

VIRTUAL AUTHOR TALKS

Beginning in January, the Southborough Library will launch an exciting new series! Each month, we'll showcase a virtual author talk series featuring bestselling, award-winning, and highly acclaimed authors from around the world. The featured writers and thought leaders will cover a wide range of fiction and nonfiction genres.

The free, virtual author talks take place two to three times a month and include the opportunity to ask the author questions. A complete list of events is available on the Southborough Library's virtual author talk website at bit.ly/sblliblsc.

All talks are free and open to the public. Can't make it to the live event? Recordings will be posted to our website where you can watch over 75 previously recorded author talks. For more information or to register for the author talks, visit bit.ly/sblliblsc.

Support for this program was provided by a grant from the Southborough Community Fund, a fund of the Community Foundation for MetroWest.

UPCOMING:

TJ Klune
Wednesday, 1/15 @ 7pm

Author TJ Klune will talk about his Cerulean Chronicles series, with special emphasis on his newest book, Somewhere Beyond the Sea.

Amanda Montell
Thursday, 1/23 @ 2pm

In a blend of cultural criticism and personal narrative, Amanda Montell will discuss our cognitive biases and the power, disadvantages, and highlights of magical thinking.

Seth Fishman
Tuesday, 1/28 @ 1pm

Seth Fishman, Vice President and Literary Agent at the Gernert Company, will provide an inside look into working with an agent and the beginning stages of the publishing process