NEW HAMPTON POLICE CHIEF

The Town of New Hampton is pleased to announce that Timothy Stevens has been selected as the Town’s new Police Chief, replacing Chief George Huckins who recently retired after serving the community for 23 years. The incoming Chief will be responsible for continuing the departments high level of police services, expanding community outreach and public safety awareness.

After serving 20 years in the US Marine Corps, Chief Stevens entered law enforcement where he has served as both a State Trooper and a municipal Police Officer for the past 15 years, most recently as Chief of Police in the town of Hill, NH.

Chief Stevens stated he was very excited to join the team at New Hampton Police Department that share his commitment to public service and excellence in serving their community. Neil Irvine, Chair of the Board of Selectmen, said “We had a very robust selection process, Chief Stevens competed well and stood out as someone whose proven leadership and philosophy of community engagement will be important assets for the department and the Town.”

Please join us in welcoming him to New Hampton. Chief Stevens will commence his duties as Chief of Police on September 10, 2018.
