

PALISADES FREE LIBRARY
SECRET

ART AUCTION

Announcing the Palisades Free Library's second annual Secret Postcard Auction. We are soliciting community members—professional artists and hobbyists alike—to each donate a postcard sized work of art, which will then be auctioned off to benefit the library.

Works will be displayed anonymously, with well-known artists hung next to amateur works, and that's why it's called a "secret" show—you won't know whose postcard you are bidding on until the auction is over. Opening in early May 2023, the works will be hung in the library's community room, with the auction coinciding with our Springfest event on May 20.

If you're interested in donating a work of art to our benefit auction, please use Hahnemühle postcard paper, size 4.1" x 5.8". You can buy a 20 sheet pad of this paper for about $8, or come to the library for a blank postcard.

ARTISTS SHOULD SIGN THE BACK OF THE WORK TO KEEP THE AUCTION ANONYMOUS

Art works are due to the library by April 28.
