Section 2. The Somers Library provides and seeks to improve free public library service to all residents of the Town of Somers, New York, and to residents of Westchester County communities with which the Somers Library engages in cooperative services. Books and library services are provided for the interest, information and enlightenment of all people of the communities served. To the extent possible, materials and information will present a wide range of viewpoints on current and historical issues. Materials or information will not be proscribed or removed because of partisan or doctrinal disapproval.

Section 3. No person will be denied the right to use the library because of gender, race, age, disability, marital status, sexual orientation, religion, national origin or creed. However, all persons using the Somers Library will be subject to the statement of policy, the library code of conduct and all other policies of the trustees. Anyone willfully violating such policies may be excluded from services of the library.

Section 4. An officer may be removed for cause at any time by a two-thirds vote of the board of trustees (i.e., five trustees). All vacancies among officers may be filled by a majority vote of the full board of trustees (i.e., four trustees).

Section 5. The president shall be the presiding officer at all meetings of the trustees, and shall see that the bylaws and all resolutions of the trustees are carried into effect. The president shall sign all official documents, written contracts and obligations, unless otherwise provided by resolution of the trustees, or dictated by state or local law.

Section 6. The vice-president shall perform the duties of the president in the event of his/her absence, resignation or inability to perform those duties.

The treasurer shall review and sign all expenditure vouchers and the abstract of vendor payments. All books and records shall be open to inspection by any trustee. In the absence of the treasurer, selected duties of this position shall be performed by such other members of the board as the board may designate.

A paid secretary to the board shall render monthly reports of all meetings of the trustees including minutes of the meetings and records of all official acts of the trustees occurring during the month.

The lead trustee will be the accountable party.

The trustees shall also administer the applicable civil service regulations and negotiate any applicable salary items or conditions of employment.

Section 3. The board has broad authority to manage the affairs of the library, but it is a collective authority. Individual trustees, regardless of their position on the board, may not speak or act on behalf of the library unless they have been specifically granted that authority by a vote of the board.

Section 4. The building and grounds are the direct responsibility of the town board; however, the trustees shall have an oversight responsibility for them. The trustees shall notify the town board when major repairs are necessary.

Section 5. The trustees shall discharge financial responsibility for the library and operate within the budget adopted by the trustees and adopted by the town board.

trustee approval, these documents shall be reviewed and adopted by the full library board and submitted to the town board for their final review and adoption.

Adoption of such amendments can be made by a two-thirds vote of the full board of trustees (i.e., five trustees, regardless of the number present) at a subsequent meeting.

Section 2. Any policy or resolution of the board, whether contained in these bylaws or otherwise, may be suspended temporarily in connection with business at hand, but such suspension must be approved only at a meeting at which two-thirds of the board of trustees (i.e., five trustees) shall be present and two-thirds of those present (i.e., three trustees) shall so approve.
