Priorities
In general, the Library allows groups to reserve meeting rooms on a first-come, first-served basis, or (in case of conflict) according to the following order of priority: 1. Library programs and meetings. 2. Local government meetings/programs, 3. Meetings or programs of non-profit educational, cultural, civic or social organizations. 4. Meetings for the general public.

Description of Meeting Spaces

Meeting Room
The meeting room has a table, chairs, computer, Wi-Fi, Blu-Ray, and a maximum capacity of 14 people.

Community Program Room
The program room has capacity of 80 chairs, coat racks, podium with microphone, projector, Blu-Ray/DVD player, TV, Wi-Fi, and a document scanner. There is also a kitchenette available.

Please Note:
- The Library staff is not responsible for the supervision of children while adults are attending meetings or events. A copy of the Library’s Unattended Child Policy is available upon request.
- Room users must provide all their own supplies including easel stands, paper products, markers, paper goods, etc.
- Simple refreshments including coffee, doughnuts, box or sack lunches, may be served.
- Smoking is not allowed on Library property.
- The applicant must confine the organization's activities to the assigned area and it may not be used for day-care or babysitting purposes.
- Groups are advised to orient their members to exit routes available in case of an emergency. Groups are required to follow posted procedures, follow staff instructions, and evacuate the building during emergencies and emergency drills.
- All exits must be kept unlocked and unblocked, at all times. Groups are responsible for restoring the function site to its original condition. All chairs, tables, chair cushions and other items must be placed in their original positions. At the discretion of the Library Director, the individual or group will be charged for any damages made to the Library facility including furnishings, equipment, carpeting etc. during their use of it. This includes, but is not limited to, the cost of any special cleaning required after an individual or group’s use of a meeting room.
- Groups are expected to be in and out of the designated room in the time allotted for their event.
- The Library will not be responsible for any materials or equipment left in the room. The Library cannot store items for groups using a room.
- Permission to use the Library’s rooms does not constitute Library endorsement of the beliefs or ideas expressed by organizations or individuals using the space, or sponsorship of any program or event by the Library.
An orientation is necessary for any group using the community program room no sooner than one week before the room use.

Permission to use or to continue use of the Library’s meeting and community program room may be withheld from groups failing to comply with the Library Room Use policy.

Interpretations of and exceptions to this policy may be made in the best interest of the Library at the discretion of the Library Director.

Please submit this completed application in person to the Patron Services Librarian no less than 30 days before the date of your meeting. If you have questions, please call the Library at (207) 646-8181.
