

Book, Cook and Create

July 30, August 6, August 13, August 20, 11 a.m. - 12:30 p.m.
South Haven Memorial Library 314 Broadway St. South Haven

Join us for a fun program where you will explore a variety of cultures through discussion, food, and art. Come celebrate heritage with local families, and . . .

- Listen to a story that honors food and family.
- Create art projects related to the story.
- Learn how to make and taste foods from different cultures.

This event is free and open to families in the community. Though everybody is welcome, the books read are geared towards elementary-level students.

Registration is required. To register, call the library at (269) 637-2403. For questions or more information, contact Isabel Hinton at hintoni@Bronsonhg.org.
