

Sarah Corbitt, MA Simmons College

(Trustee since 2022)

I love books and the way they allow me to inhabit other people and places. I love libraries because that's where everyone has free access to everything books offer.

Larissa Fuchs

(Trustee since 2023)

I believe Libraries are a bedrock of the community, and a very important tool for connection. Investing in the Library is investing in a more understanding, accepting, knowledgeable society. I have gotten so much from it throughout my life, being part of the Board is a privilege and my way of giving back.

Brazilian native, lives with her husband, child and 2 dogs.

Peter Gold

(Trustee since 2022)

Serving On The Board of Trustees gives me an opportunity to give back to the Library a portion of what it gives to me, and is an opportunity to apply what I have learned working professionally for decades with community arts organizations.

Margit Price

(Trustee since 2021)

Lives in the Tihonet Pond area with her husband and 2 cats. Loves everything that libraries represent - community, literacy, equal access, innovation.

Nancy Rice

(Trustee since 2019)

Wareham native. Retired high school teacher. Avid reader. Library lover

Holli Van Nest

(Trustee since 2021)
