Annual Children's Book & Media Sale

Fall into the Friends of the Northborough Library's Annual Children's Book & Media Sale! It's a great way to get started on your holiday shopping! The sale runs Wednesday, November 2nd—Saturday, November 5th. Book Sale hours are Wednesday 3:00 PM-8:00 PM, Thursday & Friday 9:30 AM-5:00 PM, & Saturday (Bargain Day) 9:30 AM-3:00 PM (the Bag sale starts at 2:00 PM). There will be a wide range of children's books available, including picture books, board books, first reader & intermediate reader books. We will also have children's audiobooks & DVDs. It's a great resource for teachers, daycares and parents. Donations of books and media are greatly appreciated. Please drop off inside the library in the front conference room. Volunteers are needed to help set up, clean up and take shifts during the sales. Any amount of time is greatly appreciated! Please contact Lisa Hodge at lisabhodge@yahoo.com if you would like to help.

English Conversation Circles

English Conversation Circle Volunteers Needed for Tuesday Evenings!

English Conversation Circles are one-hour informal group meetings run by library volunteers for adults who want to improve their conversational English. During the meetings attendees:

- Practice listening, speaking, and pronunciation through normal, everyday conversations
- Meet people from all over the world
- Have fun speaking in English with other adults who are also learning.

We are currently seeking friendly, outgoing, volunteers who are interested in assisting the Conversation Circle Leaders in the Tuesday evening meetings from 7- 8 pm in the Library's Internet Cafe. In this volunteer position, you will assist the English Conversation Circle Leader with:

- Planning topics and any handouts prior to meeting
- Encouraging participation among attendees
- Moderating discussions amongst attendees in circle, or in smaller groups within the circle
- Keeping records of attendees.

If you are interested in volunteering, please contact Adult Services Librarian Deborah Hersh at (508) 393-5025 ext. 5 or at adults@northboroughlibrary.org.

Adult Programs & Book Groups

Fall for Art at the Northborough Free Library is a series of beginner workshops for adults designed to nurture your creative side. There is still room in our October workshops. Sign-up now so you don't miss out!

Learn to Tie a Fly. Tuesday, Oct. 18th and Thursday, Oct. 20th 6:30 – 8:30 p.m.

Art and science meet when designing and tying artificial flies that replicate prey in order to catch fish. Over the course of this two evening workshop, Jim Lagacy from MassWildLife and Todd Girard from the Charlton Conservation Commission share their passion and skill in showing you how to tie beautiful, functional flies for catching fish. Catch more fish with a custom fly, or create one for the fisherman (or fisherwoman) on your holiday list. Beginners only, please. Registration required. Please note: You must attend both evenings. Free.

Zentangle. Saturday, Oct. 22nd 2:30 – 5:00 p.m.

Practice the meditative art of Zentangle where you will create beautiful images by drawing structured patterns. Back by popular demand, Pam Lisak leads this workshop featuring white pen on black tiles. Registration Required. A fee of $5.00 collected on the day of the workshop is required to participate. All Fall for Art events are sponsored by the Friends of the Northborough Free Library.

Come and color a while and feel your stress melt away at Adult Coloring Nights. We'll provide all the art supplies and coloring pages (or bring your own). Bring a friend for a fun and relaxing night out: Mondays: October 3rd, November 7th and December 5th from 7 – 8:15pm in the Library Conference Room. Free.
