNA

- Supported Storytimes Wednesday, Jan 18, 2023
  - Shelley Harris, Children’s Librarian, Oak Park Public Library, IL has been doing supported storytimes for over ten years, using her background as a speech therapist and early learning librarian, along with everything she has learned from her younger disabled brother and his friends. She will deliver an hour long training about the disability community and best practices for storytime.

- New England Collaborative Summer Summit
  - Mark your calendar Friday, March 3 for another free full-day virtual offering from the New England Collaborative.

- T3-Transforming Teen Services
  - A third New Hampshire/Vermont cohort will happen in 2023 (with hopefully—cross your fingers on a grant—a few extra special workshops).

- Things to borrow:
  - Don’t forget about the Peace Packs (I will be refurbishing & adding to these next year),
  - Welcoming Library Kits (with the NH Humanities kit—we have 3 in circulation)
  - Traveling Kitchen.
  - I will be adding some STEM items in 2023 as well.
  - See my libguides for more info and contact me to borrow.
