

Dorothy M. Little Award

NHLTA established the award in 1988, after Dorothy M. Little passed away in 1987. Dorothy was the first recipient of the award, which was awarded to her posthumously in 1988.

The following are the award's recipients since its 1988 inception. A plaque at the State Library lists the recipients of NHLTA's Dorothy M. Little award. Upon the announcement of the winner that year, the NH State Librarian to be notified of the name of the recipient so that the plaque at the State Library is updated.

- 2023 Constance Kirwin, James A. Tuttle Library, Antrim
- 2021 Conrad V. Moses, East Kingston Public Library
- 2020 Lori Fischer, NH State Library, Concord
- 2017 Adele Knight, Dublin Public Library, Dublin
- 2013 Peter E. Moore, Lincoln Public Library, Lincoln
- 2012 Sara Jones, Salisbury Free Library, Salisbury
- 2005 Thomas Ladd, NH State Library, Concord
- 2002 Lillian Edelmann, Blaisdell Memorial Library, Nottingham
- 2001 Patricia M. Skinner, Nesmith Library, Windham
- 1999 Terry M. Knowles, Weare Public Library, Weare
- 1998 John C. Barrett, Franklin Public Library, Franklin
- 1994 Dorothy Holden, NH State Library, Concord
- 1992 Jane Palmer, North Hampton Public Library, North Hampton
- 1991 Francis M. Wiggin, Bedford Public Library, Bedford
- 1990 Shirley Gray Adamovich, NH State Library, Concord
- 1989 Emerson Greenaway, Tracy Memorial Library, New London
- 1988 Dorothy M. Little, Lane Memorial Library, Hampton